

How Can We Do It? . . .

Just imagine, if you have a few minutes, that your salary is $8,200 a year—and you are almost $30,000 in debt. Last year your debt increased by $390. This year you are adding at least $700 to your indebtedness.

Your friends warn you that you can't continue to pile up additional debt, that this is the road to financial ruin. So you and your wife talk it over and decide to draw up a budget for next year.

But instead of reducing expenditures—or even holding them at their present level—you decide that you will spend $340 more next year than this year. You reach this decision on the assumption—there is nothing definite—that you will receive a salary increase next year; therefore you plan to spend it.

Nearly everyone would agree that a family handling its finances on this basis is in trouble and headed for more serious trouble.

Yet, add seven ciphers to these figures—and you have the exact fiscal situation of the government under the present administration!

Rains End Drought But Brings Frost Danger

The rains of Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday ended any danger of severe drought in the area but cooling temperatures have brought the imminent danger of a killing frost.

The mercury dropped to 36 degrees this morning and the prediction was that it would go several degrees lower tonight.

The rains however, revived crops and vegetable gardens that had been at a standstill for the past three weeks.

The entire state had been suffering from drought with the exception of this county, according to official weather observers, and the extended dry spell was beginning to hurt this county considerably.

A resume of the week's weather showed Friday fair with temperatures going to 86 degrees. Saturday was cloudy, with temperatures at 74 but no rain fell. Early Sunday morning the rain began to fall and continued much of the day. Monday remained cloudy with very little rain, but rain fell again on Tuesday with some clearing in the evening. Wednesday brought additional rain and cooling temperatures. It dropped from 61 to 53 degrees within an hour and continued to drop during the night. Thursday was cloudless in the morning hours.

Seek 100 Pints Or More In Next Visit Of Bloodmobile, 19th

In an effort to obtain as many pints of blood as possible for the next visit of the Johnstown Red Cross bloodmobile unit to Oakland, Mrs. Grover Stemple, blood recruitment chairman, said she was sending out 150 or more cards to people of the area.

Mrs. Stemple stressed the importance of surpassing the city's quota in this next visit which is scheduled for Wednesday, September 19, from noon until 6 o'clock. At the last visit in May the local chapter was 29 pints short of the quota while in Kitzmiller a few weeks ago the quota was 18 pints short.

The attempt will be made on the 19th to fill the quota of 100 pints and will make a try to make up the present deficit.

She stressed the importance of cooperating with the blood program, relating that in emergencies, people usually come through but are inclined to forget the day to day needs. Mrs. Stemple received a call for three donors for an emergency at the local hospital on Labor day and within fifteen minutes the donors had been obtained.

Oakland Firemen Answer Assist Call

Oakland firemen were called twice during the week, one an assist call to the Gorman fire department, and the other to extinguish a blaze in the Oakland garbage truck.

The assist call was received at 1:50 last Thursday, as the result of a fire at the Paul Steyer frame dwelling at Steyer, occupied by Mr. Steyer and his family. The building was saved but not before considerable damage was done.

The fire started in the downstairs bedroom in front of the house while Mrs. Steyer was visiting. Oakland firemen said the fire was under control by the Gorman firefighters when the Oakland department arrived.

The garbage truck fire on Friday morning was extinguished without any loss. It was caused when some hot garbage was loaded onto the truck in the business district. The fire was discovered as the truck reached Liberty street.

4,803 Enroll In Public Schools On Opening Day

Southern Has 1178, Increase Of 56; Northern Has 768, Up 3 Over 1961

Garrett county schools opened for the 1962-63 term with an enrollment of 4,803, 139 more than the opening day of last year. A good bit of the increase was at southern high school and Center street school.

The doors opened for a full day of instruction with a minimum of confusion and with no transportation difficulties, but some shifting was made necessary by the increase in enrollment.

Enrollment increases The enrollment increased by 42 on the second day, shooting the total to 4,845. Although county records were not immediately available, it was stated that this was probably the highest enrollment the county schools ever had.

Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, said the Board of Education was planning to take out one section of fourth graders in the Center street school and put them in the Dennett road school. One teacher will be added and the pupils will be housed for the time being in the library.

There was also discussion with parents of the children of the Underwood community, at present going to Loch Lynn. There was a possibility they would be transferred to the Red House school, in order to even up the enrollment in the two schools.

Southern High school had a first day enrollment of 1178, 56 more than last year and five ahead of the first day enrollment of 1173 in 1960. Northern high school reported an enrollment of 768, three more than opening day of 1961.

First day enrollment in other schools: Dennett Road 369, down 1; Center street 408, up 32; Swanton 56, up 12; North Glade 23, down 17; Friendsville 243, down 19; Grantsville 344, up 8; Yoder 102, up 2; Bloomington 119, up 17; Accident 215, down 15; Swan Meadow 52, up 3; Red House 134, down 8; Loch Lynn 191, up 2; Green street school 23, up 12; Deer Park 63, up 10; route 40 212, down 8; Kitzmiller 216, down 25; Crellin 87, up 8.

Pre-school preparations on the part of principals, teachers, cafeteria workers, but drivers and custodians had everything in readiness for a smooth opening first day and the day passed in just that manner.

Mr. Hawkins estimated that before the end of two weeks the enrollment may reach 5,000, since normally there was an increase of about 5 percent over the opening day figures.

Some of the increase was the result of a number of new families moving into the county as the result of work at the Stony River dam project, the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company and other activities.

Bus Drivers Elect

At a business meeting of the Garrett County School Bus Operators' association held last Friday at the Southern High school cafeteria Audley Riley was elected president. Others named were Wilmer Margroff, vice-president; G. Harold Yoder, secretary; and Asa Nethken, treasurer.

Peace Or War? Testing, Appointment—All peace-loving Americans must give strong support for the President's decision to resume nuclear testing, for the greatest deterrent to war today is our superiority in nuclear weaponry, and we can maintain that superiority only by testing. While we must support the President's position in this respect, we must criticize the policy of appeasement being demonstrated at the Geneva Conference. There is no hope for a peaceful settlement with the Communist tyrants as long as the United States follows the weak policy of appeasement in dealing with the Russians. The effect of U. S. concessions to Russia on a future test ban is to picture this country as having no firm position, as backing away from its earlier stand.

Anyone who has followed events knows the good faith of the United States in the matter of nuclear testing. For 16 years, the United States has devised and presented plans for ending the race in nuclear arms, and for 16 years the Soviets have knocked our disarmament proposals in the head. Again, our representatives in Geneva present a proposal—a concession to the Soviets—and again the Soviets brush it aside. We had a moratorium on nuclear testing, but the Soviets broke that moratorium, as the whole world knows. Yet thousands of men and women who are against nuclear testing are demonstrating primarily against the United States. There are sit-down demonstrations in Times Square, not in Red Square. There is rioting outside American embassies, not outside Soviet embassies. There is a hue and cry when we announce a testing program, but virtual silence when the Soviets announce their testing programs.

Now, pacifism has an honorable history, dating back to the early days of the human race. It comes from religious conviction on the part of sincere people who, as a matter of high principle, are against the killing of man by man, whether with slings, bows and arrows, gunpowder, or bombs. The position of these people has in it the elements of the heroic. It is a far cry from the shabby antics of the nuclear pacifists, concerned not with conscience but with plain animal fear.

So, we have two distinct kinds of pacifists. It's unfortunate that so many honorable pacifists have made common cause with the strange, twisted nuclear pacifists. It is to be hoped that the sincere pacifist, concerned with the saving of his fellow man, will recognize the vast difference between saying, "I'd rather be dead than kill a fellow human being," and uttering the current unpatriotic slogan, "Better Red than dead!"

Administration Failure On Farm Legislation—Congress is not buying the Kennedy Administration program of rigid crop control, of virtual Federal management of private farms. The bill which passed the Senate, 47 to 37, last Wednesday and was sent to the House for consideration is a watered-down, stop-gap extension of the program now in effect. The original Kennedy farm program would have the Federal government stepping into virtually every facet of farming, extending its controls, despite the poor showing of the subsidy program thus far. To this, the people say "No". Despite the result of various polls, the Department of Agriculture goes on its merry way trying to find political solutions for our farm problems. Scandals continue to pile up as a result of the ridiculous program. While the Billie Sol Estes case is still sizzling, other shenanigans are coming to light. The illegal sale of Federal rice quotas is being investigated. It is charged that private cotton brokers, with the help of the Department of Agriculture, sold $400,000,000 worth of Government cotton to themselves at below-market prices, and then resold it and pocketed the profits. All of this crookedness stems from a program which empowers bureaucrats to enter markets for the express purpose of rigging them. As long as we have Big Government reaching out to touch important facets of farming, that long shall we have opportunity for favors, pay-offs, abuses and racketeering in agriculture.

Sensing the general feeling in Congress, the Administration abandoned all efforts to assume tight production controls, and proposed only a continuation of the voluntary program plus a wheat marketing certificate plan, which would require two-thirds approval by the farmers in a 1963 referendum. The idea of bushel-limitation rather than acre-limitation was advanced to prevent resourceful farmers from stepping up production by heavy fertilization of acres not taken out of production.

I'm against the whole farm-subsidy principle, and I voted against the farm bill. Although the amendment of Senator Tower of Texas looking to the ultimate ending of the subsidy program was defeated, you can look for the position reflected in the Tower Amendment to gain strength in Congress in future sessions.

The American farmer doesn't want to be protected, coddled, babied, or bullied. He wants to manage his own affairs. To this end, he wants the highly expensive subsidy-and-control program gradually eased off and brought to a merciful end. The whole system is inimical to the American way of life.

Dulles Airport Boondoggle. Unfair Competition—Under present circumstances, the Federally financed Dulles Airport at Chantilly, Virginia, which will, I believe, cost the taxpayers some $150,000,000 before it's finished, would have an unfair advantage over its competitor, the Friendship International Airport, midway between Washington and Baltimore, and for this reason, I have introduced a bill to transfer administrative responsibility for the operation of Dulles and Washington National Airport from the obviously biased Federal Aviation Agency to an unbiased Washington Airport Board. The FAA

Seven mishaps occurred on U. S. route 40, four on state route 135, one on U. S. 219, one on state 560, and four on unnumbered routes.

Causes listed included improper passing, following too closely, reckless driving and speeding. There were 60 traffic deaths during July throughout the state, bringing the total to 309 in seven months, a 33 percent increase over last year.

favors the Dulles boondoggle, and it would be too much to expect that agency to be able to render fair decisions as to which airport, Dulles or Friendship, each of the various airlines is to use.

Confusion Contingent Upon The Talking Lobster—The filibuster against the President's Communications Satellite Bill pointed up some of the confusion which has arisen on matters of national legislation. The debate illustrated the current imperfect understanding of major issues. Opponents of the President's proposed corporation seemed to be worried that the corporation would carry on business negotiations abroad which might give the Bell telephone system a dominant position in foreign affairs, but they never explained this. Though the President's proposal is a strictly American plan, promoting free enterprise, it was attacked by Americans. It is hard to understand the desire on anyone's part to set up a government monopoly—hard to understand the evident distaste for free enterprise, which is the goose that lays golden eggs for America. Why should anyone want to destroy it or limit its activity? Now, of course, some of the opponents of the Telstar bill are from States benefitting handsomely from big government power projects, such as TVA—and their siding with government ownership, as against free enterprise, is understandable. However, they spoke reproachfully of "government give-aways", while, as a matter of fact, they have been the beneficiaries of the biggest "government give-aways" in history. Some have once said that the Tennessee River flows through 2 States and drains the other 48.

For another classic example of confusion on major legislation, take "Medicare". The people who favor it, generally speaking, do not recognize its shortcomings. Many joined in the well-organized hally-hoo for "King-Anderson" without understanding that it was a "millionaires' bill" and would be quite inadequate for the elderly in need. Some who say they favor "King-Anderson" say it only because they have been told to say it, while they don't know what "King-Anderson" is.

Then, there's the double talk about the Foreign Trade Bill. Contemplating the general state of confusion and the double talk, I'm reminded of the story of the man and the lobster. Carrying the lobster along the street, this man met a friend who inquired, "Where're you going with that lobster?" The man replied, "I'm taking him home for dinner." The lobster looked up and said, "I've had my dinner; let's go to a movie."

State Department testimony in support of Mr. Kennedy's appeal for authority to buy 100 million dollars in United Nations bonds to tide the organization over a financial crisis arising from its military intervention in the Congo discloses this:

Without waiting for any authorization to buy bonds, the United States government has voluntarily given the U. N. 25 million dollars from foreign aid appropriations to keep it out of bankruptcy.

Upon pocketing these American funds, the U. N. then voted remission of a major share of assessments against a large number of member nations for support of the Congo operation.

The effect of this was to use the American handout to subsidize numerous U. N. members which are either hostile to the United States or indifferent to its foreign policy goals.

The total kicked back to these nations at the expense of the American taxpayer was $11,400,800. Thus Castro's communist Cuba was provided with a gift of $140,300 at American expense; Poland, a soviet satellite, with $512,000; communist Yugoslavia with $243,000 and 'neutralist' India with $140,800.

Some of the beneficiaries were deadbeats which had failed to pay their assessments in maintaining the U. N. "peace keeping forces" in the Congo and the Gaza strip. Among them were Poland and Listen Americans!

... by Dr. George S. Benson
PRESIDENT — NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

It seems characteristic of the American personality to want the biggest and the best, in a hurry. This is an essential element of the enterprise system: a peppy, get-up-and-go spirit. We have reaped bountiful rewards from this system, and we would be foolish to change it. But when some groups wish their luck too far, one questions whether enterprise is then "free."

One area that desperately needs self-restraint is the ever soaring price of American labor. Such restraint has been recommended by President Kennedy through his "guideline" system, but there are indications that unions are widely exceeding his recommendations in their push for wage increases.

So far this year, the record is not encouraging. The record shows that labor in the construction industry has been asking increases far above the Kennedy guideline of 3 per cent. Wages in construction on the average have risen 57 per cent in the past ten years. Yet, this year, for example, New Jersey carpenters were asking for increases of 80 cents an hour that would bring their pay to $15-plus for an 8-hour day. Plumbers in San Francisco won boosts that average 14 per cent in a three-year period, bringing their rate to $7.55 an hour by 1963.

Increases estimated at $10.5 million were won from the railroads by the non-operating unions, with government approval. But many roads are so deeply in the red that they say they will have to lay off thousands in order to pay the increases. The New York Central, for example, lost $10.3 million last year, yet its workers won increases that are expected to reach $8 million a year. Increases will cost the Pennsylvania Railroad $10.5 million next year, about three times what the road earned in 1961. And the operating unions have yet to begin their push.

It is to labor's advantage to exercise restraint in holding down the wage spiral. At the risk of over-simplifying, we might remind ourselves that Mr. Khrushchev has expressed himself in favor of "much higher wages" and "much shorter hours" for Americans. Here is our nation's most vicious enemy, who has promised to bury us and to preside over the general economic collapse that he hopes will make possible a Soviet take-over. Is there any question why Mr. K has advocated a policy for America that is identical with that of some of our unions and their leaders?

When Gus Hall, the U. S. Communist Party functionary, returned from Moscow following the 1962 strategy how-how, he set about building the line that Khrushchev had ordered. Communists, Hall said, would work for higher wages and shorter hours. They are still aware that such an achievement tends to price America out of essential world markets and spark economic chaos at home which in turn will help break the nation and bankrupt us into submission. American labor has largely repudiated Communism. Now is the time to repudiate Gus Hall's Communist objectives.

Everybody understands that labor is organized to bargain for wages. But this is a time when labor should examine realities. It is a time when labor should look toward long range objectives that are in keeping with the needs of the hour. The real concern of labor now should be to maintain a high level of productivity and to secure for posterity the productive jobs that control the affairs, under the best working conditions and highest living standards any employee ever enjoyed. Although some will not welcome the advice, this is a time when such goals are hindered by continual pushing toward higher pay for fewer hours.

Nuclear Testing And Control
During the past weeks, the news media have been carrying stories about testing of nuclear weapons both by the Russians and by the United States. The Russians have exploded some very large nuclear weapons, some estimated to be in the range of 30 to 40 megatons. Last week they exploded a smaller weapon, perhaps only twelve megatons. When I say only twelve megatons it is a relative use of the word "only" because twelve megatons is the equivalent of 12 million tons of T.N.T., an enormous explosive.

force. One shudders at the very thought that it might be employed against civilized cities and communities, whenever that might be in the world.

I have a very personal feeling about the use of nuclear weapons and about their control, because I actually have seen the nuclear ashes of the cities in Japan which were bombed, Hiroshima and Nagasaki. I was there within 30 days of the time that the first atom bombs were exploded over these cities, and I know from personal observation the horror which accompanies this kind of nuclear attack.

Now what are we doing in the field of international negotiation to bring about an end to the tests of nuclear weapons? This is one of the most difficult areas of negotiations with the Russians and the Communist bloc generally. The Russians have for many years rejected the idea of any kind of international inspection which would, in their view, invade the sovereignty and the soil of Russia. We, on the other hand, have from time to time agreed that we would submit to international inspections of nuclear sites, you may recall President Eisenhower's very stirring proposal known as the Open Skies Agreement, which he offered to enter into as a first step, granting the right of countries to fly over each other's territory. Such flights would detect nuclear explosions in violation of a treaty or agreement.

We do not seem to have achieved any progress whatever on the road toward an agreement to limit nuclear testing. I have received a letter from Mr. William C. Foster, the director of the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, who reports that there have been two major technical advances which may help in getting an agreement with the Communist bloc on nuclear testing in the atmosphere and in underground sites. He says that the first of these developments establishes a better capability for long-distance detection of earth tremors caused by nuclear explosions or earth quakes and makes it possible to propose a simpler and more economical system of internationally supervised long-range detection stations. The second development is a recognition that the earlier estimate of the number of tremors from earthquakes that might be confused with tremors from nuclear explosions has been shown by actual observation and research to be several times too large. Since there are fewer earthquakes which produce tremors similar to those of a nuclear explosion the number of on-site inspections needed to identify the cause of the tremors is less than was previously thought necessary.

I am personally very glad to know of the technical developments reported by Mr. Foster in his letter. At the same time it seems to me that we must not lose sight of the fact that on-site inspections are essential. Any agreement that can be negotiated with the Russians and with other nuclear powers is going to have to include the right to have on-site inspections by a responsible international authority. Without this, it would be sheer folly for the United States to enter into any agreement limiting the research and development of weapons needed to defend ourselves if nuclear war should be thrust upon us.

A total of forty students from nine different states took part in the program which placed emphasis on the new Chemical Bond Approach chemistry course. This program has been jointly developed by selected high school and college teachers with support from the National Science Foundation. The course has been tested in selected high schools throughout the country and is regarded as being very challenging. A full year's course was concentrated into five weeks. As both boys commented, "We had little time for recreation. We had classes all day and loads of homework. Even so, we enjoyed it and returned to Oakland not only with an understanding of the new approach to chemistry but also, better equipped to cope with the problems of college students, which we hope to be next year."

Record Enrollment At Southern High

Southern High School opened its doors this week to a record enrollment of 1178 students. In addition to students from feeder schools and St. Peter's Parochial school, fifty pupils new to Garrett County were enrolled. While most of these students were from Maryland schools or nearby surrounding states, one boy was last enrolled in school in Washington state.

The ninth grade received the greatest influx in growth, as 239 were enrolled. A breakdown by grades showed the following: seventh grade 209, eighth grade 201, ninth grade 239, tenth grade 211, eleventh grade 174 and twelfth grade 143.

As a result of pre-school registration, all students were enrolled in classes by 10:15. Instruction began with the second period class at ten o'clock as classes progressed throughout the day. Students soon learned that the summer vacation had come to an end. Many students went home with homework assignments.

Kenneth Johns, principal, praised teachers and students, "for getting school off to a good start."

Mr. Johns went on to say that with the increased enrollment, there was the need for additional classrooms each period of the day. "As the number of volumes in our library increases, the facilities for research and study need to be enlarged."

"Twelve science classes are being taught in rooms which were not equipped for such teaching. It is obvious that Southern High school will need to be enlarged in the future," he stated.

Absentee Ballots To Include Two Issues

The secretary of state has advised county election boards to print on their absentee ballots two statewide issues on which a decision is now pending in the Maryland Court of Appeals.

The questions involve 1961 acts regulating the savings and loan industry in Maryland and creation of the municipal court in Baltimore.

The acts were petitioned to public referendum after the 1961 legislature. A decision is now pending in the Court of Appeals on whether the attorney general acted properly in throwing out a number of petitions on the grounds they bore one or more invalid names.

Secretary of State Lloyd I. Simpson said he was certifying the issues to election boards in the absence of a final court ruling because absentee ballots must be printed 55 days in advance of the November 6 election.

He said the high court's ruling, expected soon after it returns for its fall term September 19, would be available in time to determine whether the issues will go on ballots for voting machines.

Simpson is advising local boards that if the high court should uphold the attorney general's action they need not count the absentee votes for or against the questions concerned.

Simpson said he acted on the advice of the attorney general.

To Discuss Strip Mine Reforestation

Two authorities on tree planting on strip-mined areas from West Virginia University, Morgantown, were scheduled to come to Oakland today to confer with representatives of the State Department of Forests and Parks on what can be done in this and Allegany county to reforest the blighted areas.

The WVU representatives are E. H. Tryon and James H. Brown. Meeting with them will be Adria R. Bond, assistant state forester; W. A. C. Irwin, district forester; Paul Mateer, Jared Wolfe and Arthur Morrill, assistant district foresters; and Jack Brodie, assistant district forester at Lonaconing. Mr. Brown has written a 34-page booklet entitled "Success of Tree Planting on Strip Mined Areas of West Virginia," which was published last April. He notes that surface mining of coal has directly affected nearly 70,000 acres of land in 36 of West Virginia's 55 counties. Revegetation offers the most practical means of stabilizing these areas and returning them to a productive condition.

One of Mr. Brown's conclusions on a survey of tree plantings was that successful stands of trees were established on nearly 75 percent of the spoil bank land planted in West Virginia, while partially successful stands resulted on nearly 20 percent of the area planted. Stands were rated as failures on only six percent of the total area planted.

The owner of the car, Joe C. Pictures Out Of The Past

Today there are luncheon clubs, dinner clubs and all sorts of other clubs which exist primarily for the purpose of providing an excuse to eat. But when this group of men banded together in 1911 they used the more direct approach, and called their organization "The Hungry Club."

The photograph is owned by Mrs. C. D. Bosley, and according to information accompanying it, the group was composed of "men who were always hungry." They would go around the country and order huge meals—it seemed they were never filled.

"The picture was taken in 1911 on a hay wagon at the Mt. Lake Park athletic field."

Mr. Stemple is the only one of the group still living.

Photos Come From Readers

All photographs used in the old picture series are supplied by readers. Persons having scenes of general interest are requested to submit for possible use.

The photos should be of a suitable size and reasonably clear. Identifications of groups or scenes should be included. All will be returned unharmed.

Arthur Goldberg, secretary of labor, was named to replace Justice Frankfurter of the Supreme court because of the latter's retirement because of ill health.

Manned by three local college girls, Mary Lou Vetter, Susan Gibson and Jane Hant, the booth has had a record-breaking season. All calls for information will be transferred to the Council's Oakland office.

Thomas Conlon, Cumberland, was the speaker and he emphasized that Garrett county should make every effort to continue promoting travel and tourism, the "smokeless industry." Conlon is an officer of the Route 40 association, the Maryland Travel council and is an Allegany county delegate to the General Assembly. He urged all businesses to support promotion efforts regardless of actual dollars and cents value received. He congratulated the Promotion Council for its progress.

Following the meeting refreshments were served.

LIFE'S LABORATORY

Have you ever thought of your life as a laboratory? There are no test tubes and no scientific textbooks to aid us in our study, but we've been given other aids more important still. We call them God's formulas for living.

ARE WE AFRAID? Then we may test the Christ-given formula, "Be not afraid, only believe."

ARE WE LONELY? Then we reach for the promise of the Lord, "And lo, I am with you always..."

DO WE DOUBT THAT GOD CARES? Then we can analyze for ourselves the message of the Christ, "God so loved the world that He gave His Son..."

These are only a few of the formulas for our lives.

To test them we must first know them. The Church is ready to teach. We shall need direction also. The Church offers us the help of consecrated pastors and leaders.

Let's go to Church and learn the transforming power of God's formulas in the laboratories of our lives.

Start and Finish

Lesson for September 9, 1962

THE TWO parts or stages of any job, or of any enterprise, which are the hardest, are starting and finishing. It is more difficult to set a great liner on her way, harder to bring it through the harbor traffic at the end of the voyage, than to handle the ship on open water in mid-voyage. It is harder for a student to get himself organized and get to work, than it is to keep going once he has started. And it is harder to bring that term paper together as it ought to be finished up, than it was to write it on. What were the critical moments in the historic space flight of Col. John Glenn? Getting off the pad and into orbit, and re-entering the atmosphere and being picked up by a ship, were much trickier and dangerous than roaring through space at 17,000 miles an hour.

The Blueprint's Getting Yellow

Once there was a church that decided to build a new sanctuary. They employed an architect, who drew up plans, and had blueprints made. Then the church officers began to be afraid they didn't have quite enough money, so they put off starting . . . and kept on putting it off for years. Nobody had a bad conscience about it, because they had started, hadn't they? But finally it dawned on a new preacher there that the blueprints were actually lost. And when after quite a search he found them, they had begun to look yellow. Not only that, but the town had changed so much that the old blueprints were out of date. Something like that happened in Jerusalem long ago when the second Temple was started. It was 21 years between the time the foundations were finished, and the final work on the building. Indeed if it had not been for those persistent prophets, Hagai and Zechariah, who knew when the Temple would have been finished?

A Thing Unfinished

A thing unfinished is that way either because it couldn't possibly be finished no matter what, or because although it could have been finished not a soul was willing to work hard enough to get the job done. If a thing stays unfinished because it couldn't be helped, maybe it is a sign of lack of foresight on somebody's part. There is such a thing as starting too soon. Jesus told a parable about a man who started a house when he did not have and could not get money to finish it. One such house stood in a village for years, known for a generation as "So-and-so's Folly." Or maybe the thing is unfinished because no one has the ambition or the gumption to do what it takes to do it right. A contractor once said that he banished the word "practically" from his organization. A thing "practically" done is done all but the most difficult part! A thing unfinished may as well not have been begun.

47th ANNUAL

A Do-Nothing Congress? No indeed!—I am sometimes amused by the thoughtless expression, "Do-Nothing Congress", when applied to a particular Congress which refuses to pass a lot of bad bills. New Frontier commentators and writers are prone to appraise the record of Congress as "bad" unless it passes a large number of bills recommended by the President, regardless of what those bills are. The true measure of a Congress could be the measure of the proposed bills it does not pass.

Withholding Tax Killed: Vox Populi—The American people won a victory Wednesday when the U. S. Senate, by a whopping 68-to-20 vote, defeated the proposal that taxes on interest and dividends be withheld at the source. In a previous issue of "Senate Cloakroom" we analyzed this provision. For millions of small depositors, investors, cooperative patrons, and receivers of the interest on small Federal savings bonds, any withholding would mean over-withholding, and the job making refunds would create an administrative monstrosity. Incidentally, the American tax system has derived its strength from the principle of voluntary self-assessment, and the withholding provision would tend to destroy this. The public showed that it was overwhelmingly against the withholding feature by the mail which poured into Washington. Letters protesting against the withholding feature came to me by the thousands, and it was the same with the other Senators. Vox Populi ("The Voice of the People") was heard.

A Proud American Town—The town of Ruidoso, New Mexico, stood up and said no to a Federal handout. The citizens were amazed when news came through from their Senators and Congress of a $625,000 handout for the local airport. The bond-dogging outpouring of funds was just too much for the honest citizens. They turned down the big chunk of taxpayers' money—said they'd improve their own air strip.

Reckless spending of Federal funds on a grand scale across the nation is one reason our budget is far out of balance, and is responsible for our high income tax.

American Soldiers Tortured by Laotians—I have asked for a special investigation by a Senate committee into the circumstances surrounding the imprisonment of two U. S. Army men by pro-Communist troops in Laos. I would like to know why they were there in the first place, how they were captured and imprisoned, why we apparently took no steps to gain their release, why no issue was made at the Geneva conference about the inhuman treatment of these American boys, and why the United States Government apparently has done nothing about the case, except to bring the men home and send them to hospitals. These two men, Major Lawrence R. Bailey of Laurel, Maryland, and Sergeant Orville R. Ballenger of Columbus, Ohio, were among the five Americans released by the Laotians last week after more than a year of almost unbelievable torture. The reports say that Major Bailey was confined in a pitch-black box during the entire time, being allowed out of the box only 3 or 4 minutes each night, and Sergeant Ballenger was paraded before the villages like an animal, with a leash around his neck. I'd like to know if other men of our Armed Services are being similarly tortured by people receiving our foreign aid dollars.

What's All This About Old Age? or "A Young Man Gives a Senator His Side of the Case." or some other such caption might be given this photograph of Senator Beall and Michael Laurie, Jr., a constituent. Master Michael accompanied his mother, Mrs. Michael Laurie, Sr., of Whitegate Road, Clarksville, Md., on the occasion of the Patuxent Republican Women's special trip to Washington. The group called on Senator Beall at the Capitol and attended a session of the Senate. Also included in the day-long itinerary was a sightseeing trip of the nation's capital.

"That Mess in Washington"—The Billie Sol Estes case, involving Secretary Freeman appointees who resigned suddenly, refuses to be swept under the rug!

Cuba, Scene of Soviet Build-Up—Between July 27 and August 27, 22 Soviet ships landed at Cuban ports and unloaded military equipment and Soviet personnel. Maybe the personnel were more "agrarian reformers" like those when the Reds were getting a foothold in China. The unloading at Cuban ports was carried on under cover of darkness.

Military Use of Space: "Wake Up, America!"—I see military significance in the Soviet space flights. The Soviet accomplishments in space, viewed in the light of Soviet aggression and Khrushchev's boasts of fantastic Soviet space weapons, are strong indications that their space program is being directed toward attaining military dominance in the space around the earth. In view of the Soviet's past performance, we cannot afford to take the risk of trusting them about anything. In every agreement signed with the Soviets in the past 17 years, they have perverted the agreement to their own diabolical ends. A prime example is the moratorium on nuclear testing, during which time the United States made no progress in nuclear technology, while the Russians used the three years of moratorium to prepare for a monstrous series of tests, which they began just one day after suddenly announcing at the Geneva "negotiation" table that they were ending the moratorium.

We are forced into the position where we must recognize the military potentialities in space. We must initiate a space defense program. We must develop a means of intercepting, inspecting and destroying if necessary, hostile satellites which could bear super-rocket bombs for our destruction. Then too, we must protect our very heavy investment in peaceful, scientific, and commercial operations in space. Our peaceful aims in space are fine, of course, but I have become convinced that if we do not develop the military defense potential of space we will not have an opportunity to do any of the peaceful things.

I do not criticize the peaceful endeavors of the Space Administration, nor do I downgrade its programs in any way. They are good programs, and the Space Administration is doing a good job. It

CAPITOL COMMENT

CUMMERS, 33, DISTRICT, MARYLAND

Public Works Bill Passes the House

A dramatic event of the past week in Washington was the passage by the House of Representatives of the Public Works Coordination and Acceleration Act.

As long as thousands of people in Western Maryland are unemployed and underemployed, no valid opportunity to create jobs should be denied them. For this reason, it seemed essential to me to join with the other Appalachian-area Congressmen of both parties in supporting the Public Works Coordination and Acceleration Act. This measure passed the House of Representatives on August 29 by a rollcall vote of 221 to 192.

The bill intended to stimulate capital investment in utilities that will be economically useful in the future of America. Basically, the legislation provides $900 million for projects approved according to the standards and guidelines set out in the bill. To be eligible for this assistance, a project must be located in an area designated for economic aid under the area redevelopment act or in a community which has suffered six percent or more unemployment for nine out of the past twelve months.

I regret very much that in our Sixth Congressional District we have three such areas. They are in the Hagerstown labor-market area in Washington County, the Cumberland labor-market in Allegany County, and Garrett County. I hope that some of the funds provided under this public works bill will be expended in our district, where it is so desperately needed, where unemployment has been a persistent problem for a number of years and has been acute during the past several winters.

What sort of projects will be possible under this bill? There are projects now on the planning boards in various Maryland communities that could be assisted.

Water systems are much needed in Western Maryland if new industry is to be attracted into these communities. There is existing industry which would like to expand but cannot do so until there is more water. The construction of sub water systems could be tied in with the planned construction of State appurtenant dams on the upper reaches of the Potomac River, only six miles south and its tributaries and this source of water would be extremely helpful in making industry come into the area and creating more permanent jobs for Maryland citizens.

In addition, the funds would be available for the expansion of recreational facilities in Maryland's public lands, both Federal and State owned. I believe this could provide a significant long-range investment in the tourist industry of Western Maryland.

The funds, of course, are available on a matching-fund basis. This provision was amended during debate on the bill by a motion made by Congressman Scanton of Pennsylvania which provided that instead of 50 percent, in the case of those local governments which do not have the financial capacity to assume the financing projects, the Federal government could assist to the extent of 75 percent. This will be helpful to some of our local governments which have had difficulties with local financing.

The bill was much improved by the Public Works Committee. It is a very different bill from that originally proposed. The original proposal to delegate standby powers to the President was deleted. Financing is to be provided by orthodox appropriation measures which will give the Congress the power to appraise the administration of the program. The creation of a public works "czar" was vetoed by an amendment adopted by the House. I am very hopeful that the bill will bring to the many Maryland citizens who have been denied permanent work for months and years the opportunity for permanent employment.

145,190 Visit State Parks Over Holiday

A record turnout of 145,190 visitors were reported for Maryland's state parks and recreation areas last weekend despite a rainy Saturday.

The four-day holiday total compared with a previous summer high of 124,733 and 119,783 for the Labor Day weekend last year.

The Department of Forests and Parks estimated 31,529 used picnicking facilities, 17,129 were campers and 29,211 were swimmers. Others were in the park for sightseeing, fishing, hiking and horseback riding.

Attendance by areas in this county included: Swallow Falls 4,735; Herrington Manor, 5,073; New Germany 5,002; Big Run 2,611; Potomac State forest 125; Deep Creek Lake 5,880.

New Bermuda Grass Released By College

"TUFFY" Bermuda, (Cynodon dactylon), is the new medium-leaved Bermuda grass developed at the National Plant Materials Center, Soil Conservation Service, Beltsville, by Robert B. Thornton, Plant Material Specialist in cooperation with Joe Newcomer, Extension Agronomist, Department of Agronomy, University of Maryland.

The new variety was developed from a single seedling showing a good degree of winter hardiness. It survived with little injury at -17 degrees F.

The new variety is being released cooperatively by the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station, the National Plant Materials Center, Soil Conservation Service, and the Corps Research Division, Agricultural Research Service.

It had its source out of one of three Plant Introduction accessions. These introductions came from Pretoria, South Africa, by courtesy of General Jan Smuts in 1942.

The variety was developed by vegetative increase of an individual seedling which traces to one of the three South African introductions. The accessions were spaced in 1942, and the sole survivor in the spring of 1943 was increased for further testing. Minimum temperature was -17 degrees F. in the winter of 1942-43. In addition to conservation plantings, it has been under observation in turf plots at the Plant Industry Station and in the stadium at the University of Maryland.

Tuffy Bermuda is medium-leaved, medium dark-green, with a good rate of spread. Its low compact habit forms a dense sod which is drought tolerant and salt tolerant. It has a good degree of winter hardiness and some tolerance to leaf diseases, and a very good fall color. It produces some seed heads, but at Beltsville no viable seed has been found. The variety is tolerant to a wide variety of soils, including deep sands, but is not tolerant of shade.

Tuffy Bermuda will find its best use on waterways, beach plantings, roadbanks and other critical areas, as well as play or athletic fields and utility lawns, where trampling takes place.

Breeder's stock is being maintained at the National Plant Materials Center, Soil Conservation Service, Beltsville. Certified stock is available in limited quantities.

It's The Little Things . . .

Recently, a visitor from Pittsburgh commented on what he called the large amount of "trivia" published in The Republican. He referred, of course, to the news letters from all over the county which relate the little day by day activities of the residents.

We admit that most of them are of no lasting significance, but we believe they're important anyway. For one thing, they tend to bind the people of the county together, and in one as large and varied as Garrett this is pretty important. For another, they provide a link between former residents living elsewhere and their friends and relatives here—and that's important, too.

But they also do something else. The mere recording of these many "trivial" activities reaffirms to the individual, whether he is conscious of it or not, his importance to society. If someone takes the time to write about him, and someone else takes the time to read it, then he has escaped the impersonal anonymity toward which our society continually keeps pushing us.

The average person rates a major news story only a few times in his lifetime, because the rest of the time he is engaged in routine and "trivial" activities. But we think these are important, too, and should be mentioned if only to say that one neighbor "took dinner" with another.

Trivial? Maybe. But life is made up of a million trivialities.

Bloomington School Plans Open House

The Bloomington school will hold "Open House" this Sunday, September 16, to give the public an opportunity to inspect the new addition in use for the first time this year.

The addition includes three new classrooms, library, health room, all-purpose room with kitchen and stage, and storage room. It will house the first eight grades. This year, seven grades are being taught at Bloomington, with the eighth to be added next year.

Costing approximately $80,000, the successful low bidder was Lawrence Hardesty of Oakland. The school now has six classrooms, and is considered one of the most modern facilities in the county.

Robert Wilson is principal, and until this year taught at Northern High school. Other teachers are Mrs. Charlotte Hamard, former principal who asked to be relieved of this duty; Miss Alice Howard, Mrs. Inez Bush and Miss Carole Raines, the latter a June graduate of Frostburg State Teachers college.

An invitation has been extended to the public to examine the school from 3 until 6 p. m.

Eleven Homeless As Result Of Fire

A family of 11 persons escaped injury, but lost all of their possessions, when fire Sunday afternoon destroyed their one-story frame dwelling at Rosedale.

The five-room building was occupied by Clarence Croose, his wife and nine children, who were not at home when the fire started.

The blaze was discovered about 4:30 p. m., and the Oakland Fire department responded but found the flames already shooting from the windows and the building a total loss. Some 17 members answered the alarm.

Members of the family were visiting relatives at the time the fire started, it was reported.

Property Owners Hear Insurance Commissioner

Douglas Sears, of Baltimore, Insurance Commissioner for the State of Maryland, was speaker at a meeting of the Property Owners Association of Deep Creek Lake last Saturday. He told the group of his duties and said insurance rates can be reduced if citizens avoid situations which result in the filing of claims.

New officers of the association were introduced by H. L. Kennedy, president. They included Ward Ashby, incoming president, J. Reed Wehrle, first vice president, Mrs. Gomer Gibson, second vice president and T. Joseph Stanton, secretary-treasurer.

Kitzmiller Man Found Dead Of Shotgun Wound

Oliver M. Dixon, 45, Found In His Home Saturday Afternoon

A 45 year old Kitzmiller area coal miner was found dead at his home Saturday afternoon from a gunshot wound, apparently self-inflicted.

The victim was Oliver M. "Pete" Dixon, according to authorities, who said the shot was from a 12 gauge shotgun.

His wife had been working at a Deep Creek Lake establishment and the children were playing at the home of a nearby relative.

Sheriff James Frantz, who investigated the case, said the man had been in ill health. He was alone at the time of the shooting and was found by his children in a chair in the living room.

Sheriff Frantz said he called Dr. James Feaster, deputy county medical examiner, who pronounced the man dead.

Born near Kitzmiller, Dixon had been employed as a miner. He was a son of Mrs. Martha Dixon, Vindex, and William Dixon.

Also surviving are his widow, Bernice R. (Stewart) Dixon; a son, Robert Lee Dixon, at home; four daughters, Alta L. and Sharon Rae Dixon, at home; Sylvia Jean Hall, Swanton, and Mrs. Jeanne Sharpless, Kitzmiller.

Also surviving are four half brothers, Onie Ott, Creekside, Pa.; Julius Kinser, Vindex; Orville Tasker, Kitzmiller, and Raymond Dixon, Baltimore; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Lancaster, Danville, and Mrs. Beulah Rohrbach, Pittsburgh; and four grandsons.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Mt. Bethel Methodist church, Kitzmiller, by Rev. Clifford Schell. Interment was in Nethken Hill cemetery.

Hafer Acquitted Of Assault Charge

After deliberating more than four hours, a U. S. District court jury in Baltimore yesterday acquitted John J. Hafer of charges of assault on an Internal Revenue agent.

The jury of eight men and four women returned to the court room once to ask questions.

Hafer, who is owner of the Happy Hills Farm restaurant east of Grantsville, and who owns two stores in Allegheny county, was accused of assaulting Milton Kyhos, an Internal Revenue agent investigating Hafer's affairs. The incident allegedly took place in Cumberland June 1.

Kyhos had testified that Hafer entered his office and "threw a haymaker at me."

When he appeared on the witness stand Tuesday, Hafer denied swinging at the man, although he said he used vigorous language.

Hafer testified he was irritated at the way the tax agent was conducting the investigation, but said he was innocent of any assault.

He said Kyhos ran down a hallway after trying to hide under the corner of a table. "I stopped to laugh at him," Hafer said. "I asked him to play the game square, according to law."

Seven county residents were called to Baltimore for jury service in connection with the trial.

They were: George Coddington, Playford Ryan, Harold Harned and Jay Bell, Oakland; Mrs. Kermit Glatfelly, Bittinger; Paul Fisher, Friendsville and Glenn Randol, Mt. Lake Park.

Mrs. Glatfelly, Fisher, Bell and Randol were excused from the panel.

Laws On Burning To Be In Effect

Regulations on open air burning of brush go into effect September 15, according to Elmer Upole, of the Forestry department. He said dry weather of recent months has made the woods extremely dangerous so far as fire is concerned.

From September 15 to December 15, inclusive, the law prohibiting open burning except between 4 p. m. and midnight, or when the ground is covered with snow, and then only in compliance with other requirements.

Personnel manning the fire towers are keeping close watch on the area, he said, to prevent any large-scale forest fires.

Commemorates 25th Year In Zion Church

REV. C. F. DAUPHIN

A service commemorating the forty-fifth anniversary of ordination to the ministry and the twenty-fifth anniversary as pastor of Zion Evangelical Lutheran church, Missouri Synod, at Accident, was held last Sunday evening, September 9, for the Rev. Carl Frederick Dauphin. The affair was a surprise, having been arranged by members of the congregation.

There was special music by the Zion Lutheran choir and the sermon, "Each With His Work," was delivered by the Rev. John C. Polk, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church in Cumberland. Liturgist was the Rev. Arthur Bicker, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, Cove.

Pastor Dauphin, native of Springfield, Ill., was born February 20, 1865, confirmed in Cleveland March 31, 1898, and entered Concordia college, Fort Wayne, Ind., from which he was graduated in June, 1914. He was graduated from Concordia Theological seminary, St. Louis, Mo., in 1917 and ordained at St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada, where he served in addition to Emmanuel Lutheran church in Jordan, Ontario.

State Candidates On GOP Ticket Visit in County

Meet For Breakfast Tuesday Morning With Local Party Leaders

Republican candidates for state offices met with local aspirants, members of the Republican State Central committee and others at a breakfast session Tuesday morning at the William-James hotel in Oakland.

Among those state candidates attending were Frank Small, Jr., for Governor and Edward I. Miller, for United States Senator. Local candidates included Spencer Graham, State Senator; Allen S. Paugh, Harvey D. Swartzendruber and Clifford Friend, for County Commissioner; Joseph H. Welch, Treasurer; Richard L. Davis, Clerk of the Circuit Court; Truman C. Bittinger and Ellisworth G. Moon, for Judges of the Orphans' Court and Mrs. Vernie R. Smouse, Register of Wills.

Others present were William D. Casteel, Stephen R. Pagenhardt, Chester H. Browning, Lewis R. Jones, W. W. Dawson, Harry Collier, John Beachy, Arthur Savage and Homer Bennett, the latter four members of the Republican State Central committee.

Following breakfast, Mr. Collier introduced Mr. Jones, who presided as chairman and introduced the others. Mr. Small and Mr. Miller responded with brief talks in which the former stressed the unemployment situation. He said that while Governor Taxes claimed to have the labor vote, Small believed himself to be the better friend of labor.

He cited a number of shortcomings of the present administration and mentioned the "miserable" performance of Mr. Taxes regarding schools, employment, taxes and other issues. He stressed the point that "we must do as much as we can in the American way to reduce unemployment, bring about better tax laws and have more and better method of income procedures."

In his comments, Mr. Miller expressed the belief that "We must protect our liberties and our form of government by the people." He said one should never be permitted to control both taxing power and that of expenditure.

"These must be left with our citizens if we are to maintain the constitutional form of government which has been entrusted to us,"

Following adjournment of the meeting, the candidates spent the day in campaigning throughout the county.

Woman Guilty On Two Driving Charges

An Oakland woman, Mrs. Mary Jo Collins, who had been involved in two automobile accidents within a month was found guilty on two charges of reckless driving when given a hearing Saturday before Trial Magistrate Robert Maroney in Oakland.

The first charge resulted from an accident on the Deer Park road August 2 when the automobile was driving on lead-on into a pickup truck driven by Ralph Smouse. In this accident Mrs. Collins suffered a broken arm and other injuries and had been hospitalized.

On August 30, Mrs. Collins was injured again when her automobile ran off the highway on Liberty street, hitting some concrete steps and causing extensive damage to the vehicle.

Saturday, Mrs. Collins pleaded not guilty to the first charge, but was found guilty and fined $25.00 and costs. To the reckless driving charge arising from the second mishap, she pleaded not guilty, but the magistrate found her guilty and imposed a fine of $25.00 and costs and a jail sentence of 25 days. In this case, however, the fine, costs and sentence were suspended.

Friendsville Child Dies After Drinking Furniture Polish

Two ounces of furniture polish proved fatal Tuesday to a 15-month-old Friendsville boy, who died in West Virginia University Medical Center in Morgantown.

The child, Jody Uphold, son of Clayton and Carolyn (Robinson) Uphold, drank the solution at the home of a neighbor four days ago.

He was taken to Garrett County Memorial hospital and later transferred to the West Virginia institution.

It is reported the child's older brother left for school without lunch money and the mother, along with her other children, took the money to him. On their way home they stopped to visit a neighbor. The bottle of polish was on the neighbor's kitchen table.

A native of this county, he was born May 29, 1961.

Besides his parents he is survived by two brothers, Rodney and Lynn Uphold, both at home; a sister, Lila Uphold, at home; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Uphold, Friendsville, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson, Confluence, Pa.

Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Sand Spring church by Rev. Vernon Whitt. Interment will be in the church cemetery.

Identity Clarified

The John Henry Beckman who entered a plea of guilty last week to charges of larceny is not the John Henry Beckman employed by the Silver Knob Sand Company.

By a strange circumstance, the John Henry Beckman who was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction took the gasoline from the Silver Knob plant.

To further separate the two, the one who did not take the gasoline is known as "Slim."

15 Indictments Are Returned By Sept. Grand Jury

Names Of All But One Are Withheld Pending Serving Of Warrants

Although fifteen indictments were returned yesterday by the September Grand Jury, the name of only one traverser has been released. The law prohibits the publication of names of those indicted until they have been taken into custody. In the case of this one individual this was no problem, since he is already serving time on another charge.

An indictment for perjury was returned against Robert Cupeland, of Kitzmiller. In July he had appeared before Magistrate Robert Maroney on a charge of assault and received a sentence of six months in the House of Correction. In an appeal before Judge Stuart F. Hamill, he changed the testimony he had given in the Magistrate's court, and Judge Hamill instructed the State's Attorney to present the matter to the Grand Jury for a possible pre-jury indictment.

State's Attorney W. Dwight Stover said some of the cases presented to the jury involved forgery, false pretense, bastardy and others.

The jury began its deliberations Monday morning and continued through Tuesday. Judge Hamill was serving on the bench in Cumberland when the jury completed its work, and he called it back yesterday to receive its report, even though Wednesday was a legal holiday and the Court House offices closed.

The jury made a number of recommendations for improvement to county buildings and property, and the complete report follows.

The Grand Jury for Garrett County, in session for the September Term, 1962, respectfully submits the following report:—

We were in session for two days, beginning Monday September 10th, 1962, and concluded our deliberations on Wednesday, September 12th, 1962.

We have examined 25 witnesses and have returned True Bills of Indictment in 15 cases and no True Bills of Indictment in 5 cases.

After receiving the charge delivered to the September Term, 1962, Grand Jury by his Honor Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, and after our retirement to the Grand Jury Room we organized our body with the appointment of Charles O. Keller and E. Herbert Shaffer as Clerks and John A. Menges as door keeper.

We were cognizant of the Court's instructions with reference to possible violations of any of the (Continued on Page Four)

Contributors Needed For Bloodmobile

Cards have been sent to approximately 150 persons in the Oakland area, reminding them of the next visit of the Bloodmobile, on Wednesday, September 19, according to Mrs. Grover C. Stemple, blood recruitment chairman.

She said 100 pints of blood are being sought this trip, which will be from noon until six o'clock at the Fire Hall. An attempt will be made to meet the quota, and to make up a deficit of 29 pints carried over from the May visit. In addition, a recent visit to Kitzmiller resulted in a quota shortage of 18 pints.

Mrs. Stemple stressed that walk-ins are particularly invited, even though no formal invitation to contribute had been received.

The Bloodmobile is a mobile unit which collects blood from donors and transports it to the hospital for use in transfusions.

criminal laws, outlining our authority and making clear our duty. In our deliberations we diligently endeavored to examine the facts in each particular case and act upon the facts impartially and fairly as required. In our decisions we have been motivated only by the law and the facts and have acted accordingly.

Jail & Sheriff's Residence
A Committee for our body inspected the Jail and Sheriff's residence and we find these buildings to be neat and clean. However, we make the following recommendations in connection with the Jail and Sheriff's residence and request that the proper authorities act upon them without delay.

1. The ceiling in the basement under the Jail is in need of repair.
2. The present coal furnace used to heat these buildings be equipped with a stoker. Also, that new pipe be installed on the furnace as the old pipe is inadequate.
3. The shower on the first floor of the Jail needs to be tiled.
4. The new toilet in the Jail should be installed by the Sheriff's Office.

5. That the cook's salary be increased from $50.00 to $100.00 per month.

This body has carefully considered the large amount of work required from the Sheriff and his Deputy. Also the fact that the Sheriff's Office receives many calls and that both of the Officers are away from the Jail in response to these calls and during investigations. We also understand that the Sheriff's office transports all the prisoners to the various correctional institutions in the State of Maryland and transports the patients to the various hospitals in the State. In the performance of these duties we find that the Jail is left in the care of the Sheriff's wife. We recommend that the Senator and the Members of the House of Delegates introduce a bill at the next session of the General Assembly of the State of Maryland authorizing and permitting the Sheriff to have a second deputy. We further recommend that the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, during the month of January, 1963, forward a copy of our recommendations to the members we have mentioned. These recommendations are being made as we are concerned with the proper law enforcement in this County and we feel that the additional deputy will be beneficial and assist the Sheriff in carrying out his duties.

County Roads Garage
A Committee inspected the County Roads Garage and we find the real estate surrounding the same. We find the Garage to be in good condition, neat and orderly.

We renew the recommendation of the Board of Supervisors in regard to the construction of a building for supplies and equipment. Also the recommendation of the Board of Supervisors for the construction of proper facilities for the storage of the garage records.

Conclusion
In conclusion we wish to express our thanks to His Honor Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill, the State's Attorney and all other officials and County Agencies for their cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
J. EDW. HELBIG, Foreman
E. Herbert Shaffer, Clerk

Small Favors Pay Raises For Employees

Frank Small, Jr., Republican candidate for Governor of Maryland, called his opponent's promise to give state employees a salary and fringe benefits increase "an attempt to buy votes on November 6."

"Why hasn't Mr. Tawes had a program during the past three and a half years to study the possibility of giving all state employees a raise?" Small asked. "The state school teachers recall very vividly Mr. Tawes' campaign promise to raise their salaries in 1958. He has not done so. State employees who remember how he welched on this promise to the teachers are not likely to be swayed by his promise now to raise their salaries. With all the surplus money in the state's budget he has been boasting about why hasn't he recommended a salary increase earlier?"

"The timing of this promise two months before election day gives it a hollow ring," the GOP nominee said.

"I fully agree that the salaries of state employees should be increased. As a matter of fact, I made a speech before a chapter of the National Association of Letter Carriers in Baltimore on July 14 in which I said, 'From the county courthouse to the State Capital we need a revamping of our system of compensation for state employees.'" Small said.

The former Congressman continued, "I urge the state employees to measure Mr. Tawes' performance against his promise and to make up their own minds as to whether they will be deceived by his election promise to raise their salaries."

"We must give state employees incentives to adopt government service as a career," the former Commissioner of Motor Vehicles continued. "The state must recognize that the rising cost of living makes it imperative that the wages of state employees keep pace with rising expenses. The state should take the lead in providing adequate salaries and other benefits to employees, rather than always trying to catch up with private industry," Small said.

"Dedication to public service should be rewarded in a tangible way. A feeling of satisfaction over a job well done in service to fellow citizens is fine, but you can't spend it at the grocery store," the former state legislator said.

They're Unbelievably Sheer

These stockings have been extensively tested and they will not run when worn. While Fashion-Lok have greater snag resistance than ordinary stockings that do run, they can still snag and threads may still be pulled. But... and here's the beauty of it all... even though you snag a thread, the snag will never turn into an unsightly run in the body of the stocking.

Remember, however, though Fashion-Lok have their own unique construction, they are still sheer, all nylon stockings and you should give them the same gentle care you give to any fashion stockings. While it is possible that broken threads may cause a hole to appear, the hole will never turn into a run.

Fashion-Lok when on the leg look like other fine sheers and will give you longer wear and perfect fashion.

Mathias Kicks Off Re-Election Drive; Eisenhower Attends Rally

A cheering throng of more than 1,000 Republican political leaders and party workers gathered at the Frederick Farm home of Congressman Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., last Friday to greet former President Dwight D. Eisenhower who just "dropped in" to visit his neighboring farmer.

The former chief of state drove to the Mathias farm from his Gettysburg home, 34 miles away, to participate in the rally which kicked off Mathias' campaign for re-election as Congressman from this district of Maryland.

During the visit, Mrs. Mathias served their guest with Maryland beaten biscuits and Maryland ham. When the former President remarked on a large artificial black-eyed Susan which Charlie, Congressman Mathias' small son was wearing, his mother removed the Maryland state floral emblem from her son's blouse and pinned it on the General's lapel.

The Mathias rally was held on the grounds before his home under a huge green and white striped tent erected as protection against the afternoon sun and precaution against possible rains.

As a memento of the occasion, Congressman Mathias presented Eisenhower with an antique glass Amelung decanter which he said is the same which was presented to the first President of the United States nearly two centuries ago. The former President was not scheduled to make an address, but did make an impromptu speech from the front porch of the Mathias home.

Attending the rally from Garrett county were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Glatfelter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paugh, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frazee and John Beachy.

Do you remember the first time you listened to a sea shell? And when you watched a sunflower turn toward the sun? And when you tried to guess where the pot of gold was at the end of the rainbow? Life is full of sweet mysteries for the young. Do you remember?

In fact, life reveals even more sweet mysteries as we grow older. When we think of these things, the mysteries of life, of God's care of us, of the wonders of the universe—you know, that's a way of praying! Yes, just thinking about God.

Fortunately, too, we have the Church—your church—a place to contemplate such things, to pray, to ask questions, and give thanks to Almighty God. Go to the church of your choice this Sunday. There you will find some of the answers ... to some of these wondrous mysteries.

Leadership

Lesson for September 16, 1962

A MAN who succeeds in doing what no man has ever done before is a great man, provided what he does is worth doing. A man who succeeds where others have failed, is even greater—again supposing that what he does is a good thing to do. Nehemiah was such a man. He would be a success anywhere, and not only at the time and place where he lived. The first we hear of him, he is a member of the royal court in what is now Iran, the ancient Persia. He was evidently a man the king trusted, one to whom the king gave much power. Yet he was one of the down-trodden Jews, as they were at that time. Nehemiah himself is a fine example of what happened to the Jews who were taken into captivity. They were not put into dungeons, only some of the more prominent ones suffered that fate. Most were left to sink or swim, and being Jews they generally swam. Nehemiah showed how far they could rise if they had the chance.

The Time and the Man
A glance at the calendar helps us to understand the genius of this man. It was now about 146 years after Jerusalem had been destroyed, or 90 years after the Temple had been started. But in all that time no one had ever succeeded in getting a stable government in Jerusalem or to build practical protection against their numerous enemies. In those days every going city had to have a wall around it; but in 140 years the city wall had been lying in ruins exactly as Nebuchadnezzar's primitive bulldozers had left it. This was all news to Nehemiah when he first heard of it; it was a shock, too. That this should be so, goes to show that prosperous Jews like Nehemiah had no notion of the poverty-stricken, danger-filled lives the Jerusalem Jews had been living. When Nehemiah, with government backing, went to see what he could do in Jerusalem, by building the wall as his Number One project he became the man of the hour. Five generations had passed; Nehemiah had been needed long before now, but at last he arrived and took charge.

Knowledge and Leadership
What are the qualities that make a man a hero? What are the characteristics of a "man of the hour"? Nehemiah is a very good example. He was a successful leader partly because of what today we would call "know how," a penetrating understanding of a situation, an accurate aim at the heart of his problem, and above all an art in getting people to do what they ought to do. Sometimes a leader learns on the job, so to speak, as Abraham Lincoln did. Sometimes he comes to his great task already knowing what to do and how to do it. But if he neither knows nor can learn, he is no leader. Nehemiah's genius lay chiefly in this: he was able to make handicaps work with him, not against him. The people had always been a quarrelsome lot, as the Old Testament shows us. There were many cross-currents of jealousy in the dusty rubble-filled insignificant village that wanted to be a city again. These had defeated other men, no doubt. But Nehemiah put these jealousies to work. He had the goldsmiths working at one section of that wall, and the priests somewhere else. He pitted them against one another, and so induced them to do their best work.

Leadership and Faith
Readers may be interested in studying the story of Nehemiah to see what were the various ways in which he showed his power of leadership. But one of his qualities was vital, and must not be overlooked: Faith. The book called by his name, though filled with action, begins and ends with prayer. This man had faith in himself, self-respect was a notable quality in his make-up. He had faith in people if rightly led. But first and last his faith was in God. He could undertake the impossible because he believed God would do it, and what God wills, can be done. Nehemiah makes it quite clear that while he worked and planned, his energy would have failed, his undertakings miscarried, if he had not been sustained by the God in whom he constantly trusted.

Promotion Council Notes

To Attend Conference
The Ninth Annual Mid-Atlantic Conference, sponsored by the Washington Chapter, Public Relations Society of America, will be held September 20 at the Statler Hilton hotel, Washington, D. C.

Glen T. Lashley, conference publicity chairman, has issued an invitation to Mrs. Patricia Kittle, Promotion Council secretary, to attend.

Ski Show Figures
The recent Ski Show at Deep Creek Lake drew a larger attendance than previously. Statistics show that this year 10,000 persons attended, while in 1961 the figure was 7,600, an increase of some 2,400.

More Park Facilities
Two 90-foot docks composed of Styrofoam with redwood topping were recently installed at the Deep Creek State Park. According to Supt. Ward L. Ashby, the docks were purchased primarily to protect the swimming area as well as offer boat dockage space for park visitors.

Grand Jury

of the Court, to determine whether or not a person accused of a crime should be required to stand trial. It was not intended that they should act hastily or impulsively upon an accusation against a citizen and require him to defend himself in Court without due process of law and without due consideration of the evidence against him; but to the contrary, it was designed to protect the public and uphold the dignity of the law.

In distinction from the duties of the petit jury, the Grand Jury is an investigating, quasi-judicial tribunal. By that I mean that you investigate criminal charges against individuals and crimes committed in this County, and then you make a decision as to whether or not there is sufficient evidence against the accused to require them to stand trial on the charges against them. You do not determine their guilt or innocence, as you will only hear the State's side of the case; that is, the accusing side. Then, if you decide that there is sufficient evidence to present the accused for indictment, it will be the function of the petit jury or the Court to hear both sides of the case, the State and the Defense, and to determine the guilt or innocence of the accused.

In your consideration of the cases that are brought before you, only legal evidence should be considered. If you desire advice as to what is or is not legal evidence, you should consult the State's Attorney, who will be your legal adviser in these proceedings. He will not advise you whether or not to find an indictment, as that is purely your function alone, but he may advise you whether or not certain evidence will be admissible in the trial of the case if you do indict, and your decision may rest on such advice.

You should consider all of the evidence which may enlighten you on the matter under your investigation, whether it may tend to establish the guilt or innocence of the accused. As I stated previously, you are only going to hear the State's evidence in the case, but it is conceivable that certain portions of that evidence may tend to show the innocence of the accused, and if that is the case, such evidence should be taken into consideration.

It is necessary that at least twelve of your members vote affirmatively for an indictment, otherwise, there can be no indictment.

You are charged that your proceedings are to be absolutely secret, and you should not disclose in any way the nature of your deliberations or your vote with respect to any matter before you unless you are summoned and directed by the Court to make such disclosure. In other words, the only information that should be revealed with respect to your proceedings, other than your report to the Court, is the fact that an indictment has been found in a particular case, and even that information should come only from the Court at the proper time.

While testimony is being produced before you, the only persons permitted in the Grand Jury Room are the State's Attorney and the testifying witness. After you have heard and concluded the testimony in connection with a particular charge and you are prepared to deliberate the matter, no one other than yourselves is permitted into the Grand Jury Room.

Perhaps most of the cases brought to your attention will be ones that have already been investigated by the law enforcement officers of the State, County and Municipal Corporations. In that regard, I should like to say that I have never seen nor heard anything that would be indicative of any organized crime in Garrett County. For this, we are very fortunate, and I take this opportunity to commend most highly our State Police, our Sheriff's office and our Municipal Law Enforcement Officers.

If any individual juror has knowledge of any violations of the criminal laws of this State committed in this County, you may on your own initiative originate charges against any suspected offenders, and, in fact, it is your duty to call same to the attention of the Grand Jury and instigate such investigation as may be necessary under the circumstances.

During a recent criminal trial before this Court, the testimony of one of the witnesses indicated that he perjured himself on the witness stand, and I have requested the State's Attorney to bring this matter to your attention for such action as you may deem proper after hearing the testimony.

It is the duty of the County Commissioners to maintain the public buildings in a state of good repair. You are legally required to inspect the County Jail, and it is customary for the Grand Jury to also inspect the Court House.

Northern Bows To Valley High School By Score of 18-0

Northern High School's Huskies threw their first football game of the season to Valley High of Martinsburg, W. Va., last Friday night by a score of 18-0. The game was played under lights on the Southern field at Oakland.

Numerous fumbles plagued the Huskies from the opening kickoff, and it was the fourth time before the Northern players could invade Valley territory. Although outdistanced in yardage, 197 to 101, the Huskies topped their opponent in first downs, 9-7.

Dale McVicker, Martinsburg's 150 pound fullback, was the workhorse for the winners. He scored the first touchdown on an eight-yard scamper and piled up most of the yardage of his team.

The second score was on a one-yard pass from Quarterback Butch Ball to End Dave Boggs in the second period. Boggs then returned the second half kickoff 70 yards behind good blocking to close out the scoring.

Order of Publication

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce A MENSA ET THORO by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The bill recites that the marriage of the parties was performed on the 3rd day of September, 1955, at Duncan, Oklahoma, by a duly ordained minister of the Gospel, that the plaintiff has been a resident of Garrett County, Maryland, for more than one year prior to the institution of these proceedings; that the defendant's whereabouts are unknown; that two children were born of said marriage, to-wit: Deborah Jane Ladd, and Caryl Diane Ladd; that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with great cruelty and abused her with threats to the extent that finally, in fear of her health and safety, she was compelled to leave their matrimonial domicile and seek refuge in the home of her parents; that the said constructive desertion occurred on or about July 5th, 1962, and the said separation is deliberate and final and beyond reasonable expectation of reconciliation. It is thereupon this 7th day of September, 1962, by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, in Equity, ORDERED that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 5th day of October, 1962, giving notice to the said absent defendant, Bernard Ladd, of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, and warning him to be and appear in this Court, either in person or by a solicitor, on or before the 20th day of October, 1962, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Carol Hummel Bride of Wayne Knepp

Miss Carol Eloise Hummel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hummel, Grantsville, and Wayne Herbert Knepp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Knepp, Clarysville, were united in marriage on Friday evening, August 31, in a double ring ceremony at the Trinity United Church of Christ, New Germany.

The Reverend William L. Borsch performed the ceremony. The altar was decorated with baskets of flowers and lighted candles. Mrs. Merla Shore played the traditional wedding marches and presented a program preceding the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white nylon lace featuring a fitted bodice with scalloped neckline, tiny cap sleeves and pleated skirt. Her veil fell from a headpiece of white petals embellished with seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Robert L. Otto, Frostburg, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in an aqua embroidered nylon over taffeta street-length dress, featuring a fitted bodice, scoop neckline, and a shirred skirt. Matching accessories completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Harry "Jack" Frost, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid. She was attired in a pink dress of identical style as the matron of honor. Matching accessories completed her ensemble.

Miss Rita Hummel, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. She wore a yellow flocked nylon dress with satin cummerbund.

All attendants carried cascade bouquets of carnations.

Miss Tamra Warnick, Grantsville served as flower girl. She wore a lilac dress with white accessories and carried a basket of carnations.

William R. Robeson, Bowling Green, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Harry "Jack" Frost, and John Hummel, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social room of the United Church of Christ, Grantsville.

Assisting at the serving table were Mrs. Russell Robeson, Mrs. Roy Knepp, aunts of the groom; Mrs. Elmer Flanagan and Mrs. Roy Shumaker, aunts of the bride; Miss Judy Mimick was in charge of

MARRIED

Mills-Pattison—The Bloomington Methodist church was the scene on Sunday, August 26, of the marriage of Miss Kathryn Louise Pattison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll Pattison, of Bloomington, to Jerry Thomas Mills, son of James Mills, Westernport; and Mrs. Rosa Mills, of Bloomington.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clarence Winkler, pastor. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli, pompons and palms.

Mrs. Pearl I. Pattison, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Doris Jean Warnick who sang "Oh Perfect Love," and "Oh Promise Me."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a full length gown of imported lace fashioned with long pointed sleeves and a scoop neckline which was outlined with tiny seed pearls. Flows of net and lace ruffles lined the back of the skirt. Her headpiece was a tiara of crystals and small rhinestones from which fell a finger-tip veil of French illusion. The bride carried a white Bible, with a bouquet of white carnations. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

Miss Kathryn Ann Green, Westernport, the maid of honor and bride's only attendant, was attired in an emerald green satin draped dress styled with a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her headpiece was a large bouffant bow with a small veil. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

James Lawson Mills, Bloomington, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Charles Wilson Pattison, and George Carroll Pattison, Jr., brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pattison chose a dress of light blue lace with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Mills, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aqua dress trimmed with lace, navy blue accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Bloomington Fire hall where the bride's table was decorated with white and pink roses and white wedding bells.

Wonderful Country . . .

We've mentioned before the wonderful advertisements of the precision machinery manufacturers, Warner and Swasey. They've come up with another gem. Here it is.

What a wonderful country this world would be——If every politician voted for the security and future of his country, instead of for his own election.

—If every "liberal" worked for the financial soundness of his country instead of for the socialist idea of dragging everyone down to the same drab low level.

—If every business manager said and did what he knew was right, rather than what he thinks the union or his stockholders or the U. S. Department of Justice or whatever would like him to do or say.

—If every workman did his best day's work because he knows that is the only honest way to earn his wage, and the way to rebuild his country's strength.

—If every voter voted for America, not for "who will give me the most".

Is there anyone who would not rally around such a banner?

One Uniform For Two Boys
Prospect For Jr. Gridders

Southern High school's athletic department was delighted this week. More than seventy-five boys in grades seven, eight and nine reported to Coaches Carl Schoonover and Tom Kuhn in response to a call for football players. Athletic Director Dick Travis said this was the largest number of boys ever to report.

Delight turned to concern, however, when it was realized that equipment is available for only about twenty boys. An immediate alternative considered was the possibility that two boys could wear the same uniform. No, this doesn't mean the uniforms are large and the boys are small. Nor does it mean that each player will be only half dressed. The idea being discussed is for one group of boys to practice on Monday and Tuesday, while a second group would practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Plans to purchase enough equipment to outfit thirty-five boys are being reviewed by school officials, and Kenneth Johns, principal, indicated that every effort was being made to keep the interest of the younger boys who reported for practice sessions.

No definite games have been scheduled for the junior players. The emphasis will be placed on teaching of fundamentals with the possibility of intra-squad games and one or two inter-school contests.

Two Games Scheduled

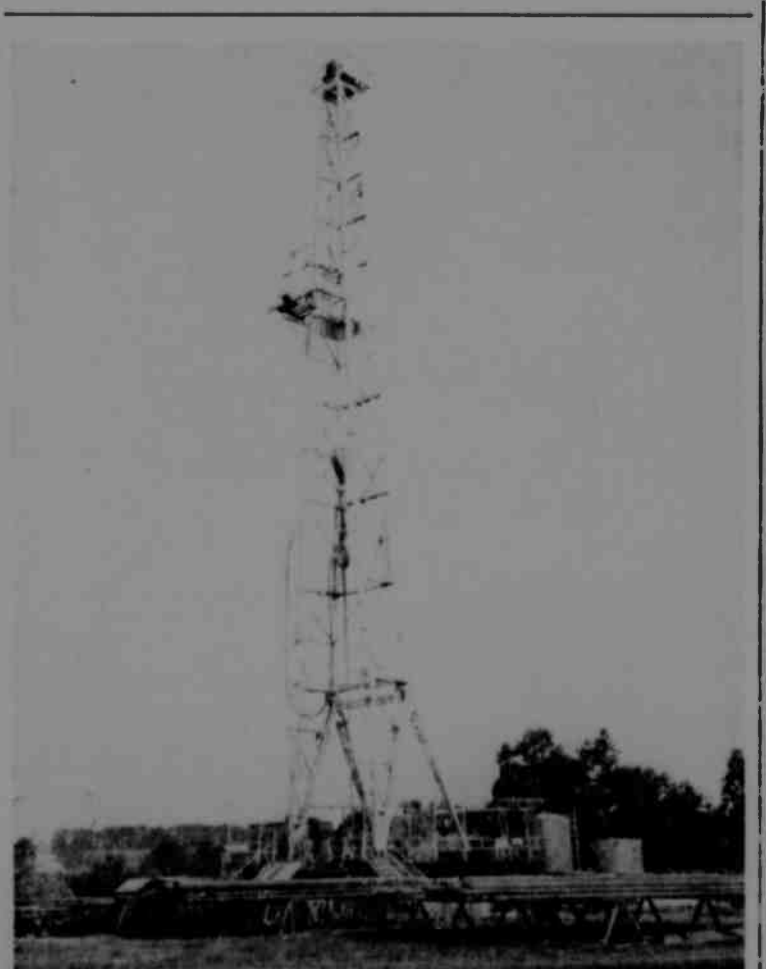

Southern High school's Highlanders will journey to Frostburg Friday night where they will meet the Beall High school football team. The game is scheduled for eight o'clock.

Northern High school's Huskies will hit the field too, Friday when they tangle with Terra Alta on their home field.

Parents Of Girl Scouts
Asked To Meet Sept. 26

Parents of girls who are enrolled in Troop 98 Girl Scouts or Brownies have been asked to attend a meeting Wednesday, September 26 in the Scout hall in Oakland, at 8 p. m.

The matter of adult leadership for the girls will be discussed. Last year, Mrs. Robert Winters acted as Girl Scout leader, but she has recently moved to Baltimore.

BIG RIG—Drilling for gas is underway again in this county. This 147 foot rig began operations last week on the Adam Lucas farm in Pleasant Valley and already a depth of nearly 2,000 feet has been reached. If necessary, the well will be drilled as deep as 9,000 feet.

The Bloomington Fire company will hold a "meet your candidates" supper at the Fire hall on Thursday, September 27, from 5:30 until 7:30 p. m. DST, according to Charles Pattison, a member of the committee.

He said this would give residents of the Bloomington area an opportunity to express their problems and receive the views of the various candidates.

Bayard Man Dies
Of Gunshot Wound

A 44 year old Bayard, W. Va. man who had not worked for two years, due to poor health died Thursday night, September 13, of a wound inflicted by a 30-30 rifle in the basement of his home.

Mr. Conaway was born in Bayard, June 10, 1918, the son of the late Alston and Adelia (Boring) Conaway.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ethel (Wamsley) Conaway; two sons, Charles Allen Conaway and Roy Edward Conaway, both at home; and one sister, Mrs. Mary Gay, Bayard, W. Va.

Monday Deadline For Voter Registration

Monday, September 24 at 4 p. m., is the deadline for registration of new voters, Miss Julia Rowan, chief registrar, said yesterday.

Mobile registration ended last week. Persons who wish to vote in the November election and who are not now registered must go to the election board office in the basement of the Court House before next week's deadline.

John Gregory Schwartzman, who was arrested last week on complaint of residents of the Hinebaugh apartments, was found guilty of two charges when tried before Trial Magistrate Robert Maroney.

Schwartzman has been held on charges of being a "Peeping Tom" and of trespassing. On the first count, he was sentenced to 30 days in jail, and on the second, fifteen days. The sentences were to run concurrently.

Browning Heads
Young GOP Club

A Young Republican club was organized in Garrett county last Thursday evening at a meeting at the Sitzmark room of Will o' the Wisp, Deep Creek Lake.

Donald R. Browning was elected president. Other officers are Claude Faucett, Friendsville, first vice president; Mrs. Donald R. Glosfeldt, Accident, second vice president; Dan Klotz, Grantsville, secretary, and Mrs. Wayne Frederick, Oakland, treasurer.

Some 50 persons, representing nine election districts, attended the first meeting. Speaker was Donald W. Mason, assistant district attorney of Allegheny county, who is vice president of the State Federation of Young Republicans and immediate past president of the Allegheny county club.

Browning said a membership campaign is now underway with a goal of 1,000 members. Active memberships are available for persons between the ages of 18 and 40, and associate memberships for those past 40. Dues in either case are $1.00 per year.

A second meeting is scheduled at the Accident Fire hall on Thursday, September 27 at 8 p. m. A chairman from each election district, to represent his area at club meetings, will be appointed, Browning said.

Seeks Information
On Shooting Star

Readers of The Republican were asked this week to help furnish information on a meteor, or shooting star, which was reported on September 6.

The request came from Dr. F. D. Drake, of the National Radio Astronomy Observatory in Greenbank, W. Va. Dr. Drake said the meteor would have been visible over Garrett county and he requested anyone who believes he witnessed it to contact him at the observatory.

According to Dr. Drake, the meteor was a very bright one and was reported to have passed shortly after 7 p. m. on September 6. Specific information he requested was the time of sighting, the direction in which it was seen, its general appearance and any sound heard in connection with it.

Health Dept. Nurse
Services Curtailed

Some curtailment in nursing services of the County Health department were announced this week by Dr. Arthur F. Jones, county health officer.

He said two of his regular nurses would not be on the staff for several months. Mrs. Hazel Dowling is on an extended sick leave and not expected back for several months, and Miss Mary Kathryn Speicher is on leave of absence to attend the University of Maryland under government grant given to further the education of those in the public health field.

He said starting October first, the clinic which had been held every Tuesday in the Central Health Dept. would be changed to Fridays. The Kitzmiller Health center will be open from 1 until 3 p. m. on the first, second and fourth Thursday of each month.

The Bloomington Child Immunization clinic will be held in the school health room from 1 until 3 the first Wednesday of each month and the Grantsville Health center will be open the second and fourth Tuesday from 1 until 3. At Friendsville, the center will be open the first and third Tuesday from 1 until 3.

School visiting, he said, will be done on request. Yesterday, Dr. Jones issued an appeal to any registered nurses who are not now employed to assist in the operation of the clinics and health centers. His office is in the Garrett County Memorial hospital.

Bloodmobile Fails To Reach Quota

Eighty-six pints of blood were collected by the Johnstown bloodmobile yesterday during its visit to Oakland. The quota had been set at 100 pints.

Mrs. Grover Stomple, recruitment chairman, said 100 persons were scheduled to give blood but only 50 showed up. There were 50 walk-ins, but 14 donors were rejected for one reason or another.

Twenty were first time donors and 41 pints of the blood collected were replacements.

Gas Exploration
Again Underway

Drilling In Pleasant Valley
Approaching 3,000 Feet

Exploratory drilling for gas was resumed last week on the Adam Lucas farm in the Pleasant Valley area, when the Lohman-Johnson company of Indiana began work under contract for the Cumberland and Allegheny Gas company. The drilling rig is one of the largest to be used in this county, and the depth to which drilling is proposed is one of the deepest. Measuring 147 feet in height, the rig was moved to the site on Thursday of last week in prefabricated sections, and actual operations began one day later. If necessary, it is planned to probe from 6,000 to 9,000 feet in an attempt to strike a deeper gas strata than that tapped by present wells.

Two previous wells have been successful on the Lucas farm during past years, although only one is producing at the present time. The site is across the road from the Jasper Riley farm, where previously two successful wells had been brought in. Both have now been taken out of production, Mr. Riley said last night.

In the immediate vicinity is the Norris K. Welch farm, where the county's first producing well was brought in, and which is still a major producer.

Yesterday, drilling on the new well had reached 2,800 feet and is being continued on a 24-hour a day basis.

The Bloomington school has an enrollment of 123.

County Not Classified
Disaster Area

Arthur G. Fitzwater, Chairman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee today reminded Garrett County farmers that grazing or other use of acreage diverted under the Feed Grain, Wheat Stabilization or Soil Bank-Conservation Reserve programs is not permitted.

Any use of these diverted acres in Garrett County could result in a loss or substantial reduction of payments due for taking part in any of the crop reduction programs. While provisions restricting use of acreages put into conserving uses have been relaxed in some areas of the State because of short feed supplies, Garrett County is not one of the counties that has been designated as a part of the emergency area.

Regular Autumn Weather

The weather on the mountain top the past week has been typical of the season, with cool nights, brisk mornings and pleasant days. Some rain fell on Wednesday.

Health Dept. To Proceed With Oral
Polio Vaccination

Garrett county will go ahead with plans for mass polio vaccinations using the Sabin oral vaccine, according to Dr. Arthur F. Jones, county health officer.

Earlier in the week, the United States Public Health Service had recommended discontinuance of the vaccine, but many communities which had undertaken the Sabin program indicated they would continue as planned. Dr. Jones said in this county the controversial type vaccine would not be used until January, and said he was confident by then any difficulties with the Public Health Service would be ironed out.

The schedule calls for mass vaccination during the months of October, November and January. Dr. Jones indicated a schedule of dates and places was being worked out and would be released for later publication. He urged all those from infancy through forty years of age to take the series, whether they have had Salk shots or not.

Rotarians Will Hold
Ladies' Night Friday

An informal Ladies' night is being played for Friday evening by the Oakland Rotary club. The affair will be held at the William-James hotel beginning at 6:15.

Entertainment will be furnished by the music department of Southern High school and will include a 12-piece orchestra, piano and vocal selections by students from the school.

Last Friday night, members of the club heard C. O. Williams, district governor, who made his official visit.

Mr. Williams spoke of the international nature of the Rotary organization and the significant contributions members are making to the advancement of world understanding among men of different creeds and colors.

Mr. Williams also emphasized the importance of the individual Rotarian to the global program of Rotary. He also commended the local club for its support of the Rotary Foundation, which awards fellowships to graduate students for study in countries other than their own.

The men were sent to Great Lakes, Ill., for training.

Treat All Your Planting Seed

"It has been well established by many Experiment Station tests over the country that seed treatment pays big returns on money invested," says Dr. Newcomer, Extension agronomist, University of Maryland.

The opinion is not uncommon that treating of cereal grain seed should be done primarily to control covered smut, and that no treating is necessary as long as there is no serious smut problem. Several other diseases, however, can be of as great an economic importance as covered smut. Such diseases as scab can seriously reduce your yield, and under severe conditions, cause complete crop failure. Many of the diseases affecting cereal grain crops are easily controlled by seed treatment with a good mercury chemical.

Even the best seed, if planted untreated, may invite risks for loss in yield and even crop failure. Be sure to buy full planting seed that has been treated with an approved mercury treatment. Look for the treatment tag. If you have your own seed cleaned and treated by a custom operator, be sure to specify that it be treated with a good mercury treatment. Should you prepare your own seed on the farm, be sure that it is well cleaned and always treated with a mercury treatment. The modern mercurial liquid seed treatments now available simplify seed treating on the farm.

Seed treating costs so little, while the return on your investment is so large.

Handling the cards from the Friendsville postoffice will be Alvin Lytle, Route 1, and Wade A. Schroyer, Route 2.

This Week In Congress

By Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.
Sixth District—Maryland

A National Newspaper Hall Of Fame

Last Friday in the House of Representatives I spoke briefly on the subject of the new National Newspaper Hall of Fame which is to be established in Maryland in our own Sixth Congressional District.

You know that a responsible government guarantees its people a free press, and a responsible press helps maintain the institutions of a free government. In the United States, we are very fortunate in having the benefits of both a free and responsible press and of a democratic republic.

In my remarks on the floor of the House, I called upon my colleagues in the Congress to support the proposal that has been made by the Maryland-Delaware Press Association to establish a Newspaper Hall of Fame adjacent to the George Alfred Townsend Arch which now stands in the Maryland State Park at Gathland.

For those of you who may not have visited the park, I would remind you that George Alfred Townsend was a Civil War correspondent. After the war he became a successful novelist, and with the proceeds of this success he built an arch to commemorate the services of his fellow journalists during the Civil War. It is the only memorial to newspapermen anywhere in the world, and it is appropriate that this spot, dedicated long ago to the splendid work of our newspapermen, should be further enhanced by the Newspaper Hall of Fame.

I also called upon the journalists throughout the country to support the efforts of the Maryland-Delaware Press Association, because I think this is truly a national project. It will be recalled that the guarantee of freedom of the press was the first of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States. This is a cornerstone of the liberties of individuals in America.

I do not think we can emphasize too much the importance of a free and responsible press. As a member of the Congress, I know full well the essential role of the press in transmitting to people throughout the country the events that are taking place daily here in Washington. The press must be free to transmit the facts as they take place. If there is blame to be ladled from these facts, then it is the people who must decide. If tribute is deserved for what transpires in Washington, then the people must have the information on which to base this decision.

So the press must be free, and the press must be responsible. The press must report the facts fairly, honestly and objectively. In this respect I think we can all agree that the American news media do a good job. They must continue to have the freedom to exercise this responsibility if our republic

It is to remain strong and vigorous as a body politic.

It is a pleasure to congratulate George Rash, of Hagerstown, Maryland, the chairman of the Maryland-Delaware Press Association's Hall of Fame Committee, on having brought the National Newspaper Hall of Fame to public notice, to be followed, I am sure, by widespread public support. I congratulate Ralph Hostetter, the president of the Maryland-Delaware Press Association, for his unstinting support of this project.

As the representative in Congress of the Sixth District of Maryland, where this tangible tribute will be located, I welcome the Hall of Fame as a permanent monument to newspapermen who, throughout the years, have contributed much to good government in America.

CUTTING TAXES
By Willis E. Stone

(Editor's Note: Willis E. Stone is author of the "Proposed Liberty Amendment" and Chairman, National Committee for Economic Freedom, Los Angeles, Calif.)

Just about everybody is getting in on the "Demand to cut taxes." It seems that the top organizations are at last climbing on the bandwagon. Even President Kennedy is proposing a tax cut right in the face of a gigantic deficit in 1962 and a similar deficit in 1963.

To many it appears that we taxpayers are at last going to get a break instead of going broke, but others are more skeptical. They recall that the present tax load was developed by other plans by the same people with the same glorious fanfare and the same promised benefactions. Somehow the grand innovations always seem to backfire.

This would appear to be the case in the present situation. President Kennedy's "tax cut plan" seems to be based upon the idea that people need the money right now, and will somehow have more money later to pay the interest charges and amortization costs of the increased government debt. Be assured more debt is ahead. The debt limit has just been increased $8 billion. President Kennedy has himself authorized 70 new ways of spending tax dollars or increasing the spending of tax dollars on projects already operating.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce made the headlines with a demand for a tax cut, but failed to propose a cut in the costs of government which would make it feasible. It should be clear to this business group that the simplest formula of good business is to keep spending within income. To do otherwise for an indefinite period is fatal to a person, a family and a nation.

The AFL-CIO set up its demand for a reduction in income taxes while opposing efforts to reduce the spending of government and has ignored well established plans for controlling both taxing and spending. But labor, rank-and-file as well as the leadership knows the only valid means of tax reduction is through reduction in federal spending. The only function of taxes is to pay the cost of government. Politicians and their satellites have ignored this truth for years in their successful endeavors to spend it faster than the American people can produce it. For this reason the national debt is $240 billion greater today than it was 20 years ago—and it now requires twice as many tax dollars to pay interest on that part of the debt as it did to run the entire government 30 years ago.

Tax reform and tax repeal are very popular subjects, but it should be clear to everyone that taxes are a result of spending, and that reform or repeal depends entirely on reductions in spending. Unfortunately big business, big labor and big government have failed to deal with this obvious fact although it

How To Buy Votes . . .

A determined group of Congressmen are hell bent on pushing through a pay raise before Congress adjourns for the Government's 2,366,000 employees to the tune of $900 million to make hay for themselves back home in this election year.

It is even reported that certain members of the Senate and House are insistent that a $400 million increase for the 585,000 postal employees be tied in with a postal rate increase bill (H.R. 7927) now before Congress. And this in spite of the fact that witness after witness has told the Congress this dis-

33 Marriage Permits Granted Last Week

Thirty-three marriage licenses were issued from the office of Richard L. Davis, clerk of the Circuit court, during the week ending Monday morning. Two of the licenses issued were marked "don't publish."

This brought the total for September thus far to 166.

eriminatory legislation will destroy many weekly and daily newspapers and magazines and kill many jobs in the publishing and allied industries.

Of course, all Representatives and one-third of the Senators are up for re-election in November. To make votes for themselves, some of the more willful seem to have forgotten President Kennedy's admonition not to "ask what the country can do for you—but rather, ask what you can do for your country."

A pay raise of these proportions is counter to everything the President seeks for the national economy. He has stressed that labor should avoid asking for wage hikes so that management can hold the price line and avoid inflation. But these Congressmen seem to feel there is a double standard—one for Government employees and another for private employees.

A pay raise for Federal workers at this time could start a disastrous wage spiral, particularly since they already enjoy many benefits not available to other employees. They are guaranteed year-round employment, get up to 26 days' vacation leave and 13 days' sick leave, are assured regular promotions, substantial retirement and, with so much red tape involved, it is practically impossible to fire them.

Inasmuch as it has been estimated that each Federal worker controls four ballots, this might be called a lesson in how to buy votes with tax funds.—U. S. Press Ass'n.

Listen Americans!

Searcy, Arkansas

For the most part, the writers, bureaucrats and politicians now described as the "liberals" have been so busy attacking "right wing extremists" that they have not been able to enlarge otherwise upon their own programs for changing and weakening the nation. An exception, however, was their excursion into the "Liberal Project" which a dozen or so legislators set up during the 1959-60 session of Congress in order to study American foreign policy under the guidance of a group of intellectual liberals.

All this resulted in a book of essays by these "intellectual" spokesmen for liberal ideas, edited and introduced by Representative James Roosevelt of California. There was so much eyebrow raising when "The Liberal Papers" came out last spring that a flood of disavowals poured forth, including statements from Rep. Roosevelt that no congressman endorsed or had anything to do with it. Aside from the obvious contradiction that Mr. Roosevelt himself wrote the introduction and therefore had something to do with it, the book does list several officeholders and ex-officeholders who took an interest in the project.

Some of the writers and ex-officeholders have since gone into federal service; one as a disarmament consultant, another on the staff of the National Security Council, two to the Agency for International Development, another to the Department of Interior, Chester Bowles, one of the sponsors, remains hidden somewhere in the councils of the Administration. Between now and November, however, it is not likely that many Democrats, even of the Kennedy clan, will refer to the book with much enthusiasm.

Congressman Roosevelt apparently thought the essays would prepare the country for survival, but if the essays are remembered in November by the electorate, some of the liberals are not likely to survive the elections. Raymond Moley, in his column in the New York Tribune, said: "The whole thing is a craven design for surrender. Representative Hallack said that the book proposed the U. S. 'back out of Europe and Asia with one hand behind their backs.'"

Some Democrats have been busy disavowing the book, but there it is. "The National Review" has called it "perhaps the hottest political publication of our time," and has characterized two of the book's authors, both of them Harvard professors, as appeasers "whose implicit claim to courage lies in their willingness for all of us to live under Communist domination." President Kennedy, the "Review" declared, must lead a revolt against the liberal ideology, or such men may finally be running Washington. So far Party Leader Kennedy has not disavowed the book, thinking perhaps to hold liberal votes and please his inner circle.

Some Democrats have been busy disavowing the book, but there it is. Mt. Storm Wins Pair In Playoffs Rugged Rich Smith pitched Mt. Storm to a double victory Sunday afternoon in the first two games of the best-of-five championship series in the Town and Country Softball League, beating Loch Lynn by scores of 2-1 and 4-1. Mt. Storm can wrap up the title next Sunday at Loch Lynn by defeating the latter club in the third playoff contest beginning at 2 p. m. If a fourth game is necessary, it will be played as part of a doubleheader.

Smith yielded six hits in the opener Sunday in out-dueling Odell Warnick. He was even tougher in the nightcap against Mike Fisher, as he surrendered only four base hits.

The twin victory gave the big Keever right-hander 15 consecutive league victories. He is 20-5 overall, and has not lost since dropping a doubleheader to Oakland on July 1.

School Bus Avoids Serious Accident

A bus load of children on the way to school last Thursday morning near Bittinger narrowly escaped injury when a mounted hammermill, a portable feed grinding machine on a truck body, fell over directly in front of the school bus.

Donald Fay Folk, of Grantsville, owner and driver, was heading towards Bittinger with his rig when the rear wheels and housing dropped from beneath the truck. The rig toppled over on its side directly in front of the school bus.

Ira Yaste, driver of the bus, said that he had just picked up a child and had not reached full speed. When he stopped the bus it was only a few feet from the rig and he had to back up before proceeding on to school.

The mill was so heavy and bulky that a regular rigger from a garage in Grantsville was unable to right it and a special rig had to be built over the mill to use a chain hoist to pull it erect.

Folk, the owner, said that if the gasoline tank on the truck had been filled, a fire could have broken out quite easily.

Breeding Cooperative Holds Annual Meeting

Members of the Garrett County Artificial Breeding Cooperative No. 2 held their annual meeting September 11 at Christ Lutheran church in Grantsville. Some 60 farmers and their families attended.

D. W. Klotz, technician, introduced the guests. At a business meeting conducted by Russell Bowser, president, George Shadley and Galen Maust were elected to the board of directors.

Klotz also spoke on his work in the area, which is now in its fifteenth year. Gene Weaver, fieldman, reported on state activities and showed a film.

Entertainment was provided by Bonnie Baker, who played 'The Lord's Prayer'; Larry Buckel and Charles Klotz, trumpet duet; piano solos by Bonnie Baker and Sherry Kamp; songs by Mary Alice, Edith Iac and Sue Ann Jenkins and organ numbers by Pamela Klotz. James McHenry, county agent, led group singing.

Many Prominent Persons Entertained At Davis Home

This week's old photograph is another furnished by C. A. Jones, of Columbus, Ohio, who also supplied the accompanying details.

Probably more Presidents and others of distinction were entertained at this house, built by former Senator Henry G. Davis at Deer Park, and occupied by his family for twenty-five summers, than in any other home in Garrett County. Built and occupied in 1867, a quarter of a century later it was bought by Hon. John T. McGraw, of Grafton, a prominent politician, and occupied by him until it was destroyed by fire about 1925.

Mr. Davis was a prominent businessman in Piedmont, who had purchased large tracts of timber in this county. In his biography it is stated that this was an unbroken wilderness in which he was determined to build a summer home into which he moved April 26, 1867. That year, snow fell in late May and on September 1, frost killed his buckwheat.

The new home stood just west of the present village, near the home of Col. Tillson, an earlier resident. Just east were lots stacked with the lumber brought by tramway from the mills at North Glade. The home was really the center from which a large farm, the pride of Mr. Davis, was developed.

Partially through its influence and cooperation, the Garretts, who for many years controlled the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co., the initial center wing of the Deer Park Hotel was built in 1872. Later, because of the extensive patronage developed, two additional wings and numerous cottages (2 of which were occupied by the Garretts) were erected, and a hotel at Oakland.

General U. S. Grant (former president) and Mrs. Grant were guests in the Davis home for several days in 1863. President and Mrs. Grover Cleveland, spending their honeymoon in a hotel cottage in June, 1886, "wended their way up the sawdust trail leading to the Davis cottage in the early morning, throwing aside all ceremony," and eliminating questions of protocol. Both before and during his Presidency, Benjamin Har-

Farmers To Receive Acreage Survey Cards

Rural mail carriers and star route contractors will begin distributing acreage survey cards to farmer-patrons on their routes about September 25, it was announced this week.

The survey provides the Maryland-Delaware Crop Reporting Service at College Park with basic information for estimating the acreage of important crops grown in this area.

It was pointed out that this is a simple survey, and not all farms would receive a survey card. Acting Oakland Postmaster Robert W. Lohr urged all farmers receiving the cards to fill it out and place it in his mail box.

Carriers distributing cards from the Oakland office are Kenneth R. Martin, Route 1; George L. Porter, Route 2; and James A. Gover, Star Route.

To Wed September 30

An open church wedding will be held on Sunday afternoon, September 30 at 2:00 o'clock when Miss Lora Jean Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch W. Jones, of Surgoinsville, Tenn., will become the bride of John William Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Martin, of Route 2, Oakland.

Rev. Luther Seibert, pastor, will perform the ceremony in St. John's Lutheran church, Red House.

A reception will follow the ceremony in the church social room.

Road fatalities in Maryland stood at 394, up 96 over 1961.

His first wife and their daughter, were guests. To the home came many of the men most prominent in government in the 1870's and 1880's. To this home came the messenger from the Vatican bringing to Archbishop Gibbons notification that he had been created the second American Cardinal. The hospitality at Deer Park in those days was a reflex of the Davis hospitality extended in Washington.

Just across a small ravine to the west later there was erected a substantial summer home for the daughter, Halie, the wife of Stephen B. Elkins, who became a prominent factor in the life of the nation and a United States Senator from West Virginia.

After the property passed to Hon. John T. McGraw, many distinguished guests were also in the home over which his sister, Miss Rose, presided. Among these were Hon. William Jennings Bryan, at the time Democratic nominee for President.

Paper Begins Series Of Articles After Death Of Writer

A native of Oakland who had been engaged in newspaper and public relations work in the Washington area for the past twenty years is the author of a series of articles now appearing in The Washington Post.

Lawrence Gonder, who wrote of his experiences as an alcoholic, died just four days before the first installment was to appear. Originally intended for anonymous publication, Mr. Gonder's name was added as author, after the newspaper management conferred with members of the family.

In an introduction to the articles, the editor of The Post explained: "Larry Gonder, a 37 year old former Washington news reporter and public relations man, came to The Washington Post several weeks ago, insisting he had a story to tell.

"Nobility knew it at the time, of course, but within the month he would be dead of a heart attack. The story he had to tell was a highly personal one, confined to his experiences as an alcoholic.

"He sat for days at a typewriter in The Washington Post's newsroom, mercilessly hammering out the story of one man's degradation—his—and of society's inability to cope with a problem which threatens to engulf it.

"He was furiously determined in the telling to ease the lot of those who must follow him.

"The result is an absorbing account of a situation which cannot for much longer be swept under the rug by a society that must pretend it isn't there—or admit its failure in a vital area of its everyday affairs.

"It is the cruellest irony that Larry couldn't wait to find out if his story accomplished its objectives.

"All I want to do is set some good minds to thinking. That always leads to something," Larry explained. Gonder was a former labor reporter for the United Press. In addition, he had been on the staffs of the Associated Press, the old Washington Times-Herald and Broadcasting Magazine."

The series began Sunday in the Washington newspaper.

Tough new '63 Chevrolet Trucks are here!

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN...
TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hab) California Peninsula, Mexico.

These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles.

All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

CHEVROLET

QUALITY TRUCKS COST LESS

Sometimes the caravan crept along for hours in low gear. It took 17 days to go 1,066 miles! This is the road near Loreto.

now it's Pepsi
for those who think young

Thinking young is a wholesome attitude, an enthusiastic outlook. It means getting the most out of life, and everyone is joining in. This is thinking young. And this is the life for Pepsi-light, bracing, clean-tasting Pepsi. So think young. In stores, buy an extra carton. At fountains, say "Pepsi, please!"

The road pictured here bears the time-worn marks of many travellers. Apparently it leads to some distant village or serves perhaps as a link between more vital thoroughfares.

But in reality this road does neither. Once, no doubt, it had a destination, but today it fades away into the woods a few miles beyond—a "dead end."

How many lives are like this road? They have promising beginnings, but instead of continuing to worthwhile goals, they wander aimlessly to final dead ends.

The Church teaches us to build useful lives and guides us toward noble achievements and ambitions. Regular attendance at church services gives greater assurance that our pathway of life will not lead us astray. On the contrary, it leads straight to the house of the peaceful mind and the contented heart.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Best for God

Lesson for September 23, 1962

EVERY priest and every minister you see is what he is because he chose to be so. He follows what Roman Catholics call "Vocation" and Protestants a "Call."—that is, he believed it was God's will that he should be a priest or a minister as the case might be, and so he of his own free will followed the Spirit's guidance.

In the old Hebrew days it was different. No man had to decide anything about a call to the ministry, that is to say the priesthood. A man was either born into a family of priests or not. If not, there was no way by which he could become one. On the other hand, if he was born the son of a priest, there was no getting out of it unless he was seriously crippled. The effect of this, naturally, was that many men were priests who had no liking for their work and perhaps very little capacity for it. They worked at it as quickly and easily as they could. They were much more interested in the pay than in the service.

This was the situation which the prophet Malachi faced. Religion was at a low ebb in Jerusalem and throughout. People offered to God the least they could get by with. With the priests' bad example before them, the everyday worshippers grew quite indifferent to the whole business of religion. God got the tag-ends, tag-ends of sacrifices (lambs that were sick anyhow, for example), tag-ends of money, and probably small tag-ends of time. Anything would do for God, it was thought. Malachi tried to break through this piggyish indifference. We do not know how successful he was, but we do know what he tried to do. He tried to help God's people recover the conviction that God is real, all-good.

Pittsburgher to Head Lutheran Synod

The Western Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church in America will be headed by a Pittsburgher with wide experience as an administrator. The Rev. William C. Hankey was elected president of the new synod Monday night in the opening session of a two-day convention at Phil college, Greenville, Pa. He is former president of the Pittsburgh Synod and a resident of the North Hills section of Pittsburgh.

The new Western Pennsylvania Synod includes congregations formerly affiliated with the West Virginia Synod. At the annual convention last May at Jackson's Mill, the latter body agreed to a merger with other Lutheran synods to form the new Western Pennsylvania synod. Included in the merger are all Lutheran congregations in Garrett county except those affiliated with the Mission Synod.

Altogether, 333 congregations are involved. The new synod will begin operations next January 1 with a budget of nearly $2 million. It plans to operate and own a college, two homes for children and an old persons home in cooperation with other Lutheran groups.

The Public Health service advised the discontinuance of Type III oral polio vaccine.

and almighty. He is every man's best friend. The Israelites were not only treating God shabbily, they were actually robbing him. If a man wants his friend to have the best, what must we think—what must God think—of men who not only treat God and his laws and his service with contempt, and actually give God the worst instead of the best?

God gets the worst of time, too. Is time set apart for Bible reading an important part of the day? Is the time spent in Bible reading and prayer combined, as much as is spent in listening to the weather reports on the radio? Is the time set apart for personal religion a time when one is most wide-awake, or most sleepy? As for Sundays, the story is the same. The finest excuses serve to excuse absences from church.

God gets the worst of time, too. Is time set apart for Bible reading an important part of the day? Is the time spent in Bible reading and prayer combined, as much as is spent in listening to the weather reports on the radio? Is the time set apart for personal religion a time when one is most wide-awake, or most sleepy? As for Sundays, the story is the same. The finest excuses serve to excuse absences from church.

Here's some one complaining that religion does not seem real. God doesn't seem real. No wonder! The test of the reality of a man's faith is in the way he lives. But right away, he is not your possession at all. God lent them to you. Many a boy or girl who has wanted to enter God's service in the navy has been talked or bullied out of it by older people. Don't rob God of his greatly needed helpers!

There is one more thing that must be said, especially to fathers and mothers, teachers and friends of young people. The boys and girls you love are your most precious possession. I may say, But rightly speaking, they are not your possession at all. God lent them to you. Many a boy or girl who has wanted to enter God's service in the navy has been talked or bullied out of it by older people. Don't rob God of his greatly needed helpers!

Altogether, 333 congregations are involved. The new synod will begin operations next January 1 with a budget of nearly $2 million. It plans to operate and own a college, two homes for children and an old persons home in cooperation with other Lutheran groups.

Is Your Name MCKENZIE?

McKenzie is one of the principal Scottish names. The consensus of opinion among authorities on the origin of names is that it is obtained from "cumeach" which means "bright person." Thus, McKenzie is generally believed to signify "son of the leader".

John McKenzie (1757-1812) served as captain of Virginia troops during the Revolutionary War.

The first census of the United States, taken in 1790, has listings of John, Thomas and Michael McKenzie who were residents of Maryland and heads of families at that time. They lived respectively in Frederick, Dorchester and Washington Counties.

Leo McKenzie was a school trustee in the Grantsville district of Garrett County for the year ending May 13, 1881.

There are fifteen references to persons by the name of McKenzie in the latest directory of Phi Beta Kappa, the honorary scholastic society.

Alexander McKenzie (1830-1914) was a distinguished clergyman. A graduate of Harvard College and Andover Theological Seminary, he was ordained to the ministry of the Congregational Church in Cambridge, Mass., for the forty-seventh year preceding his death. He was an overseer of Harvard University and also secretary of the board of overseers of the university for twenty-six years.

Robert Tait McKenzie (1867-1928) achieved international recognition both as a physician and sculptor. He was director of the department of Conaway and family, Masontown, Sunday.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Friend during the past week were Mrs. Chet Kelly, Mill Run; Mrs. Perry Umbel and Rev. Charles Hinkle.

Ralph Beachley and son Henry attended the re-enactment of the battle of Antietam at Sharpsburg on Sunday.

At our request, the Pilgram family of Frederick recently kept a two-week telephone diary of their local phone calls. Then they estimated the total time, money and mileage saved by these calls.

The revealing results showed the phone had saved them 16 hours, $26.70 in expenses and 283 miles of travel. Their record also indicated four good reasons for these savings. Mrs. Pilgram, her husband, and their daughters, Barbara and Penny.

There were calls that conveniently saved trips to the drugstore and the appliance store. Other calls that gave information quickly about Civil Defense and jury duty. Calls like these prompted Peg Pilgram to say, "At our house, the telephone's almost as much a necessity as food and clothing."

What would a telephone diary in your home show? You'd probably find, just like the Pilgrams, that your telephone gives you a great deal for its low monthly cost.

SENATE CLOAKROOM
by Sen. J. Glenn Beall (R. Md.)

"I Am An American"—Those are words proudly spoken by millions of our fellow countrymen. What is an American? He is Patrick Henry crying, "Give me liberty or give me death!" or one of the freezing and starving, yet valiant, men at Valley Forge, or the sad and humorous Abraham Lincoln, or Custer, or Colin Kelly, or Audie Murphy—men of every generation since Washington's time who would not let the Stars and Stripes lie in the dust—men who have given the history of America a living faith! An American is a boy or girl born and raised in the tradition of "Peace on Earth to men of good will"—a believer in fair play, a believer in God—one with high faith, and a respect for the other fellow—a lover of decency and honor—a boy or girl born to laugh and play, a wisecrack on his lips, a fervent faith in his country in his heart. Our reliance is on a love for our country, a patriotism, deep-rooted within us.

Patriotism is the throbbing heart of a nation, and no nation has long endured when patriotism became nothing more than platitudes. Patriotism is the keystone in the arch of national greatness and strength. Upon this rock the lofty cathedral structure that is America was built.

But, in 1960 White House Adviser W. W. Rostow wrote that it is "an American interest to see an end to nationhood as it has been historically defined."

Telstar Launches New Era—The placing in orbit of the communications satellite, Telstar, may be the most important event of the past hundred years, for Telstar and its successors will surely change the life and thinking of all nations. What makes Telstar so special—out of our grand array of 41 satellites now orbiting the earth and the sun—is the fact that Telstar receives, amplifies and retransmits television pictures and sound. Former limited horizons are rolled back. No longer is the curvature of the earth a barrier against wireless television communication. People in Europe can see, via television, what is going on in America as it happens, and vice versa, thanks to the capabilities of Telstar, which "mirrors" what it sees so that at least half of the world may see the same thing. Other communications satellites will follow, and we will soon have continual service, 24 hours a day, all over the world. The Telstar project typifies one of the grandest achievements of the human race—the rational uncovering of natural law and its application to service mankind. The inauguration of instant world-wide communication cannot help but have a profound effect on the economies and relations of all nations.

Telstar magnificently represents the ingenuity, initiative and efficiency that have marked private enterprise in America. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company spent nearly $30,000,000 of its own money developing the satellite, and in addition, paid the National Aeronautics and Space Administration $2,700,000 to launch it.

The social implications of this breakthrough are vast. Certainly, the political implications are of paramount importance. In the United States Senate, and no doubt throughout the country, the question of who should own and operate such a system is being debated. The creative thinking that is dissolving limitations demonstrates what men can accomplish as talented, often dedicated, individuals. The political and social questions to which their achievements give rise are a challenge to all men to demonstrate the nature judgment that will control their use to benefit mankind.

Pacific Northwest Power: Another Subsidy—On Wednesday, the Senate voted 51 to 39 to subsidize the users of electric power in one limited area in the Pacific Northwest. Under the measure which passed (S. 3153), the taxpayers throughout the nation would pay a little extra so that the people in one particular section of the country may get their power at a cheap rate. I made a statement on the Senate floor against the measure, and voted against it. The bill sets a dangerous precedent in that it gives preferential treatment to one section of the country and discriminates against other sections. Adding insult to injury, the legislation would make it possible for the Pacific Northwest to entice industries from our part of the country. I could not see our asking the people of Maryland to contribute their tax dollars so that producers from another part of the country might say to a Maryland manufacturer: "Now we can assure you of cheap power. Move here, and you will have low rates forever. We will make the taxpayers throughout the United States pay the difference. And, furthermore, we will see to it that they never share our riches and resources."

The bill now goes to the House of Representatives for consideration, and I believe that as the people of Maryland and other States discriminated against become aware of the unfairness of the legislation and the danger inherent in establishing such a precedent, they will be writing their respective Representatives in the House, making known their objection to the bill. "The voice of the people" remains powerful.

Public Housing's 2-Day Spending Spree—On the last two days of the fiscal year which ended June 30, the Public Housing Administration put out more than $152,000,000 for the construction of low-rent housing. In a frantic move to get rid of the available money before the deadline, the Government agency let 75 contracts for loans in 101 cities and towns in 27 States. Although the money is loaned and will be repaid, it has been shown that the more units built, the greater the cost to the Federal government, for the Federal government guarantees to contribute money to avoid deficits in the operation of the housing units as long as rents are kept at a level below the profit-making level of private enterprise operation. Ten years ago this program cost the American taxpayers about $25,000,000 a year, but it has increased more than 600%. Small potatoes, you say? Yes, it is, when compared with the cost of the farm-subsidy program or the annual interest on the national debt, but experience has demonstrated that every "little" additional 100-million-dollar load or even 1-million-dollar load adds eventually to the burden on Uncle Sam's long suffering taxpayers.

Staunch advocates of public housing, who have their approval of the fundamental program on compassion and sociological progress, acknowledge a serious drawback in the program. Residents of public housing must not make too much money, or they lose their eligibility to live in the public housing project at the special bargain rate made possible by the taxpayers of the nation, and some occupants like the deal so much that they refuse to try to make more money than the limit. Thus we restrain initiative.

When the Public Housing Administration was handing out that $152,000,000, Maryland received nothing. Nevertheless, our Maryland taxpayers continue to pay more than their fair share of the cost of the Federal government. Surplus Commodities, Storage, and Stockpiling—According to an official report of the Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures, the Government pays $1,368,000 per day for the storage and handling of surplus commodities. The national stockpile, according to the March 31, 1962, inventory, totaled $13,469,479,879, in four main categories: Strategic and critical materials, $8,749,634,009; Agriculture commodities: Price support program, 4,435,947,358; Civil Defense supplies and equipment, 193,741,812; Machine tools, 90,756,700; Total—$13,469,479,879.

President Kennedy, on January 31, 1962, condemned the Government's large stockpile and stated that he would reduce it. However, according to a July 24, 1962, report of the Congressional Joint Committee stockpile increased during the first four months of this year by more than 26 million dollars.

Sermonette By Area Ministers

Rev. James Remley
Of The Methodist Church
Serving God by Serving Man

In Matthew 25 our Lord points out to us how we are to serve our God. In His, "As oft as ye have done it unto the least of these, ye have done it unto me". He clearly points out the central message that he brings to us from the Heavenly Father. In fact it is true that the only way we can serve our Heavenly Father is by serving his children, who are our fellow men.

This emphasis is lifted up in Matthew 25:31-46, in the story of The Good Samaritan, and, not only by his teaching, but, by his life which was one of constant service to those around him who would accept his help.

This definitely points out that if we are not being of service to our fellow men then we are not being of service to our God, and as a result we are not a part of God's Kingdom.

Being of service to our fellow man is serving him in a way that will improve him physically, mentally, or spiritually. This we can do through the church, through our daily work, through fellowship anywhere at any time. We need to remember that in order to serve God by serving man we must first establish a right relationship between ourselves and God so that we can see clearly the Will of God, and then go out to serve our fellow man because we have learned by personal experience that this is the Will of God.

There is a real art involved in helping people and included in this art is a real loving concern. This is a real loving concern, instead of a nosy curiosity. This loving concern is caught from the Spirit of Christ as we walk with and learn of him.

One has said that involved in the art of helping is an understanding that you can only help a person to the degree that they want to be helped, not to the degree you want to help. That we help in the measure we minister to their needs; and, the things that really help a person spiritually are primarily those things that we do WITH them rather than the things we do for them.

It is true that when we help others we not only help the person who is the object of our concern, but we also help ourselves. This was taught by Jesus when he taught that one must lose himself in service and in doing so finds a most wonderful life for himself. Those who have a healthy attitude of helpful concern for others gain an inner quality of life that is characteristic of the Kingdom of God.

Those who are so infantile as to be only concerned for themselves actually create their own place in hell, a life of misery and nuisance which interferes with the harmony of Christian Fellowship, actually causes poor health, retards and upsets emotional stability and brings mental and spiritual depression.

Find a selfish person, who has never learned the job of serving, and you find an unhappy person who will not make a good citizen of either our nation or The Kingdom of God. He is not capable

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Meyers and children, Grantsville, were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. of contributing to the improvement of his own condition or the society around him because he is a part of its sickness.

This attitude of consideration for the well being of others and a helpful concern for them brings a harmony to our relationships that is absolutely necessary to our being able to really live rather than merely exist. It creates physical health, emotional stability, and a peace of mind that in turn contributes to a healthy person and a healthy society that is of the quality Jesus contributes to the Kingdom of God.

If you do not know the joy that comes from service in God's Kingdom, then seek him, for Jesus tells us that if we seek Him we will find Him if we seek with all our heart. Try the principles of service taught by our Lord. When you do you will find that life of real joy and blessing which comes from God to all who serve him, and you will find that being a Christian brings to you a quality of life that is not only worth living now but that is worth living eternally.

CAPITOL COMMENT

Charles "Mac" Mathias
Congressman, 8th District, Maryland

This is the hurricane season, and a big storm is now kicking up with its center just 90 miles off the shores of our eastern Florida coast. A crisis in Cuba exists today, a crisis that grows more ominous by the hour.

Our nation, our continent, indeed our western hemisphere, has long been a dynamic amalgam of people and nations dedicated to the dignity and well-being of the individual. This hemispheric solidarity was rudely shaken two years ago when the alien and tyrannical regime of Fidel Castro first professed allegiance to Communist ideology.

The time has passed when we may merely stand and shake our heads over the course of events in Cuba. The threat that Castro Communism now poses to this nation and to the entire hemisphere has become a menacing reality no longer possible to ignore.

While we ponder our future policy with regard to the Castro regime, Russian rockets and a vast supply of military equipment are daily pouring into Cuba. With them come thousands of so-called Russian technicians. Whether you consider these men "troops", as my colleague in the Congress, Senator Keating of New York, has stated, or "technicians", as the Administration prefers, these Russian arrivals are military personnel in every sense of the word.

I think it is time for the American people to know just what the State Department has in mind with respect to the Communist regime in Cuba. Do we have a policy to counter Communist entrenchment there?

The Administration gives a muffled reassurance to the American people that no troops are arriving in Cuba, that Cuba will never be permitted to use her new armaments offensively. This can be dangerous rhetoric and fails to alert the nation to the unhappy course of events taking place so very near home.

As Castro's fortifications are solidified, his prestige mounts to new heights and Cuban opposition to his regime becomes increasingly difficult. As his ideology is strengthened, aggression replaces threat. Two years ago no Cuban plane would have dared attack a United States aircraft. Yet last week this very aggression took place. The reaction of our government was a vague admonition of possible retaliation should the attack be repeated.

Our policy must be crystallized and then articulated in clear, unambiguous language for the benefit of our friends as well as notice to our adversaries. Our policy must anticipate the flow of events rather than merely react after the fact.

The government has a solemn responsibility to inform this nation, within the bounds of reasonable security provisions, of the mounting menace in Cuba. The President must give notice to Castro and indeed to the whole world, friendly and hostile alike, as to the steps this nation will now take to protect its vital national interests. Such steps should include the marshalling of support from our NATO allies to halt the flow of strategic goods on NATO vessels to Castro forces. We must seek unity of voice in this hemisphere and collective restraint against the shipment of war materials and military personnel into Cuba and from Cuba to other parts of Latin America.

Address UnknownNo. 5176 Equity In The Circuit
Court For Garrett County, Maryland

Order of Publication

The object of this suit is to obtain a Decree for a divorce A Vinculo Matrimonii by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The Bill states:

"That on the 7th day of June, 1931, she was married to Woodrow Wilson Harvey at Keyser, Mineral County, West Virginia, with whom she resided until the month of December, 1942, at which time the said defendant deserted the said plaintiff; that although the conduct of your oratrix towards her said husband has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Woodrow Wilson Harvey, without just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterrupted for more than eighteen months, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that four children were born of said marriage, that your oratrix is a resident of Garrett County, Maryland, and has resided therein for more than one year prior to the institution of this suit, and that the defendant has not been seen or heard of since September, 1944.

It is thereupon ordered this 14th day of September, 1962, by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiff by having a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 12th day of October, 1962, giving notice to the said absent defendant, Woodrow Wilson Harvey, of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint and warning him to be and appear in this Court either in person or by solicitor on or before the 27th day of October, 1962, to show cause, if any he may have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Address UnknownNo. 5163 Equity In The Circuit
Court For Garrett County, Maryland

Order of Publication

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce A MENSA ET THORO by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The bill recites that the marriage of the parties was performed on the 3rd day of September, 1955, at Duncan, Oklahoma, by a duly ordained minister of the Gospel; that the plaintiff has been a resident of Garrett County, Maryland, for more than one year prior to the institution of these proceedings; that the defendant's whereabouts is unknown; that two children were born of said marriage, to-wit: Deborah Jane Ladd, and Caryl Diane Ladd; that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with great cruelty and abused her with threats to the extent that finally, in fear of her health and safety, she was compelled to leave their matrimonial domicile and seek refuge in the home of her parents; that the said constructive desertion occurred on or about July 3th, 1962, and the said separation is deliberate and final and beyond reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

It is thereupon this 7th day of September, 1962, by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, in Equity, ORDERED that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 5th day of October, 1962, giving notice to the said absent defendant, Bernard Ladd, of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, and warning him to be and appear in this Court, either in person or by a solicitor, on or before the 20th day of October, 1962, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Miss Pattison Bride Of Jerry T. Mills

Kathryn Louise (Kitty) Pattison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll Pattison, Bloomington, became the bride of Jerry Thomas Mills, son of Mr. James Mills, Westernport, and Mrs. Rosa Mills, Bloomington, on August 26.

Rev. Clarence Winkler performed the ceremony before the altar of the Bloomington Methodist church, which was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and tiny pompons and palms.

The organist, Mrs. Pearl L. Pattison, accompanied the vocalist, Doris Jean Warnick, to "O Perfect Love" and "O Promise Me".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of imported lace with long pointed sleeves and scoop neckline with tiny seed pearls. The back of her skirt was decorated with rows of net and lace ruffles. Her headpiece was a tiara of crystals and small rhinestones with a full fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a white Bible covered with a bouquet of white carnations. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Attending the bride was Kathryn Ann Green, Westernport, maid of honor.

The bridegroom was assisted by James Lawson Mills, brother of the groom, as best man. Ushers were Charles Wilson Pattison and George Carroll Pattison, Jr., brothers of the bride.

Assisting at the reception in the Bloomington Fire hall were Mrs. Mildred Moorehead, who served cake, and Mrs. Mildred Beaver and Linda Douglas, who presided at the punch bowl.

The wedding table was decorated with white streamers, white wedding bells and vases of white and pink roses.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Bruce High school in 1962 and 1955 respectively. Mr. Mills is employed by the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company. They are making their home in Bloomington.

Bar Group Holds Memorial Service For Judge Fraley

Five Judges Also Participate In Proceedings Monday In Court Room

A memorial service for the late Associate Judge Ned C. Fraley was held Monday morning in the Court House, with members of the Garrett County Bar association and five judges of the Fourth Judicial circuit participating.

On the bench were Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris, Cumberland, and Associate Judges W. Earle Cobey, Cumberland; D. Kenneth McLaughlin, Hagerstown; and Stuart F. Hamill, Oakland, while former Chief Judge George Henderson was in the audience.

The service was held prior to the regular opening of the September Term criminal trials. It was in charge of the Garrett County Bar association and Jack Toney, president, read a resolution drafted by the association ordering it spread upon the records of the Circuit Court and a copy sent to members of his family. A motion for its adoption was made by S. R. Pagenhardt and seconded by Fred A. Thayer.

E. Ray Jones, dean of the Garrett County bar, made appropriate remarks about the fitness of the deceased for the position he held and reminisced concerning the make-up of the bar when he became a member in 1913. As the oldest member of the local bar Mr. Jones said this gave him some right to look back to the court at that time. Judges Boyd Henderson and Kady were on the circuit then with E. Z. Tower as clerk of the court.

At that time there were 13 members in active practice with Gilmer S. Hamill as dean, G. Semmes Hamill, S. F. Hamill, Sr., Roy Hammond, George Legge, A. T. Matthews, John T. Mitchell, W. R. Offutt, J. C. Reuninger, Edward H. Sineell, Norval Speelman, and F. A. Thayer. There are ten attorneys at present including Judge Hamill.

A constitutional amendment was approved in 1955, assuring Garrett county a judge for the first time and the late Judge Fraley was appointed to that position by former Governor Theodore R. McKeldin and later elected to a fifteen-year term.

Mr. Fraley had been in active practice of law since his admission to the bar in 1932. He served in the Maryland State Senate, filling the seat of Judge Fraley.

Car-Truck Crash Fatal To Former Local Resident

Wesley H. Rudisill Dies Following Accident On Third Street

A 79 year old former resident, who had lived for many years in Hagerstown, N. C., was killed early Friday morning September 21, when the automobile in which he was a passenger ran into a parked pickup truck on Third street in Oakland.

He was Wesley Haven Rudisill, who was being taken by his wife to the Garrett County Memorial hospital after he had become ill earlier in the morning while visiting a sister, Miss Ruth Rudisill, of Mt. Lake Park.

His wife Mrs. Elsie (Rand) Rudisill was hospitalized. Police said Mrs. Rudisill, traveling north on Third street, failed to straighten out the car after passing another northbound vehicle and crashed into a parked truck owned by Paul A. Calhoun, Mt. Lake Park. The accident occurred in front of the Kismet barber shop.

The Donald Tucker of the State Police, who investigated, said it was foggy at the time, which he placed at 7:45 a. m.

Airport Dedication Set For Saturday

The date for the official dedication of the new Garrett County airport near McHenry, was set this week by the State Aviation Commission and the Federal Aeronautics administration, in cooperation with the County Commissioners.

The event will take place on Saturday, September 29, at 2 o'clock p. m., DST.

The airport is located near McHenry, 14 miles northeast of Oakland, and is practically in the center of the county. The general public is invited to attend the ceremonies in addition to members of the Development corporation, the Board of Directors of the hospital, the mayors of incorporated towns, the state legislators and other dignitaries.

Carl A. Schell, president of the County Commissioners, said that Governor Tawes was planning to attend and that Charles M. White, Cleveland, also would be there. It was Mr. White, chairman of the Board of Republic Steel, who gave the ground originally to the Garrett County Memorial hospital.

Rudolf Drennen, director of the State Aviation agency, also was planning to attend along with representatives from the Federal Aeronautics agency. Schell said that all aircraft owners and pilots were being invited.

The Federal government completed an audit of accounts last week and approval for its opening was received by the County Commissioners who hold title to the grounds.

This is the second time that the dedication date was set. The original date was May 13 but was called off on account of weather conditions. Since that time an administration building has been constructed on the property.

Mr. Schell said the commissioners were planning to lease the airport operation to an individual. Airplanes have been using the strip for the past several weeks but thus far there are no facilities for refueling or for any repairs. The official location is latitude 39 degrees 35 minutes, longitude 79 degrees 20 minutes. There is a 2500-foot hard surfaced runway there.

The airport was constructed by the George F. Hazelwood company, Cumberland. The bid was $285,000 in its original form. The cost of construction was borne by the Federal and State governments, and a portion of the county's cost was in the ground provided. However the county commissioners levied $57,000 last January to take care of some of the cost. Work on the airport began July, 1961.

Frostburg Told Not To Plan City Dump On Disputed Land

The County Commissioners this week advised the City of Frostburg not to proceed with plans for a city dump located on property which is in dispute between Allegany and Garrett counties.

The Garrett county Board of Assessments has recently located markers which indicate that the property actually lies in this county, although residents of the area have been paying taxes to Allegany county.

Last week, a group of citizens living on the east slope of Big Savage mountain met with the commissioners of the two counties to oppose the location of the dump which would be near their homes. In a statement to Frostburg officials, the Commissioners stated "Acting as a local Board of Health, you are hereby requested to stop operation, and consequently no further action should be taken by you until these applications are cleared."

Located at Midlothian, the old Frostburg dump was abandoned after persons living nearby complained of rat nuisances and of fires.

The officials then came to an agreement with the Borden Mining company to acquire land for a new city dump, and it was then that the matter of jurisdiction came up.

The old markers which have recently been uncovered are part of the Bauer line, a survey between the two counties made in 1898. Assessing officials said the find should add a considerable amount of property to the Garrett county tax books which formerly had been carried by Allegany county.

County P-TA Council Opens Fall Meetings

The first fall meeting of the Garrett County Council of Parents and Teachers was held last Friday night in the Friendsville elementary school. Clinton W. Englander, president, announced the appointment of committee chairmen.

Progress reports were given by various chairmen and a skit was presented entitled "The Community That Cares," which demonstrated how parents may help their children through P-T-A. participation.

Taking part in the skit were Mrs. Wayne Friend, of the Northern Hill P-T-A; Mrs. William Slagle, Friendsville; Mrs. Kenneth Lawton, Southern; Nordeck Shaffer, Dennett Road; Kenneth Johns, Southern; Mrs. Alvin Friend, Accident; David Full, Center Street; Thomas Browning, also of Center Street.

Mr. Englander pointed out that the County Council, in addition to conducting a model meeting using experienced P-T-A. members from the entire county, has county chairmen who offer direction and assistance to each local organization.

The chairmen are those who make it possible for the P-T-A. to achieve its goal of service to the school, community and children," he said, and urged local groups to call on them for assistance as needed.

The next meeting will be on November 16 at the Bloomington school.

Fall Ushered In With Two Killing Frosts

The fall season was ushered in last week-end with two killing frosts. The thermometer dipped to 29 degrees last Friday morning and repeated the performance also on Saturday morning, killing most of the flowers and garden vegetables that were not well covered.

The two killing frosts came later than normal and most persons already had gathered in most of their produce.

The weather for the week has been mostly rainy and cloudy with cooling temperatures.

County Will Return To Standard Time

Garrett County's incorporated towns will return to standard time on Sunday morning, September 30, at 2 o'clock. The county officially will make no move, since it made no official move this spring. However, hours of business in various county offices corresponded to daylight time. They will return to standard time Sunday morning.

This will not end the confusion completely since some eastern states are remaining on daylight time until the last Sunday in October. As a result of this at least two state agencies in this county will operate on daylight time. They are the Department of Employment Security and the State Roads commission office.

School will return to standard time on Monday morning, October 1, despite the inconvenience of some students catching Allegany county buses for transportation to Allegany county schools.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad has received no word about a fall schedule, so presumably the passenger trains will remain on the same time during October.

The present schedule includes:

Eastbound: No. 2, 3:19 a. m.; No. 30, 8:18 a. m.; No. 12, 5:30 p. m.

Westbound: No. 23, 3:26 a. m.; No. 11, 12:48 p. m.; No. 1, 10:47 p. m.

New Features Listed For Folk Festival

New features are listed for the fifth annual Springs Homecoming and Folk Festival, to be held Friday and Saturday, October 5 and 6, at Springs, Pa. It was announced this week by Dr. Alta Schroek, chairman of the committee.

The event is sponsored jointly by the Springs Historical society and Penn Alps, Inc., and is being held while the autumn glory scenes are at their height.

The pioneer kitchen again will be in operation with offerings like chow chow, homemade bread, apple smit, corn drying and complete spinning and weaving demonstrations.

A large program tent is being set up on the grounds where there will be instrumental and vocal folk activities. Dr. Patrick Gainer, from West Virginia university, famed in folk lore, will be on hand to play the dulcimer and to lead in group singing.

Pottery will be made on wheels, there will be a number of wood carvers, there will be a shaving horse, the making of axe handles, brooms, shingles, the hollowing out of sugar troughs, dressing beams, rail splitting, grain flailing. A two-horse tread power machine will be in operation.

There will be a large craft demonstration tent with many old time and more recent crafts being made on the spot. There will also be a larger Penn Alps craft store.

Persons will demonstrate the old time method of making Spitz in open kettle and there will be apple butter boiling and cider making. The traditional Dutch dinner will be served each day from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m., at the community center.

Since Pennsylvania communities are remaining on daylight time the activities in the festival will be held accordingly.

Three tours are being planned, one to Maryland, one to the maple valleys of Somerset county, and one to Mt. Davis, with historic points of interest. The tours will be staffed with qualified hosts and hostesses.

Ninety-Two Register On Final Day

Ninety-two persons registered Monday with the Board of Supervisors of Elections, the final day for doing so before the November election.

Miss Julia Rowan, chief registrar, said the work of placing the names of new voters in the registration books should be completed this week and following this a complete listing of registered voters by districts and precincts would be compiled.

Time To Prepare Defense Granted In Liquor Cases

Will Probably Be Tried Next Week; Other Cases Disposed Of

The September Petit jury was called into session Monday, but was released temporarily by Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamill without hearing a single case. All of the cases requiring a jury were postponed, probably until next week, after attorneys requested more time to prepare their defense arguments.

Harold Denzil DeWitt, who was indicted on two counts of forgery and one of false pretense, was tried before the court without a jury. He pleaded guilty to one count of forgery and the other two indictments were dismissed. Judge Hamill ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

The postponed cases involve six county establishments which were indicted on various charges involving violations of the beer and liquor laws.

Horace P. Whitworth, Jr., of Westport, representing Robert D. Kemp, asked for additional time for preparation of his case and this was granted. Kemp, who operates a tavern at Deer Park, was charged with possession and sale of alcoholic beverages in violation of his Class D beer license.

Operators of the other five establishments were represented by Jack Turney and S. R. Pagenhardt, who made the same request for more time in each case.

Their clients were Bruce Smouse, Sundek Tavern, after hour and Sunday sale of beer; Gorman Lee Thayer, Sky High Tavern, named in three indictments, two charging after hours sale of beer and the third a Sunday sale; Leo Friend, of Stone Tavern, indicted for selling beer after hours and on Sunday; Richard and Franklin Perando, Mapleview Tavern, charged with selling beer after hours.

Four persons were named in an indictment involving Deep Creek Lodge, which was charged with after hours sales in the early morning of August 18. They are William Baum, Robert F. Thomas, Hallie E. Price and Edwin W. Price.

In granting the postponement, Judge Hamill pointed out that the attorneys were entitled to a reasonable time for preparation. He emphasized, however, that the cases would be brought to trial and not carried over.

Memorial Fund Being Established For Late Henry W. McComas

The Medical and Dental staff of the Garrett County Memorial hospital, desiring to recognize the services of the late Henry McComas during his term as administrator, has announced it was establishing a Memorial fund in his memory.

It will be known as the Henry W. McComas Memorial Fund, and each staff member has pledged a sum to constitute the nucleus of the fund, and it was stated it was the sincere hope of the staff that the many friends of the hospital and the late Mr. McComas would contribute to the fund in order that a fitting memorial be established.

The Fund envisaged by the staff would be for whatever publications or equipment which the staff might deem worthwhile for the advancement of the scientific and healing functions of the staff and the hospital.

The staff was hoping that the move would express to his wife and family the debt of gratitude and appreciation for the "unselfish and faithful services rendered by Mr. McComas to the hospital and to the county citizens."

Dr. E. I. Baumgartner, chairman of the committee, pointed out that because of Mr. McComas' sense of fairness and good judgment there existed a very cordial and trusting relationship between the staff and the late administrator. Much of this developed from his attempts to make the Institution a more pleasant and well equipped place for the staff to carry on its professional activities. The group felt there would be no better way to recognize this than by the establishment of a Memorial.

Dr. Baumgartner said the staff would greatly miss Mr. McComas' cooperation and round advice as well as his courtesy and modesty.

Action on the memorial was taken at the last meeting of the Board of Directors. Last week.

Four Generations Present

The accompanying picture represents four generations, descendants of one of the county's Civil War heroes who fought in the battle of Antietam. The centennial anniversary of this event was just celebrated last week.

The photo was taken on the eighty-seventh birthday of its eldest member, who is the widow of Andrew Jackson Wilson. The home is on the county road between Steyer and White church. Mrs. Wilson has been bedfast for the past six months.

Information for this article was supplied by Mrs. Bess Norton Lohr, of Gorman. Mrs. Lohr called on Mrs. Wilson on the hundredth anniversary of the bloody battle of Antietam near Sharpsburg and discovered she was a descendant of one who fought there in order to save the union.

As she was to be eighty-seven within the week, Mrs. Norton made a return visit. At that time she was sitting up and Mrs. Norton learned a number of facts about her and her father, Capt. James William White, also a Civil War soldier.

Captain James William White, born January 27, 1838, died October 14, 1922. He was descended from the early White family headed by Henry who came to Allegany county from New Jersey. He was of German descent. A son Joseph married Sarah Lower, daughter of Henry Lower and Winifred Ashby Lower. Whether Capt. James White was descended from Joseph and Sarah or from some other brother is not certain. Another White identified was his father, Bushrod White, a twin of James. They were born October 24, 1807. Bushrod married Annie Moon. In addition to being parents of James William White there were at least two other children, Ella and Emma. James William White was married three times, first to Emily Jane Harvey, with two children, Florence and N. Bell. Florence married a Fitzwater and Bell went to California and had a son Harvey. Capt. married also Lucinda Jane Harvey, daughter of Noah and Sarah Wilson Harvey, with eight children, five of whom died before adulthood. The fourth child was the person visited last week who was born September 21, 1874. She had two daughters, one deceased and the other one now caring for her.

The latter, Leona Gertrude Wilson, married Francis M. Propst, deceased. They had one daughter, Mary and G. Propst who married Lester Loughry, an electrician. They have three daughters, two of whom are at home. The grandchildren are Glenna Lake, 20, who is employed by U. S. army security service; Millie Leigh, 11, sixth grade student at Loch Lynn Elementary; and Vonda June, 6, first grade.

Mrs. Lohr said that Mrs. Wilson sees well with glasses, hears excellently and has a keen sense of humor. At the birthday celebration Mrs. Wilson also was presented with a birthday basket of fruit, gifts and cards by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Foley and ladies from Gorman and vicinity, a birthday cake baked and presented by her granddaughter, Mrs. Lester Loughry.

Others calling on her were Mrs. Lester Steyer, Floyd Foley and son Dwight.

Students Take Test

Iowa Tests of Educational Development are being given to all students in grades nine through twelve. These tests, administered by Mr. Malone, are distributed by Science Research Associates, Inc. of Chicago, Illinois. They are intended to measure the educational development of any grade level. Involved also in the scores is a measurement of what each student has learned during his entire educational career, including the knowledge and skills he has accumulated from all his in-school and out-of-school activities.

The recently revised ITED will provide a basis for evaluation of the present educational program. Areas where students and groups have special curricular needs will be pinpointed, as will the individual students who have these needs.

From the test scores the teachers may gain a more complete understanding of differences between and within students. The brightest students will be identified and their potential measured. Information will thus be provided for guidance and counseling, curricular and instructional improvement. The tests themselves cover each student's knowledge of basic social concepts; his ability to interpret reading materials in social studies, natural sciences, and literary materials; his background in general vocabulary and the use of informational sources.

Upon completion, the tests will be returned to SRA, where they will be scored by UNIVAC. Within a week to two weeks, the results of the tests will be brought back to Northern High by an SRA Company representative, who will interpret the scores to faculty members.

Peters Fuel Corporation

Announces Another Dramatic First:

Guaranteed Price Protection

For many years it has been the practice of some folks in the oil business to artificially depress prices for a month or so in late summer to secure new accounts. When winter arrived prices are posted high enough to more than make up for such "catch prices." This has not been our policy. We have undertaken to assure folks who deal with us regularly that prices will not go up when need increases. The loyalty of our customers is an eloquent affirmation that we are on the right track. We are now going to incorporate this established policy into a guarantee: Home heating accounts purchasing as much as 500 gallons of No. 2 heating oil from us will be guaranteed a PROTECTED PRICE OF 15.5 cents per gallon for the entire season.

We emphasize quality products, quality service and give this protected price guarantee to demonstrate that it actually saves to deal with PETERS FUEL CORPORATION.

BEDTIME STORY

Ned always takes the children up to bed at night—it's something he wouldn't miss. What amazes our friends is the fact that they always go smilingly. No fuss, no tears.

That's Ned's doing. He has made bedtime something very special for our youngsters. After he has tucked them in, he sits down and tells them a story, sometimes pure make-believe, but often, Ned takes his bedtime stories from the Bible.

At Christmas, he tells them the story of the Little Jesus. At Easter, he points out the beauty of Spring, and speaks of the wonders of hope and faith. He keeps the stories very simple . . . and they feel as if they had rediscovered the old Church School this past year, old friends, so familiar were the names and places.

Some people feel that religion is too "deep" for small children. Ned and I don't. To us, learning about our Faith is a vital part of life. We would hate to have missed it ourselves . . . and we've no intention of having our children miss it. That's why, each Sunday, you'll be seeing us in Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Herald of Hope

Lesson for September 30, 1962

HE WAS a strange man, John the Baptist. Strange in many ways. His birth was a miracle, and yet in all his life he never performed one single miracle and never tried to. He came into this world by a miracle, and yet when he died with his head chopped off, no miracle was there to save him. He knew more about Jesus than Jesus' own brothers did; and yet he doubted Jesus in a public sort of way such as his brothers never showed. Jesus called him the greatest of men up to his time; yet the world, even the Christian world, pays more honor to many another ancient figure than to John.

In the Desert

People who dress in camel's hair clothes and eat locusts and wild honey as a regular diet are not common nowadays and they were not in John's day either. A man eccentric as he would not get many to listen to him nowadays; but John had a tremendous audience. The road from Jerusalem to Jericho was—and still is—a steep winding highway, infested with bandits; yet crowds would walk the fifteen miles or so from the city to where they could hear John preach and be baptized by him. No evangelist in America would set up his tent 15 miles from the nearest sizable town, but John did, and the people came. His sermons all could be boiled down to two sentences: Repent! He is coming! Considering everything, especially considering the fact that some people thought he must be Christ himself, John must have been a very remarkable character. He did not fit any pattern, then or now. His long stay in the wilderness, beginning when he was a boy (for no doubt his aged parents did not live till he grew up), made its mark on him. This was good and had its drawbacks.

Rush Chapel Baptist, Rev. Benj. Nevins, pastor. Friendsville Sunday School, 10 a. m.; Preaching, 11 a. m.; 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month.

Oak Grove Church of the Brethren, near McHenry. Donald Matthews, pastor. Sunday School, 10 a. m.; Worship, 7:30 p. m.

Rosedale United Pentecostal, Rev. R. J. Riffe, pastor. Sunday School, 10 a. m.; Evangelistic Service, 7:30 p. m.; Bible study, Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.; Young People's Service, Friday, 7:30 p. m.

too. A desert child, John would not be tied to the conventional, the customary. He had few if any human ties. He could look at the world, so to speak, from the sidelines, he had a fully detached view of life. On the other hand, because he lived all alone, he did not have the "common touch" that Jesus had. Unlike Jesus, John had nothing to say to the sorrowing and suffering of the world. Where Jesus saw the multitudes as sheep without a shepherd, John spoke of them as a "brood of vipers"—snakes' babies, to put it in plain English.

In Hope

Yet the people, no matter what John might call them, however fierce his denunciation of them as sinners—the people swarmed to hear him. The reader can think of reasons . . . and by the way, any one who is interested in John's story should read all the Bible material, not the few printed verses. One of the reasons, surely, why John was so popular in spite (you might say) of all his efforts not to be, was that he preached just what the people wanted to hear about the future. The people who came to hear him and stayed to be baptized were poor, they were under the crushing heel of a long-staying occupation army.

In Confusion

Jesus indeed came, though as we saw, at first only John knew who he truly was. But he was not the kind of "Messiah" or God's Man John had expected. We know that a year or two later, when John was near his death in a dungeon, he, the preacher of hope, began to have doubts. He even sent to Jesus to ask if he, John, could be mistaken. We do not know whether what Jesus said to him by his messengers comforted him, but we may believe it did, for Jesus always knew the right thing to say. So we may feel sure that hope returned to him in the end. (Read about it in Luke chap. 7.) John is not the first or the last herald of hope who has been right about the hope, but wrong about how the hope comes true. John had thought the Messiah would be an Avenger, a Destroyer; Jesus came a man of peace. John looked for something spectacular; Jesus showed him miracles, but the kind he looked for. God has his own ways in his world, and we cannot dictate how he shall manage it. But we may be sure, as John learned, that "Jesus doeth all things well."

Order of Publication

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce A MENSA ET THORO by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The bill recites that the marriage of the parties was performed on the 3rd day of September, 1955, at Duncan, Oklahoma, by a duly ordained minister of the Gospel; that the plaintiff has been a resident of Garrett County, Maryland, for more than one year prior to the institution of these proceedings; that the defendant's whereabouts is unknown; that two children were born of said marriage, to-wit: Deborah Jane Ladd, and Caryl Diane Ladd; that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with great cruelty and abused her with threats to the extent that finally, in fear of her health and safety, she was compelled to leave their matrimonial domicile and seek refuge in the home of her parents; that the said constructive desertion occurred on or about July 5th, 1962, and the said separation is deliberate and final and beyond reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

It is thereupon ordered this 7th day of September, 1962, by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, in Equity, ORDERED that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 5th day of October, 1962, giving notice to the said absent defendant, Bernard Ladd, of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, and warning him to be and appear in this Court, either in person or by a solicitor, on or before the 20th day of October, 1962, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Seven touchdowns Friday night buried Southern High school's gridgers 45-7 in a game played at Beall High school in Frostburg. More than 1,300 spectators saw Beall roll to its third straight victory of the season while holding Southern to one touchdown.

After being scoreless in the opening period, the Frostburgers broke loose for two touchdowns in the second period, two in the third and three in the final stanza.

Southern scored in the first period when Jon Thayer ran over from the four yard line and also plunged the point to give the local players a score of 7-0 lead.

In the second period Ralph Spriggs scored for Beall on a 76 yard run and Carl Smith scooted 37 yards after which Jim Brady ran the point to give the Mountaineers a 13-7 advantage.

Wayne Harper tallied from the eight and Spriggs galloped 91 yards for the Beall six pointers in the third period.

Willie Lynn, sophomore, set up the fifth score in the third period with a 42 yard sprint to the three and carried the ball over on the next play. Freshman John Chaney kicked the point to make it 32-7.

In the final period, Morey Lynn returned a punt 80 yards for a score and Tom Hesselbaugh made the final touchdown on an 18 yard run.

Terra Alta Bows To Northern, 14-6

Third period scoring Friday night accounted for a 14-6 victory for Northern High school over Terra Alta in a football game played at the West Virginia school.

Leon Brode tallied first for Northern on a 35 yard run, and the Huskies picked up their other touchdown on a two yard plunge by Kenny Younk. Terra Alta's lone score came on an eight yard pass from Anderson to Schrock.

The Huskies are now 2-1 for the season and will furnish the opposition for Kingwood tonight in the "Buckheat Bowl" at Kingwood.

Score by periods:
Northern..... 0 0 14 0-14
Terra Alta..... 0 0 6 0-6

Touchdowns: Northern, Brode (35 yard run); Younk (2 yard run); Terra Alta, Schrock (8 yard pass from Anderson.)

Points after touchdown: Northern, Brode (run); Buckel (pass from Giotfelty).

Mt. Storm Wins Town And Country League Play-Offs

The playoff championship of the Town and Country Southall league was wrapped up Sunday by Mt. Storm, who took the second game of a doubleheader from Loch Lynn by the score of 3-0.

In the first game, Loch Lynn was the victor, 7-2. A win in the first game for Mt. Storm would have ended the series right there, but the pitching of Odell Warnick necessitated the second contest. Oakland won the league's regular season championship, but was ousted by Loch Lynn in the playoff semi-finals.

Rich Smith, who without question is the Tri-State's busiest softball pitcher, hurled both ends of Sunday's doubleheader. By losing the first game he had his league win streak snapped at 17 games.

Smith, who hurled in several other area circuits, wound up the Town and Country season with an over all 24-6 mark. Two of his losses were to Loch Lynn and the other four to Oakland, to whom he dropped a pair of doubleheaders. He won 11 twin bills this season.

Loch Lynn, after winning the first game Sunday on a three-run outburst in the fifth inning, took a 2-1 lead in the nightcap. Mt. Storm's Bill Kopfle tied it in the fifth with a bases empty homer, then catcher "Peg" Clark clouted a two run blast in the following inning. A three-run seventh clinched the victory.

CAPITOL COMMENT

by Charles "Mac" Mathias
Congressman, 8th District, Maryland

House Takes Firm Stand On Cuba

The closing weeks of the 87th Congress have seen the House of Representatives preoccupied with foreign affairs. In this the House reflects the attitude of the American people. Communist Cuba has become a matter of grave concern to me as well as to every member of Congress.

During the last week, the House of Representatives has acted on two occasions to deal directly with the threat posed by Communist Cuba. In the first instance, the House, by a very large majority, passed a resolution giving the President greater flexibility to deal with the situation. He has been authorized to call up reserves and to extend enlistments of certain critical armed services personnel who might otherwise be discharged during the next several months.

I voted for this resolution despite the fact that in my opinion the President was already vested with ample power to deal with any crisis or emergency that might arise during a recess of the Congress or after adjournment. I, for one, felt it would be unwise to deny the President the advantage of Congressional approval of his request for authorization to activate up to 150,000 reservists. He must be in a position to make the fullest possible use of our manpower resources in protecting our national interests. I believe the President will not have to use this power—I hope that he will not—but I stand willing to support such action and more if it is necessary for national defense.

One distinct advantage of the resolution will be appreciated by reservists. Anyone who served in the previous call, whether as a member of a unit or as an individual, will not be subject to possible recall under this resolution. Short of a full emergency, it would be unfair to reactivate reservists who have only recently been released from duty.

Following passage of the resolution authorizing call-up of reserves, the House debated a resolution expressing the determination of the United States with respect to the situation in Cuba. In its essence, the resolution restates the salient features of the Monroe Doctrine which was promulgated by President James Monroe in 1823 and which has been a guiding force of our foreign policy since that date. The House of Representatives resolved that the United States is determined to use whatever means may be necessary to prevent the Marxist-Leninist regime in Cuba from extending its aggressive or subversive activities to any part of the hemisphere and to prevent the creation or use of an externally supported military capability in Cuba which would endanger the security of the United States.

I voted for the resolution without amendment. During debate an attempt was made to amend the wording of the resolution although the change would not have altered the sense of it to any material degree. I voted against the amendment of the language in the belief that it was important for America to speak with unity of voice rather than choose one set of words over another. In doing this, I voted with the Foreign Affairs Committee and with such distinguished members of that committee as Dr. Walter Judd of Minnesota and Peter Frelinghuysen of New Jersey to retain the language approved by the committee.

I believe it will be helpful to have this expression of the firmness and conviction of the American people. It must be understood by all that we will not permit the peace of this hemisphere to be disrupted by any alien regime in Cuba. Nor will we permit the export of any alien system from that island.

A meeting of members of the Garrett County Civil Defense staff was conducted at the Court House on last Wednesday evening, September 26.

The meeting was called by Lieut. Col. E. B. O'Keefe, area coordinator of the Maryland Civil Defense agency to advise staff members what was expected of them during the fiscal year, July 1, 1962, to June 30, 1963. Mr. O'Keefe explained the program.

Daniel P. Smouse, county director, read the names of staff members and the position held, which was followed by a round table discussion of problems. Dr. Arthur Jones at that time told of his progress in endeavoring to obtain a 200-bed emergency hospital unit for the county.

Man Is Hospitalized

Forney William Clutter, 19, of Terra Alta, was hospitalized in the University medical center in Morgantown following a one-car accident on the Herrington Manor road just west of town about 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

The man struck a bridge abutment, then veered and snapped off an electric pole and then overturned. Tfc. Donald E. Tucker investigated.

The man was given emergency treatment at the Garrett County Memorial hospital and then taken to Morgantown.

The accident happened just across the highway from the home of Lonnie Kitzmiller.

Dr. B. F. Selby was taken in the Leighton ambulance to Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, for tests and observation.

The Rev. Luther Seibert, Pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Red House, Md.

Autumn Glory is God's Glory. It is very thrilling to see the colorful beauty of the forest during these autumn weeks. The Creator Father God shows us the perfect blending of many shades of reds, yellows, greens, and browns. No paint company or artist can capture the true perfection of this color and blending, no matter how hard they try.

And yet, in spite of this perfect beauty, who is given credit for its being and existence? We hear such fictitious characters as Jack Frost or Mother Nature given more often than not. Otherwise it becomes some scientific explanation, such as seasonal change, severe temperature change affecting the coloring matter called chlorophyll.

For those Christians who know God the Father as Creator, both the fictitious and scientific explanation are not complete, however. Isaiah asks, "Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?" Isaiah 40:12.

Then the question becomes, why did God do this? Was His purpose for Autumn Glory merely to make man blink his eyes and gape in amazement? Did God only want to hear the oohs and ahs of the crowds as they stared at His beautiful landscape? If our God were only a God of nature and fertility, such as Baal of the Old Testament Canaanites, the answer would be Yes. Because He is God the Father, the answer must be No!

Isaiah tells us the real purpose for all of nature's Glory. "I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive. I will set in the desert the cypress, the plane and the pine together, that men may see and know, may consider and understand together, THAT THE HAND OF THE LORD HAS DONE THIS, the Holy One of Israel has created it." Isaiah 41:18-20.

God's purpose for this Autumn is not entertainment but Holy Revelation, revealing Himself to us. Sometimes it is said that we cannot see the forest because of the trees. Sometimes some people cannot see God and His Creation and Salvation, even though they can see the trees in all their glory.

Autumn Glory is very brief, for soon the beautiful leaves fall to the ground. Man's life is also brief and he also falls into the ground. But God's Glory is permanent and stands forever. "A voice says, Cry! And I said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all its beauty is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people is grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the Word of our God will stand forever." Isaiah 40:6-8.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Nicholson flew by jet to Chicago last week. Nicholson attended the American Meat Institute representing several stores in Maryland and Virginia. Mrs. Nicholson visited the Don McNeil breakfast club. Both attended a banquet at the Palmer House.

Some 61,290 West Virginians were jobless in August, some 10.3 percent of available labor force.

Voters To Decide

employment insurance laws and the third provides stricter regulation of building and loan associations.

The referred laws and the county manager amendments are published in full in today's issue, occupying some 30 columns of space. The amendments will be published beginning next week for four weeks.

The county manager bill provides for appointment of a county business manager, contains provisions for his appointment, compensation, tenure and removal, establishing his authority and duties.

The selection was to be made solely on basis of his executive and administrative qualities. During his tenure he would reside within the county. His salary was to be determined by the County Commissioners and his appointment would be for an indefinite term, removable by a majority vote.

He would be chief executive officer and executive secretary to the County Commissioners and would be responsible to the board for proper administration of all affairs of the county. He would serve as county purchasing agent for supplies, material and equipment, and would supervise and administer the county roads department. Commissioners would retain control and regulation of public roads and bridges. Other stipulations are in the bill itself.

Three of the local candidates have no opposition. They are James E. Frantz, for sheriff; Richard L. Davis, clerk of the Circuit Court and F. R. Corliss, Jr., county surveyor. All are Republican incumbents.

For Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, Stuart F. Hamill and W. Dwight Stover are candidates. For this particular office, the ballot does not list any political affiliation. However, Hamill was successful in the Democratic primary and Stover in the Republican primary.

Maurice S. Brookhart, Democrat, is running for State Senator, opposed by Spencer W. Graham, Republican.
Three are to be elected to the House of Delegates, and six candidates will appear on the ballot. Republicans are Elza E. Bray, Martha I. Glatfely and Elwood S. Groves. Helen T. Baumgartner, Helen B. Robeson and Leslie E. Savage are the Democratic contenders.

There is competition for Register of Wills, with Vernie H. Smouse, Republican, running for re-election against Democrat Fannie Pearl Sullivan.

One County Commissioner will be elected in each of three districts. In District 1 Bernard M. Guy, a Democrat, is opposed by Allen S. Paugh, Republican. District 2, Republican Clifford Friend is running against Earl E. Opel, Democrat, and in District 3 Joseph Hinebaugh, Democrat, is opposing Harvey D. Swartzentruber, Republican.

The three Republican candidates for Judges of the Orphans' Court are Truman C. Bittinger, Ellsworth G. Moon and Roy C. Turney. Their Democratic opponents are Orval George Rush, Osborne W. Tasker and Hubert Melvin Weeks.

The only other office for which there is competition is County Treasurer. Here, Joseph H. Welch, Republican, is challenged by Delmas Dane Sanders, Democrat.

An unusual situation is the absence of any candidate for State's Attorney. W. Dwight Stover, Republican, who holds the office at present, is not seeking re-election, but is a candidate for Associate Judge.

It was explained this week that should Stover be successful in his campaign, the judges of the Fourth Judicial Circuit would appoint a successor. Should he fail to be elected, he would continue to be State's Attorney.

The Commissioners had previously announced that they planned to lease the airstrip. A lease form, drawn up by Fred A. Thayer, has been approved by the state aviation commission, but no one has as yet been named.

The Senate backed 5-cent postage and pay raise for U. S. employees.

Polio Vaccine

2:00 until 4:00 p. m. Pupils from North Glade will be transported there.

On October 22 between 1:00 and 4:00 p. m., the immunization will be given at Bloomington, Route 40, Kitzmiller and Friendsville schools. On October 23 during the same hours it will be administered at Accident, Grantsville, Oakland Elementary and Dennett Road schools, with students from St. Peter's school being taken to Oakland elementary and those from Yoder school going to Grantsville.

On October 24 also from 1:00 to 4:00 p. m., the clinics will be held at Northern and Southern High schools, and the Loch Lynn school. On October 25, at Red House and Crellin from 2:00 until 4:00 p. m., with students from Swan Meadow being taken to Red House by bus. The Type I clinics will conclude on October 26 at Deer Park school from 2:00 until 4:00 p. m.

For those who may not be able to attend the regular community clinics, three special ones have been set up for Saturday afternoon, October 27. They will be held from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. in the Grantsville and Accident schools and the Central Health department in Garrett County Memorial hospital.

Dr. Jones said the oral vaccine has been proven safe and effective, and he expressed the hope that all of those beyond the age of two months would receive the immunization. He added that the clinics were planned after the Health department budget for the year was set up, and as a result a contribution of 25 cents is being requested for each dose, although no one will be turned away whether or not they care to contribute.

Meeting In The Making

Prospects for a meeting between the Board of Education and the Citizens for Garrett County loomed as a possibility this week in an effort to thrash out grievances, concerning teacher appointments and transfers.

Robert Buckel of the Citizens' group, reported yesterday morning that at least one of the school board members had agreed to meet with the group and there was hope of an affirming word from the other two members in the near future.

The Citizens group is presently conducting a membership drive. Mr. Buckel said.

Deer Park Firemen After New Fire Truck

The Deer Park Volunteer Fire department is conducting a drive to raise funds to purchase a new fire truck. Letters soliciting donations have been mailed to persons living in or owning property within the fire protection area, according to William Clatterbuck, fire truck chairman. Clatterbuck said the drive would continue until a sizeable down payment is raised.

The truck, which is expected to cost about $17,500 will be fully equipped with all the necessary fire fighting tools. After acceptance by the National Board of Underwriters and the truck is obtained and placed in service, Clatterbuck said a worthwhile reduction in fire insurance rates was anticipated.

Fishing Contest Ends

The fishing contest conducted during the summer months by the Deep Creek Lake-Garrett County Promotion Council was concluded on Monday and members of the council now are compiling the overall winners in the eight classifications.

Mrs. Pat Kittle, executive secretary of the council, said the winners would be notified and that they would be awarded trophies.

Cub Scouts And Parents Will Meet October 9th

Cub scouts and their parents of Oakland cub pack 31 are scheduled to meet at the Oakland Elementary school on Tuesday evening, October 9th, at 7:30 o'clock.

All new and present cubs will be registered at that time for the coming year. At an organization meeting October 1, committees were selected for the year. Chester Mosser was named cubmaster and Sam Butt was named assistant. Irvin Feld was named institutional representative with Percy Thayer pack chairman; Ralph Pritts, Jr., advancement chairman, and Dr. Harold Ashby, secretary-treasurer.

Beer Cases

Judge Hamill pointed out this was the maximum fine set by law. Two other cases pending against him were dismissed by order of the state's attorney.

The case against Robert D. Kemp, charged with possession and sale of alcoholic beverages, was set for trial next Tuesday. The charge is in violation of his class D beer license.

An appeal case was tried yesterday afternoon before Judge Hamill. The case was an appeal from Magistrate Edward Crowe. Crowe had found Heyward Hutzel not guilty of trespassing on posted land.

The alleged offense occurred April 23.

Lewis R. Jones represented Hutzel and he made a motion to have the appeal dismissed on the grounds that the appeal had not been taken within the ten-day limit. Judge Hamill granted the motion, which affirmed the not guilty decision of the magistrate.

Woman Eludes Death In Automobile Wreck

A Bloomington woman narrowly escaped death yesterday morning in a one-car accident on U. S. route 220, about two miles south of Cresaptown.

However, the woman, Mrs. Kathryn Miller, wife of Carson Miller, did sustain serious injuries and was admitted to Memorial hospital in Cumberland.

Hospital attaches said the woman sustained a severe laceration of her forehead, lacerations about her face and chin, and was admitted for X-rays and observation.

The John Switzer and Cpl. Jack Browning, Maryland State police, said the accident occurred around 7:15 a. m., while traveling south on the highway.

Police said the woman who was coming off the 7 a. m. shift at the Anacostia plant, apparently fell asleep at the wheel. The four-door 1962 model sedan ran off the east side of the roadway, traveled 300 feet, snapped off a utility pole and came to rest against a barn on

Direct Payment Principle Adopted

A new way of paying farmers who divert cropland from feed grains or wheat to conservation uses was adopted by Congress in the recently passed Food and Agriculture Act of 1962. Payment-in-kind certificates will be used as part payment to farmers who divert acreage from grain production in 1963. This idea has been accepted only after being widely discussed for a number of years according to Dr. Paxton Marshall, an agricultural economist at the University of Maryland.

Payment-in-kind certificates will be received mostly, the economist thinks, by Maryland farmers who divert cropland from feed grain production to conservation uses in 1963. A few farmers may be able to receive the certificates under a special section of the farm bill that permits payments to be made for diverting acreage from 1963 crop wheat.

By diverting a minimum of 20 percent and up to a maximum of 50 percent of their corn base acreage, corn producers will be eligible for support price on their corn. The support price is the sum of the price support loan, which is set at a national average rate of $1.02 per bushel, and the payment-in-kind certificate worth 18 cents per bushel.

Payment-in-kind certificates will be issued to cooperating producers for corn produced on the acreage that is not diverted. This corn can be sold or placed under loan. In addition to the receipts from corn grown, a cooperator will receive a diversion payment, similar to that used in the feed grain program for 1962.

Cash may be obtained for the payment-in-kind certificates, or they may be used in doing business, or used to obtain grain from CCC stocks. With these alternatives available, the payment-in-kind certificate is a slightly modified form of direct payment, a way of maintaining income first offered in the early 1950's.

New support price limits were set by the bill for the 1964 crop wheat grains. The support price may vary between 50 and 90 percent of parity and must be set at a level that will not add to CCC stocks of feed grains. Under the Feed Grains Programs of 1961 and 1962 support price was about 74 percent of parity.

The bill also authorizes marketing certificates for 1964 wheat crop. Under such a program farmers will receive an average price for wheat based on the percentage going for domestic, export, and feed wheat uses. Feed wheat price will be related to the feed value of wheat relative to corn.

Named Semi-Finalist

Principal Kenneth Johns of Southern High School announced today that Julie Kuhnle, one of the 145 members of the graduating class had been named a semifinalist in the 1962-63 Merit Scholarship competition.

He said she became a semifinalist through her outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, the first step in the eighth annual merit program. This is the first time that a Southern High School student has received such a distinction.

She is among approximately 11,000 seniors throughout the country who attained Semifinalist status. Each Semifinalist now moves a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice.

The qualifying examination, a test of educational development, was given in more than 16,000 high schools last March. The Semifinalists group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state in the United States territories.

She will take another rigorous examination, the three-hour Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, to be given in testing centers throughout the country on December 1. About April 4, 1963, the names of the Merit Scholars will be announced, the exact number depending on the extent of sponsor support of the Merit Program. In 1962, NMSC and sponsors together awarded 1,050 Merit Scholarships. Each merit scholarship is a four-year award to cover the undergraduate college years. The recipient's stipend is tailored to his need.

Judie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Kuhnle. Mr. Kuhnle is an employee of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at Luke.

Richard Perando was found guilty of selling beer after hours in the Circuit Court this week but sentence will not be pronounced until Friday.

On the whiskey charge the pair posted $1,000 bond with Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney. The hearing is set for next week. Officers found the whiskey concealed behind the bar in the establishment.

Bloomington Dam Finances Given

Details on the financing of the proposed $30,585,400 Bloomington dam in the North Branch of the Potomac river were offered this week by Harry G. Schwarz, chief of the river basin branch of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The dam got a nudge forward when the House Public Works committee approved an omnibus bill which includes $50,565,000 for the construction of the Bloomington dam. It was the only Maryland project approved by the committee in Washington.

The $2 billion bill would authorize construction of 187 flood control, navigation and beach erosion projects throughout the nation.

Mr. Schwarz offered a breakdown which shows that $34,030,000 of the total cost of the Bloomington dam would be paid by the federal government and the additional $16,935,000 from non-federal sources including the states and their subdivisions.

All of the $11,289,000 flood control cost of the dam would be paid by the federal government. Federal funds also would include $16,885,800 for low flow augmentation for water quality purposes, $4,340,400 for downstream water quality and $1,713,600 for recreational purposes.

The non-federal costs as outlined by Mr. Schwarz, include $2,942,800 for immediate water supply needs, $10,499,000 for future water needs and $3,493,000 for downstream water quality.

There would be provisions for repayment of the non-federal costs over a 50-year period.

Short of the Goal

Larry is a fullback. You ought to see him finding those holes in the line . . . driving off tackle . . . slashing through the secondary. Oh, Larry has scored a dozen touchdowns!

But he can't kick an extra-point! The cross-bar is too high, the goal posts are too far away.

Just give Larry a year or two—with lots of practice. Then we'll win those close ones . . . 7-6 . . . 14-13 . . . 21-20!

Never worry about failure when its cause is being overcome. Don't lower the goal . . . keep trying. Grow stronger. You'll reach it!

That's one of the lessons of life that Larry has learned on Sundays when he goes to church with his family . . . one of many lessons that help us achieve our best every day of the week.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church

Litterers Cost 500 Million Dollars

Littering public areas is costing the American taxpayers 500 million dollars a year, according to Keep America Beautiful, the national public service organization for the prevention of littering.

Some 50 million dollars of this amount is spent for de-littering primary highways alone. Another 300 million goes for cleaning streets in urban communities.

Carrying and using a litterbag in the car or boat is the logical answer to this huge problem. A regular grocery bag, a commercially-manufactured litter container, or any suitable container in between the two extremes, will do the job if the litter is disposed of in a proper receptacle either at home or along the way. Many roadside rests, service stations and other establishments and recreation spots have well marked trash receptacles for disposal.

Area Land Judging Contest Conducted

The Flintstone Chapter, Future Farmers of America, won over Northern High and Southern High in the Regional Land Judging Contest held last Saturday near Bitterley.

John Reckner, Vocational Agriculture Instructor at Northern, who is regional chairman of the annual event, announced the results of the contest.

Mr. Reckner stated that these contests, and the training leading up to them, are useful tools in training F. F. A. students how to evaluate the quality and characteristics of different types of soil by direct examination. The contestants study the topsoil, subsoil and parent materials in several trenches cut through the soil profiles. They then rate the soil according to texture, organic content, depth, and drainage characteristics.

This year's contest, the sixth to be held in this F. F. A. Region, was on the farm of Rex Buckel.

The soil locations were selected and pits prepared by Kenneth Stone, soil scientist with the Soil Conservation Service, Paul Galbreath, extension soil conservationist from the University of Maryland, was contest judge.

Members of the winning Flintstone team are Billy Nail, Bill McCusker, Eugene Abe and Danny Mallow. They were trained by Vocational Agriculture Instructor Robert Saville and had a team score of 650 points.

Homecoming Parade To Be Largest Ever

One of the largest homecoming parades ever held by Southern High School is scheduled for downtown Oakland preceding the annual football tussle between the local gridiron team and Northern on Friday evening.

Approximately 25 units are expected. In addition to floats sponsored by various school organizations at Southern, several graduating classes have indicated a desire to participate. Miss Ann Dillard, advisor to the Student Council, which is promoting the parade, expressed delight for the excellent response. Five classes have indicated that they are going to sponsor a float. Both the senior high and junior high school bands are going to march in the parade.

The tentative line includes: Police, Student Council and Principal, Senior Band, Queen candidates, Cheerleaders, G. A. A. Senior Chorus, Science, F. T. A. Art, F. N. It is anticipated that several hundred students will come to school dressed in red and white. Climaxing the homecoming activities will be a semi-formal dance held on Saturday night. Admission to the semi-formal dance, which is being sponsored by the G. A. A.

Community Aid Is Emphasized at Meet

The two-day meeting of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River basin came to a close Friday afternoon with emphasis on the importance of local participation in water resources development.

Final speaker at Blackwater lodge was David J. Humphrey, field representative, office of Rural Areas Development, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

He explained that rural areas development is a coordinated program designed to help rural areas make better use of all available public and private facilities to promote better utilization of human and natural resources available. Emphasis is on areas where under employment prevails.

He agreed with earlier speakers and Varsity Club is $1.50 drag and 75 cents state Alumni and their guests are invited.

W. Kenneth Johns, principal will crown the 1962 king and queen about 10:00 P. M. Parents and friends are invited.

that the long-range water resources development plan for the Potomac river basin will have considerable economic impact on the area. Large impoundments are to create new artificial lakes and recreational development.

M. M. Nelson, as assistant chief, U. S. forest service, said some 79 percent of the land on North and South branches is now forested and that 79 percent would be in forest. A survey indicated there should be 51,000 acres of tree planting and 554,000 acres of timber stand improvement. 817,000 of improved fire control. 341,000 acres of rodent control and 10,000 acres of erosion control.

A spokesman for the U. S. Soil Conservation service said both branches is concentrated in areas

Kingwood Defeats Northern Huskies

Kingwood High's Stags scored in every period except the first at Kingwood last Thursday night to beat Northern High school Huskies 19 to 6 in the annual Buckwheat Bowl.

Quarterback Joe Schmidele went over from three yards out with just 30 seconds left in the second quarter after an accident punt carried out of bounds at the visitor's 10. Schmidele passed to Barry John for the extra point.

The Huskies took the second half kickoff and in six plays marched to their touchdown, with Brode scoring from five yards out. But a fumble messed up the extra point try, leaving the Stags in front 7-6.

Mike Harriman raced nine yards for Kingwood's second touchdown later in the third period and in the fourth quarter Schmidele passed 10 yards to end Mike Warnick for the third touchdown. The extra point attempts failed after both of these scores.

Kingwood now has three victories and tie. It registered 13 first downs to 8 for Northern and gained 184 yards rushing to Northern's 100. Northern completed one of six pass attempts while the Stags completed five of eight.

The game was played in rainy weather.

To The Citizens of Garrett County:

THE CAMPAIGN for Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of Maryland should be conducted on a high level, with dignity and with due regard for the ethical standards of this important office. I have conducted my campaign in that manner, and intend to continue so conducting my campaign in the future, in spite of many provocations not worthy of an answer.

I AM A NATIVE of Garrett County, where I have resided all of my life, and am the third generation of Hamill lawyers to practice in Garrett County.

I AM RUNNING for office on my record and experience, and should like to state that the records of the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court are public records, and I invite their inspection by any and all interested persons, as to both my legal experience and my judicial duties.

I HAVE GREAT RESPECT for this high office and am fully aware of its responsibilities. I am particularly interested in and deeply concerned with the juvenile work of the court, as I feel that the proper administration of justice in this area is vital to the future of our great nation.

IF YOU ELECT ME to this office, I pledge that the Circuit Court for Garrett County will be conducted with dignity and integrity to the best of my ability; but above all, with honesty.

I AM NOT OBLIGATED to or controlled by any individual or individuals, and my campaign has been conducted entirely without financial assistance from any outside source.

St. Francis Upsets Highlanders 6 to 0

St. Francis High of Morgantown scored on its initial drive after the opening kickoff, then dug in to stave off a stubborn Southern High eleven at Morgantown last Friday night to win 6-0.

It was the second victory in a row for the St. Francis team against three losses. Southern's record now stands at one victory and three losses.

The Highlanders kicked off to open the game and the Trojans moved 82 yards in 14 plays to score with Dave DeCarlo going over from the five-yard line, Darby's run for the extra point was not good.

St. Francis gained a total yardage of 143 yards compared to 149 for the Highlanders. The Trojans were penalized 55 yards, Highlanders 50. St. Francis had 10 first downs, Southern eight.

Fullback DeCarlo gained most of the yardage for the Morgantown team. He ground out 121 yards.
Penalties and heavy losses proved costly to the Trojans. The Trojan offense would lose the ball and the keyed-up line would take it back. That was the way most of the game was played.

Three times in the first half the Highlanders got within 20 yards of a touchdown but each time the St. Francis line would dig in to stop Southern's drive. Early in the first quarter Southern reached the Trojans 12-yard line but the drive faltered. Then mid-way in the second period the Highlanders reached the St. Francis 11 but again the Trojans took over on downs.

Most of the second half was played deep in Southern High territory with St. Francis controlling the ball. However the Highlanders started moving with a
game.

A Trojan fumble on the 31-yard line almost proved to be the downfall. But the hard hitting line held to take over on downs.

The big play in the only scoring drive was a 20-yard run by Darby.
In that series of plays DeCarlo carried seven times for 42 yards and the score which came with five minutes gone in the first period.

Fullback Jon Thayer, all-conference star last year, was the big kicker for Southern High. He carried the ball 15 plays for 50 yards.

Playing for Southern were Corbin, Kerins, Jim Thayer, Perrine, Stewart, Powers, Johnson, Davis,
Dintaman, Lawton and Jon Thayer.
There were a number of substitutions. Mosser and Gnegy were out with injuries.

Smail Time . . .

President Kennedy is giving a wonderful exhibition of a real small-time politician. Congressman Mathias has hit the nail squarely on the head in his criticism of the president over the week-end. For one supposed to be leading the "ship of state" to leave for a week-end political speech-making jaunt while forcing Congress to remain in session, he certainly registers a zero as a leader.

It brings very vividly into the picture the fact that President Kennedy is interested only in one thing—that his political power be kept intact, regardless of the importance of tending to his own business—that of being a conscientious president.

He probably never intended to keep his campaign promise that he was going to remain in Washington and work at his job and not go off somewhere playing golf. He doesn't play much golf, but he sure does play. He has been away from the nation's capitol more than any other president up to this time and he just announced this week he would step up his political campaigning.

The world situation—Cuba, Berlin, Laos, the space race, and other critical and dangerous subjects are all relegated to the background as he campaigns for more Democrats.

Former President Eisenhower wisely remarked on Monday, "What does he want, a one party system? He has a 3-2 advantage in the Senate and a 2 to 1 advantage in the House. The reason he can't get his legislation moving is because the programs he backs are extremely unwise." And now he wants more rubber stamp Democrats so he can force his unwise legislation upon us.

Does the Kennedy dynasty mean more to him than the country's welfare? His actions in recent days make it seem so.

Radio Station Is Ready For Frequency Change Friday

Radio station WFRB will change its frequency and output effective October 12, at 1:45 p. m., from 740 kc, 250 watts to 560 kc, 1000 watts. It is announced by D. C. Loughry, owner and general manager of the station.

The station is located on Little Savage mountain, in Garrett county, some three miles west of Frostburg.

The changeover will increase their broadcasting hours and the additional power will give them greater coverage than any other station in the local area. It is the only radio station located in Garrett county.

The station began operation on the old Burdick farm, Finzel road, on December 20, 1958, with all facilities being located in the farmhouse. Within two years the company moved into new quarters located just a short distance away, also on the Finzel road.

Although the operation was successful on the 740 kc, it was desirable, Loughry said, to change in order to gain three hours of additional broadcast time daily. Due to FCC regulation and an agreement with a Canadian station using the same frequency the local station signed on 1 1/2 hours after sunrise and signed off 1 1/2 hours before sunset. On their new frequency they will sign on at sunrise and off at sunset.

Work was begun securing information for the changeover in February of 1960. Loughry said it was necessary for the engineering department to conduct 2,000 measurements which entailed over 10,000 miles of driving.

Application was made to the Federal Communications Commission and the new frequency granted on August 16. Construction of the new facilities began the next day and was completed 45 days later. A special broadcast will mark the changeover this Friday, beginning at 1:45 p. m. with informal programming and telephoning.

Some 60 feet has been added to the tower and there is an increase in the ground system which now has some 86,000 feet of wire buried in the ground around the tower.

Mr. Loughry, the owner and manager, was originally from Kitzmiller. He went into radio in 1944 after graduating from Kitzmiller High School, and secured an engineering degree from Cleveland Institute of Radio and Electronics. He worked in the Baltimore area and was at Apollo, Pa., for nine years as staff member and engineer.

Other personnel at the station, operated by the Western Maryland Broadcasting Company, include R.

Dean Hillegas, commercial sales manager; Bob Kerr, program director; Dottie Buckingham, secretary; Repe Brinker, staff announcer; Bob Wilson, assistant engineer; and Don Davis, special services.

Mr. Loughry pointed out that the station maintains a strict music policy and programs are directed to an adult audience. A ten-minute news broadcast is heard over the station every Thursday from the office of The Republican.

Mr. Loughry said the next move contemplated was an FM station in the next year or two.

Inquiries Received On Polio Vaccines

Many inquiries are being made in the Health Department as to whether or not those who have received complete or partial Salk vaccine immunization should receive the Sabin oral vaccine. Dr. Arthur James, Health officer announced.

Dr. Jones said the Maryland State Department of Health, is recommending, along with the United States Public Health Service, that everybody receive oral polio vaccine whether or not they have received Salk vaccine.

The oral polio vaccine is believed to give permanent immunity whereas the duration of immunity from the Salk vaccine has not been determined. The oral vaccine is a live enteric bacteria, which, when taken, cultures further within the intestinal tract and produces an active immunity and may remain in the intestinal tract for an indefinite period of time. This is in contrast to the Salk vaccine which is a killed organism, and creates immunity only for a short time, he said.

The purpose of the oral vaccine in addition to the Salk vaccine is to so immunize the population that the disease of poliomyelitis may be permanently eradicated.

Since last week's announcement several minor changes have been made in the schedule in the Oakland Elementary School, the hours have been changed to 12:00 to 4:00, while in Southern High School the hours will be from 12:00 to 3:00.

The Health Department again reminds the public that those who miss receiving the vaccine during the regular scheduled periods can receive it on Saturday, October 27th at the Grantsville School, Arcand School and the Central Health Department in Oakland, between the hours of 1:00 and 3:00.

Richard Nixon has ruled out any "draft" for president in 1964.

8-Year-Old Child Killed By Auto

Carolyn Sue Beckman Struck While Crossing Highway Near Swanton

An eight-year old Swanton girl was killed Monday evening, October 8, as she was attempting to walk across State route 495, one mile west of Swanton.

State Trooper Donald A. Tucker, Oakland, said Carolyn Sue Beckman had alighted from her father's car which had stopped in the roadway, came around the rear of the car and was in process of crossing the highway when she was struck by a car operated by William Tressler, Jr., route 2, Oakland. Tressler was traveling east on the highway. The youngster was taken to Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland by her father, Thomas Moses Beckman, Swanton, but she was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital by Dr. James H. Foster, Jr., deputy medical examiner.

The accident occurred about 7:15. State's Attorney W. Dwight Stover, said that no charges had been filed against the driver but that the investigation was continuing by Trooper Tucker and other officials.

The child, a native of this county, was born April 11, 1954, a daughter of Thomas and Clara Johnston Beckman. She was a third grade student at Swanton Elementary school and a member of Mt. Bethel Ex. United Brethren church and Sunday School.

Besides her parents she is survived by a sister, Catherine Beckman, at home; four brothers, James, Thomas, Jr., Richard and Stephen Beckman, all at home; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston, Kent, O.; and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Herbert Groves, Mt. Lake Park.

The body was taken to the Leighton Funeral home in Oakland. The body was taken to the United Brethren church where funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. Oscar Hull officiating. Interment was in Thayersville cemetery.

Permission Granted For Radio Station Erection in Oakland

The Federal Communications Commission yesterday afternoon granted an initial decision for the construction permit for the Oakland Radio Station corporation to construct a standard broadcast station in Oakland. It was announced by Gary Daniels, of Berkeley Springs, W. Va., treasurer and chief engineer of the organization.

Mr. Daniels said the station would operate on 1050 kc, at 500 watts, during daylight hours, from sunrise to sunset.

There is a waiting period of 50 days before any construction can begin so Mr. Daniels felt they would be no activity along the construction line until next spring.

A transmitter and sending station would be constructed on the Willard Ringer property, just west of town on the Swallow Falls road. The company plans to erect an antenna 199 feet in height.

A number of local business men are stockholders in the corporation. Mr. Daniels stated.

Oakland Man Fined In Fatal Accident

Mrs. Mary F. Jackson, 54, of Harpers Ferry, was killed and two other persons were injured, one critically, Tuesday in a car-truck collision on fog-covered U. S. 240, about four miles from Charles Town, W. Va.

Authorities said Mrs. Jackson was riding in a car driven by her husband, Daniel D. Jackson, 61. Jackson sustained serious injuries and another passenger, Calvin M. Taylor, 18, also Harpers Ferry, was listed as critical in Charles Town general hospital.

Police said the Jackson car collided head-on with a tractor-trailer truck operated by Joseph A. Ashby, 37, of Oakland. Ashby, who was not hurt, pleaded "no contest" to a negligent homicide charge and paid $110 in fines plus costs.

Plan Trail Ride

Members of the Garrett County Horsemen's association are planning a trail ride, starting Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the farm of Emerson Bishop if it was announced by the association officers.

Old German Bible Stirs Interest Here

A valuable Bible, translated into German by Martin Luther and printed in Nurnburg, Germany in 1763, was on display during the week by its owner, Robert C. Resh, Cove.

Mr. Resh is Sunday School superintendent of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Accident, and says he has refused offers of $600 and more for the historic book. He has had it in his possession for several years but just recently decided to do something about it.

Last week he was arranging to have a leather cover made for it and he planned to store it in the Grantsville bank for safe keeping until he contacts the Smithsonian Institution of Library of Congress.

The Bible was discovered in the attic of the Krause home in Cove which was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Resh eighteen years ago. He thought the Krauses might have brought it from overseas.

The Bible is about 11 by 16 inches in size, with illustrations, and printed in the German language. It is jacketed with a pigskin cover. The book created much interest when seen in Oakland last week.

Capt. Arthur C. Calhoun, commanding officer of Co. E, 1st Medium Tank Battalion, Maryland National Guard at Oakland, has announced his retirement after more than 20 years in the military service. He will be succeeded by Lt. Mahlon W. Yost.

His civilian work is in production department head for the A&P store in Oakland.

Besides Lt. Yost, the only other charter member of the unit still active and without a break in service is Sgt. Donald H. (Pansy) Hinebaugh.

The local company now has an enlistment of 57 officers and men. It formerly was an engineering company.

Fire Takes Trading Post at Deep Creek

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the Trading Post, of Perry Gloffely, located along U. S. 219 at Deep Creek Lake, near the Deep Creek bridge, on Tuesday morning about 7:40.

The Oakland firemen were summoned but the building was a mass of flames when the truck had completed its ten-mile run to the scene.

Mrs. Gloffely said the merchandise in the building was valued at $15,000 to $18,000 and there was no insurance. The building had no heat or light. The fire was reported by a neighbor who reported the lights being on at 6:30 the morning of the fire.

There was a large quantity of clothing, skis, radios, and many merchandise items in the building. Everything was destroyed.

Efforts to Arrange Meeting of No Avail

Efforts of members of the Garrett County Citizens committee to arrange a meeting with the Board of Education met with no apparent success this week.

Mrs. Elsie Brady, member of the board, who was the only one available for comment this morning, explained that the Board of Education had set up a meeting previously with Ray Gieoni, at that time president of the organization, but that nothing came of it and she said the board felt that another date would serve no good purpose at this time.

Robert Buckel, member of the Citizens' group, said he had received assurances that one of the members would be willing to meet, but the collective board decision had negated this action. The Citizens' committee is meeting tonight at the Bittering Community building.

Garrett Jury Awards $5,000 in Civil Case

A jury in the Circuit court here yesterday afternoon awarded $5,000 to the plaintiff in a civil damage suit filed against an insurance firm from Decatur, Ill., as the result of non-payment of a claim in a fire which destroyed the man's home near Swallow Falls last year.

The suit was filed by Carl Lewis, of near Red House, against the Federal Mutual Fire Insurance company.

The company, according to counsel for the plaintiff, contended that Lewis had not filed any proof of loss within 60 days of the fire which occurred September 12, 1961. The plaintiff waived this provision in the policy after an insurance adjuster had made an offer on his property loss, the attorney said.

Horace P. Whitworth, Jr., Westport, represented Lewis. Representing the insurance firm were S. R. Pagenhardt and Fred A. Thayer, Oakland. Associate Judge Stuart F. Hamall heard the case. Ten men and two women were on the jury which deliberated about an hour and a half.

They also stopped in Accident, Oakland, Red House, Mt. Lake Park, Deer Park, Kitzmiller and Bloomington. A luncheon was held for some 50 Democratic personnel at Hinebaugh's restaurant.

Friday evening they attended the Rotary club meeting in Oakland and went to the Southern-Northern football game. The group returned to Frostburg for the night.

The Southern Highlanders edged the visiting Northern Huskies 7-6 Friday, October 5 in the annual Homecoming Game at Oakland.

The victory gives Southern a 5-2 lead in the series, with the traditional county rivals from Accident.

Southern returned the opening kickoff to the Northern 41 yard line and on the first play, from scrimmage, Jon Thayer carried for a 37 yard gain. In the next play, Charles Dintaman carried 7 yards for the T. D. Jon Thayer ran for the extra point.

A crowd of about 1,500 people looked on, as both teams went scoreless in the second quarter.

Southern kicked to Northern to open the second half and Leon Brode returned the kickoff, 33 yards to the Southern two. He also carried for the T. D. Northern tried to pass for the extra point, but the pass intended for Yommer was intercepted in the end zone by Butch Lawton.

Northern had to resort to passing late in the game, but was unable to connect. Charles Dintaman was outstanding on defense breaking up several passes, intercepting one, and he was credited with several tackles.

Both teams were hurt by penalties, which stopped several drives. Southern was penalized 130 yards and Northern was penalized 63 yards. Each team had seven first downs.

Southern held Northern to 10 yards rushing while the Highlanders rolled up 167 yards rushing. Jon Thayer carried 4 times for a 36 yard average, as Southern won its second game against three losses.

Millard Taxes, the Governor of Maryland, attended the game and gave a short speech at halftime.

Both the Southern Senior High Band and the Northern Senior High Band entertained at halftime.

Homecoming candidates for King and Queen were introduced during the halftime activities. The starting lineup for Southern included House, Perrine, Jim Thayer, Stewart, Powers, Corbin and Kerins on the line with Davis, Lawton, Dintaman and Jon Thayer in the backfield. Also seeing action were Johnson, Mattingly, Hinebaugh and Rowan.

Starting line for the Huskies included Yommer, Walker, Guthrie, Gilbin, Durst, Eckles, Buckel, Giotfelte, McGraw, Nickow and Young. Also seeing action were Opel, Carl Youngkin, Carr, Hinebaugh, Durst, Suter, Umbel and Fike.

Southern will face Parsons High school under the lights on Friday evening, October 12, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, and the following night arrangements have been made for Northern Huskies to use the Southern playing field when they meet Mountaineer High of Thomas, also at 7:30.

Athletic director Dick Travis also announced that the junior high squad would play an intersquad game on Tuesday night, October 16, at 7:30.

Germain, Lawton Reign At Homecoming Dance

Southern climaxed her most important weekend of the year when Mary Germain was crowned Homecoming Queen on Saturday night, October 6. It was preceded by a Homecoming parade and the annual football game between Southern and its rival, Northern, on October 5.

Miss Margie Nally, last year's queen, crowned this year's queen at the annual dance which was held from 8:30 until 11:30 in the school gym. Coach Tom Domen crowned Arthur Lawton Homecoming King.

The candidates for queen were Mary Germain, Mary Lasky, and Paula Marucci. The king candidates were Arthur Lawton, George Stanya, and Joe Germain.

"The Tempos" furnished the music for the G.A.A. sponsored event. The G.A.A. members carried out the school colors, red and white, in their decorating theme in the gym.

Friday, October 5, preceding the Homecoming game, marked the largest Homecoming parade ever held in honor of the Highlanders. This year twenty-four units were entered in the parade, many of them coming from the various classes and organizations of Southern. There were six alumni groups from the year 1957 through to the year 1962.

The activities were coordinated through efforts of Miss Ann Dillgard, Student Council sponsor, and Mrs. Lucile Kerins and Mrs. Dorothy Frame of the physical education department.

Bob Martin To Be Admitted To Hall Of Fame For Boxers

Bob Martin, now residing in Oakland, former heavyweight boxing champion of the American Expeditionary Forces in World War I, will be admitted to Ohio's Summit County Hall of Fame in Akron on October 22, it was announced this week.

Sergeant Bob, who can get around only by the use of a cane, having suffered a brain injury in the late 1920's, plans to accept his honor in Akron in person.

It was forty-three years ago that Martin had become the champion. He earned the honor by defeating Fay Keiser in a ten-rounder at Cirque de Paris, Paris, France.

On the same program Gene Funney, the Fighting Marine, outpointed Ted Jamison in a ten-rounder to win the AEF's light heavyweight title. Gene went on from there to score an upset by beating Jack Dempsey twice and retiring as unbeaten world heavyweight king.

Sergeant Bob started on the downward trend two years later when Keiser scored a revenge victory in Baltimore. But Martin lost only one bout in 60 during the nine years he was in the Army.

After the war Martin continued his career. He sometimes fought as often as twice a week but following the brain injury in 1920 hovered on the brink of death in Walter Reed hospital, Washington. The injury resulted in paralysis in his left leg.

He now experiences difficulty getting around and spends most of his time reading and watching television at his Alder street home.

Springs Festival Is "Biggest Ever"

The simple, homespun way of life was in evidence last Friday and Saturday during the fifth annual Homecoming and Folk Festival at Springs, Pa., which attracted some 9,000 persons.

The festival, sponsored by the Springs Historical Society and Penn Alps, Inc., was described as the "biggest ever."

The large crowds resulted in a traffic problem for a brief time. Youngsters went on hay rides in a horse-drawn wagon. There was vocal and instrumental music inside a large tent. Two other tents contained counters of handicrafts including quilts, rugs, ceramics, needlework, wood work, painting on old staves, and multi-colored bonnets.

In the pioneer kitchen there was freshly made pickle, homemade bread, dried apples and corn. Many people were seen with a large slice of homemade bread smothered with butter and apple butter.

Plates were seen laden with sandwiches, pie, cake and baked beans. Busiest place seemed to be the dining room where a Dutch meal was being served. Pottery makers and whittlers attracted much attention as did a blacksmith working with heated metal on his anvil.

In the historical society museum were antiques and collector's items of the past history of Pennsylvania.

Davis Man Fatally Hurt In Accident

Henry Robert Hull, 37, of Davis, W. Va., native of Oakland, was fatally injured in a one-car accident last Saturday night, October 6, at Prince Frederick.

Born in Oakland June 28, 1925, he was a son of John Boyd and Bonnie Willis Hull, of Davis. He was a member of Thomas Presbyterian church and a veteran of World War II.

Besides his parents he is survived by two children, Henry R. Hull, Jr. and Judith Lynn Hull, both Cleveland; six brothers and one sister, Mrs. Helen Gower, Fairview.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the Spiggle Funeral home in Davis with Rev. A. B. Mann officiating. Interment was in Davis cemetery.

The Maryland traffic death toll was upped to 421, 95 more than for corresponding period in 1961, as of October 5.

Candace Darlene Sheets Is Bride

Our Father's House, a mission of the Episcopal Church, Altamont, was the setting for the marriage of Candace "Cindy" Sheets, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sheets, Brownsville, Pa., to Francis Allen Sweeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Sweeney, Deep Creek Lake, which was an event of Saturday, Sept. 29. The Rev. Fr. Thomas P. Staup, read the double ring ceremony at 5:20 p. m. before an altar decorated with white pompons, carnations and ivy with autumn effects illuminated by tall tapers in candelabra standards.

Mrs. Gilbert Filsinger presided at the organ for the nuptial music. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown of white bridal satin under chiffon, fashioned with a lace covered bodice and long lace sleeves. She carried a white prayer book, gift of the bridegroom, adorned with a bouquet of white Stephanotis, and rosebuds showered with streamers entwined with ivy. The only jewelry worn was a gold medallion necklace, also a gift of the bridegroom.

As maid of honor, Miss Karen L.

Ritz, Brownsville, Pa., wore a street length gown of white nylon, peacoat sole and an apron effect skirt trimmed in purple velvet caught in the bow at the back. She carried a bouquet of lavender asters.

Flo, L. Wright, Mt. Savage, was the best man, and Arthur D. Sheets, Brownsville, Pa., brother of the bride, ushered.

A winter white shantung dinner dress, was worn by the bride's mother. Her corsage was of orchid cymbidium. The mother of the bride wore a silk dinner dress with a yellow cymbidium corsage.

Books in memory of Alice Johnson, A. L. Riley, Lawrence Gonder, Mrs. Mary Jane Friend and Mrs. Norman Broadwater have been presented to the library recently.

For traveling the bride chose a two tone grey suit with black accessories with a white rosebud and ivy corsage.

An alumna of Brownsville high school, class of 1961, the bride is employed as a correspondent at the Navy Annex, Arlington for the U. S. Marine Corps.

Are There No Ethics?

Are there no ethics in politics? Apparently not among the Democratic candidates.

The invasion of Democratic candidates on the time of the homecoming activities at the Northern Southern football game last Friday night certainly showed a lack of ethics. Many people shouted for "equal time" as they took an unfair advantage of the captive audience. But did they care?

And at the GOP beef barbecue several days ago some Democratic candidates appeared much put out

SENATE CLOAKROOM

By Sen. A. Glenn Beall (R. Md.)

"I Do Not Choose To Be A Common Man"—These were the words of Dean Alfange in expressing what it means to him to be an American. Continuing, he said: "It is my right to be uncommon—if I can I seek opportunity, not security. I do not wish to be a kept citizen, humbled and dulled by having the state look after me. I want to take the calculated risk to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. I refuse to be a centurion for a day. I prefer the challenge of life to the guaranteed existence: the thrill of fulfillment to the state calm of utopia. I will not trade freedom for beneficence nor my dignity for a handout. I will never cower before any master nor bend to any threat. It is my heritage to stand erect, proud and unafraid; to think and act for myself, enjoy the benefit of my creations and to face the world boldly and say, 'This I have done. All this is what it means to be an American.'"

Russia Establishing Naval Base In Cuba—The announcement of Communist Dictator Castro to the effect that a "major port" for a Soviet "fishing fleet" would be built at Havana with Soviet help flooded no one. It will be a Russian naval base. On Cuba's east coast, along the deep-water Bay of Nipe, heavy construction, supervised by Russian technicians, is already under way. The Soviets plan to have at least two basing areas in Cuba for missiles and missile-carrying submarines. Military personnel from Russia continue to flow into Cuba. Arms and heavy

When the Republican leaders would not allow them to get up on the platform to be introduced. And are the Democratic candidates ashamed of their party? It would seem so from the number who have printed posters and campaign material without any indication of whether they are Republican or Democratic. But don't worry. We know you and so do the voters. The voters will let you know in an emphatic way on election day.

Monstrous Government

The Federal government owns 771,512,000 acres of land, which is one acre in every three of the total land of the country. The Government owns 405,443 buildings. In addition, an agency of the Government, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, holds real estate mortgages on private property totaling $2,704,413,000. The Government owns 54 electrical projects with kilowatt capacity amounting to one-seventh of the capacity of all electric utilities of the nation.

This illustrates how the Federal government, reaching out to control virtually every facet of our private lives, has already swollen to monstrous proportions. Unfortunately, there are those in key advisory positions who would have the Federal government go even further toward complete control and regimentation of all social, cultural and economic activities in the country to advance their po-

White House Adviser Belittles "Average American"

"Average American"—New Frontiersman and Harvard Professor Seymour Harris recently stated that his group is "well aware of the measures needed" but is hamstrung, because "the Administration faces the difficulty that many of the modern ideas of economics have not percolated to Congress or its constituencies. It takes a long time for modern ideas to get across to the average American."

Professor Harris revealed what he had in the back of his mind when he went on to say that "most economists" have accepted the Keynesian doctrine of government intervention in private business.

Criticizing principles of the American Constitution, the Presidential adviser said that "it is unfortunate" that our Constitution "was written at a time the British government was in disrepute and its parliamentary system not working well." Jury Gives Verdict For Defendant In Suit For $100,000

A verdict for the defendant in a $100,000 damage suit was returned by a Garrett County Circuit jury last week in the case of Irvin L. Kitzmiller versus Roy Sharpless.

The suit was brought by Kitzmiller through his attorney, Jack R. Turney. Sharpless was represented by S. R. Pagenhardt. Following the verdict of the jury Mr. Turney filed a motion for a new trial on September 29.

In the declaration it was stated that on August 29, 1961, midnight, that Kitzmiller was operating his vehicle in a careful and prudent manner on highway 42, three miles north of Kitzmiller. The declaration continued saying that the plaintiff's car was approached from the rear by auto driven by "Sharpless, with malice aforethought, rammed the front of the vehicle into the rear of the auto of the plaintiff, causing the plaintiff to lose control of the car, careen off left side of road, collide with utility pole, and as a result suffered permanent injuries including broken bones, contusions, lacerations, abrasions and bruises." He was given emergency treatment at Garrett County Memorial hospital and then sent to West Virginia medical center at Morgantown.

The declaration continued that further surgical and medical treatment are needed. The man was a former active coal miner. In the reply to the declaration Sharpless' attorney claimed that he did not commit the wrongs alleged. A motion by the defendant for a directed verdict was refused by Associate Judge S. F. Hamill, who heard the case.

Following the accident in 1961 Sharpless was found guilty of three charges. The arrest was made by Trooper Robert Cave. Sharpless entered a plea of guilty to leaving the scene of a personal injury accident and was fined $100 and costs. On a charge of operating a truck in a reckless manner he pleaded not guilty but was found guilty by Magistrate Robert M. Maroney and fined $25 and costs. On a charge of operating a truck without a license he entered a plea of guilty and was fined $15 and costs.

Property Assessments Considered Uniform

Property assessments in Maryland have never been more uniform than they are this year, according to a 1962 report of assessment ratios made to the Governor and the General Assembly by the State Department of Assessments and Taxation.

The average of real property assessment to market value for the state was 54.7 percent and Garrett county stood around 52 percent, according to the local assessors' office in the Court House. Some of the counties were as low as 25 percent, the report showed, while Baltimore city showed 60.6 percent.

The report declared that the low level of assessments in many of the counties had to be raised to a more realistic level of actual value, made necessary because of the law by which assessments are made requiring real property to be assessed at full cash value with an allowance for inflation, if inflation exists.

Some taxpayers were of the opinion that the increase in assessments was to raise taxes, but the report gave two reasons: the rising property costs and achievement of uniformity. It was pointed out that a house which cost $4,500 to build in 1940 would cost approximately $10,000 to replace in 1962.

Paul Fisher, one of the assessors, said the Garrett county assessments were making too great a percentage.

It was explained the State Department of Assessments and Taxation was charged with the responsibility of supervising the making of assessments. In 1958 it issued instructions to all assessors that, where the ratio of all assessments to all sales was less than 50 percent, assessors were making too great an allowance for inflation.

The reason for pressing for uniformity of assessments is that much of the cost of the education, health and welfare programs is paid for by state funds and the method of distributing these state funds is determined by the local needs and by the ability of the jurisdictions to meet the cost of those required services, which ability is measured by the property assessments. A county under-assessing its property, receives a greater share of State aid than it is rightfully entitled to receive, the report stated.

The Supervisors and the assessor's sole responsibility is that of making assessments of all taxable property in their jurisdiction. They must do so on the basis of the fair value of the property. The age, health, or misfortunes of the owner of the property have no bearing as to the amount of the assessment so fixed. The assessor's obligation is not only to the taxing body, but also to the taxpayer. If every assessor properly performs his function in government, each taxpayer will bear his just and proportionate cost of that government. The assessor is in no way responsible for the amount of taxes because he has no say in appropriations or the expenditure of funds. His official acts are defined and regulated by law.

Every taxpayer has the right to object to or protest any assessment. No assessment can be changed without the taxpayer's receiving a notice of said change, and if he believes the assessment to be erroneous, there is the right to appeal to the Supervisor of Assessments, a second right of appeal to the County Commissioners or the Appeal Tax Court, then to the Maryland Tax Court and further to the law courts, if necessary. Taxpayers seldom find it necessary to follow these appeal procedures, because often after a meeting with the local Supervisor of Assessments, they generally understand the method of making assessments and are able to ascertain first hand that they have been treated fairly and like their neighbors.

Christianity's prime task is to find a new and dynamic approach to the working man and his problems, the head of world Methodism declared.

To The Citizens of Garrett County:

THE CAMPAIGN for Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of Maryland should be conducted on a high level, with dignity and with due regard for the ethical standards of this important office. I have conducted my campaign in that manner, and intend to continue so conducting my campaign in the future, in spite of many provocations not worthy of an answer.

I AM A NATIVE of Garrett County, where I have resided all of my life, and am the third generation of Hamill lawyers to practice in Garrett County.

I AM RUNNING for office on my record and experience, and should like to state that the records of the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court are public records, and I invite their inspection by any and all interested persons, as to both my legal experience and my judicial duties.

I HAVE GREAT RESPECT for this high office and am fully aware of its responsibilities. I am particularly interested in and deeply concerned with the juvenile work of the court, as I feel that the proper administration of justice in this area is vital to the future of our great nation.

IF YOU ELECT ME to this office, I pledge that the Circuit Court for Garrett County will be conducted with dignity and integrity to the best of my ability; but above all, with honesty.

I AM NOT OBLIGATED to or controlled by any individual or individuals, and my campaign has been conducted entirely without financial assistance from any outside source.

Mathias Criticizes JFK On Politicking

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. (R-Md.) last Saturday charged President Kennedy with jumping the ship of state for a week-end of campaigning while members of Congress, at great sacrifice, postponed their own personal campaign plans and remained at their posts to act on vital legislation.

Congressman Mathias, addressing the House of Representatives in the unusual Saturday session, asked, "Not long ago the American people were asked the question, 'Are we going to anchor down or sail?' Today I would like to ask the man who propounded that question—how we can either sail a straight course or find a safe harbor when the helmsman has abandoned the wheel and gone off on a frolic of his own."

"I am sure that every member here today had campaign plans of importance to himself and to his friends and supporters. We have cancelled those plans to be here at our post of duty in this House. But the man who wanted so much to play captain is not on board today. He has jumped ship, although much urgently needed legislation might yet be moved, if he would practice some of the personal leadership about which he preached.

"Today might have been a good time for him to exhibit a little of that spirit of sacrifice for the country about which we have heard so much and seen so little." He called on his campaign team to tell the people of Maryland's Sixth Congressional District that he cannot meet campaign commitments because he must remain in Congress to represent their interests during this prolonged session of the 87th Congress.

Because of his inability to carry his campaign for re-election to the people, Congressman Mathias recently began a campaign in newspapers and on radio telling the people of the five western counties he represents of Garrett, Alle-

Just for a moment, close your eyes and picture the scene in your childhood home that you liked best. Was it the music box in the front room, the grandfather clock, the large, fragrant kitchen? Whatever you are thinking of, your memory is a treasure chest of things you hold dear.

Let your mind wander further. You will remember not only loving scenes and favorite objects, but family and friends, their ways, their thoughts, their talk. God and His goodness were mentioned often. Prayer was a common practice. There was faith and trust and a feeling of security.

Sunday was a special day, and all activities were centered around the church and the home.

Come back to the present a moment. The Church was home to you then! It can be your home now; a place of worship where the heart remembers and rejoices.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Bible Material: Genesis 1:1, 27, 31; Psalm 145:20; Isaiah 40:28-31; Matthew 6:9, John 4:21, 23; Acts 10:34; 17:22, 29; James 1:18-19; Revelation 4:11.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 104:24-33

God

Lesson for October 14, 1962

WHAT is more important than God? Even to ask the question is absurd. The Bible is so filled with truth about God that a lifetime of study could not

Paul begins by reminding the Athenians that they were not atheists. Their trouble was that they believed in too many gods. They were so anxious not to neglect any god that they had actually put up an altar to "An Unknown God." Whoever was responsible for that altar must have felt there was some other God out of sight. Paul brings the word that this "unknown god" is after all, the true one. He is "the God"—the only one. No part of this earth is outside his realm... only that is saying too little; in this space-minded age Paul might well have said that God made the Universe and everything in it. He is the God of every star and every planet, no matter how many light-years away. As Creator, he does more than make worlds without number. He peoples them with inhabitants without number. He makes life possible here on this earth. Wherever in this vast universe life exists—if it does—there it is God who is both Creator and

Creator and Lord

Preserver, and therefore Lord of heaven and earth, and of all their inhabitants. "We are His offspring." Further, God as Creator is Father of all. Paul shows his knowledge (we did not say, shows off his knowledge) by quoting from a Greek poet Aratus—or another one, Cleanthes, who said the same thing. "We are his offspring." In plain English, we are children of God. Children, that is, in the sense that we are his creatures, we owe our existence to Him. There are three "levels" (so to speak) of the fatherhood of God. First He is the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; this is unique, no other is in the class with Christ. Second, He is Father of believers. Father of those who love Him and desire to live as His children. Third, He is Father of all men, though most men do not know this yet, but are self-made orphans.

God is Spirit

Jesus had said long before this, "God is Spirit." Paul does not use this word but he speaks of what God is not. He does not live in shrines made by hand; He is not served by human hands; in Him we live and move and are; "the Deity is not like gold, or silver, or stone, a representation by the art and imagination of man." If we are God's offspring, then a human being is more nearly like God than anything else in the universe; so true is this, that when God set out to make his special and supreme revelation of himself, he did this through the man Christ Jesus. So Paul gently but plainly condemns all idols.

"That they might seek after Him"

A little boy said: "I like God. He hides and we have to find Him." There is truth in that. God is not obvious, we can go through life denying that He exists; but He is there all the time. Rather, He is here, here wherever we may be. He is not far from each one of us (and remember, Paul was speaking to non-Christians); yet nevertheless the Bible often speaks of man's seeking God. The point here is that God made man and has taken care of him, for one main purpose, namely that men might seek God in hope. God is not a silent God. He is not aloof and remote, deaf to man's cries. God wants to be wanted. He wants his children-by-creation to become his children-by-grace. But God will not force his way into any heart. He would rather be sought freely and eagerly than to compel men to worship him.

State Teachers To Meet

Maryland teachers will take two days off Thursday and Friday the 18th and 19th, to attend the meeting of the Maryland State Teachers Association in Baltimore. School will be closed during this meeting.
Three students from Southern—Sue Martin, Lloyd Bittinger, and Charles O'Haver will be in Ball-more to join the All-State Chorus in giving a concert at one of the general sessions of the MSTA.

P-T-A. Schedules Meeting

The first meeting of the Southern High School P-T-A. will be held October 15, in a back-to-school night for parents.

The parents will go through the regular Monday schedule of their sons or daughters with twelve minutes being spent in each class.

Parents will be given an opportunity to learn what will be taught in each class and what is to be expected from their children.

Darrell Malone, president of the organization, will be in charge of the business session.

Play School Begins

The tenth annual playschool for pre-school children began at Southern on Monday, October 8.
The senior home economics class, under the supervision of Mrs.
Randall, has charge. It is part of the unit on Child Development.

The children, who range in age from two and one half to five and one half, include Thomas Stark, Jennifer Brownrigg, Richard Orr,
Sue Ann Klier, James Fitzwater,
Kimberly Herman, Linda Bolding,
Kinloe Hardesty, Eric Wotring, Ricky Thayer, Carlene Shaffer, and Joseph Landon.

The unit is designed to aid in observing the physical, social, emotional, and mental development of the child. Each game played is created to show a development in each of the four divisions above.

The class is also to study language and to study the developments listed previously.

Coaches To Attend Clinic

Carl Schoonover, Thomas Kuhn, and Wayne Johnson, basketball coaches at Southern, will leave Friday to attend a basketball coaching clinic at George Washington Motor Lodge at King of Prussia, Pennsylvania.

Co-directors of the clinic are Jim Pollard, former coach of the Chicago Packers, Minneapolis Lakers, and LaSalle College, and attendee players with Minn. Lakers and Bill Foster, head coach of Bloomsburg State College.

Students To Take Test

Five students from Southern have been chosen to take the U. S.
Senate Youth program test at Bruce High School on Saturday
October 13.

Those chosen are Jack Jones,
Sally Buchanan, Robert Earhart, Kay Bowman, and Todd Schab-le. Through objective testing and other appropriate screening devices, each state is asked to select two senior high school students who are elected members of the student council or of a class officer.

The winners and students from other participating states will be brought to Washington for the week of January 27 through February 1, 1963.

Students Outstanding

Army Recruiters MSG Wesley C.
Hartley and S Sgt Barbara J. Bond took a random sample of the academic and non-academic students from grades 11 and 12 involving classes of Mrs. Watson, Miss Idle-man, Mr. Sereno, and Mr. Bennett.
The results indicated boys were slightly above national average, while the girls were higher above the national average than were the boys.

It could be expected that all of these students could be from 6-10 points higher at the end of the school year. The following are the high point students: Alexander Snyder, Gene Edge, David Custer, Leonard Broadwater, Todd Schab-le, Judie Kuhnle, Mary Jane Perkins, and Paula Marucci.

A follow up test will be given in May to measure achievement at the end of the year.

The bill authorizing president to mobilize 150,000 reservists was passed by Congress.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate President De-Gaulle of France.

With your Gas Company's new Budget Payment Plan, you can now pay the same amount each month for Gas service—just as you do rent, mortgage payments and similar bills.

The RED ARROW on your Gas bill points to the amount you would pay each month if you select this plan. It was determined from your total bills during a recent 12-month period. You would pay this same amount each month for 11 months. Any difference between your total annual bill and the payments made would be adjusted in the 12th month.

The Budget Payment Plan starts with bills bearing a "last day to pay" date in October. If you want to take advantage of this convenient plan, just pay the budget amount the RED ARROW points to.

Watch for the RED ARROW! It will help you avoid peak winter heating bills and spread your Gas costs evenly over the year.

GO JET-SMOOTH '63 CHEVROLET—IT'S EXCITING!

If all roads were superhighways, Chevrolet's remarkably smooth and silent ride might be just another luxury. But as most town and country roads will demonstrate, this is one Chevrolet advantage that's mighty easy to get excited about. (The way those four deep-coil springs put the kibosh on bumps, you'd almost think Chevrolet was working for the highway commission.) The new '63 Bel Airs, Biscaynes and Impalas are built to be equally easy going on upkeep. Brakes are self-adjusting. New Delcotron generator s-t-r-o-t-t-e-r-s battery life. Even the rocker panels on the Body by Fisher are self-washing and ventilating to cut down on rust. Your dealer's waiting to tell you more—and the more you hear about these new Chevrolets, the better you'll like them.

Makes Safety Record

The new safety record was reached shortly after 4 p. m., Monday, when the Luke mill's over 2,400 employees amassed the total

Little information is available concerning the interesting old photograph published today, and it is hoped some reader can supply data concerning the date of the picture and the occasion for the scene being recorded.

Mrs. Virginia Fizer found the glass plate negative in the house she occupies on Third street. At one time, the home was the location of Stewart's Photographic Studio, and presumably the picture was made by this early local photographer.

A close examination will disclose that the airplane is only a model, and could not possibly fly. Further information would be welcomed.

of 1,000,000 accident-free man hours.

In announcing the record, William M. Thompson, production manager, explained that the Luke mill had gone 70 days since the last lost time injury July 31. He added that although this is the first time the Luke mill has reached the charmed circle, mill employees completed 65 days for about 850,000 man hours without a lost time injury last year.

W. Dwight Stover Judge

To The Citizens Throughout Garrett County:

I am the Republican nominee for the office of Associate Judge of Garrett County, Maryland. As such, I am seeking the support of all the voters in this coming General Election, November 6. To enable you to better make a choice I am submitting the following facts for your consideration:

I was born and raised in Garrett County, Maryland. I live near Oakland on the Underwood Road in Election District No. 11. I am married and have two children. I have been a member of the Lach Lynn Evangelical United Brethren Church for many years and have served on their Board of Trustees. Presently, I am President of that Board.

I am a member and past president of the Oakland-Mountain Lake Park Lions Club. A member of the Farming for Better Living Council and a past chairman of that organization. I am a member of the Knights of Pythias, Garrett Lodge No. 115, and a member of Proctor Killow Past No. 71, American Legion. I have been active in many other civic organizations in this county.

I was admitted to the Maryland Bar in 1912, and at the conclusion of my service in the Army of the United States during World War II, I returned to Oakland to practice law and have done so continuously and without interruption since that date. I have served for over a decade as the State's Attorney for Garrett County, Maryland, and as such I have been the chief legal advisor to 22 Grand Juries and to two Special Grand Juries.

I was recommended for the appointment as Associate Judge by (1) The Garrett County Bar Association; (2) A Special Committee of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of the Maryland Bar Association of Judicial Appointment; and (3) by the Maryland Bar Association Committee on Judicial Appointment.

If I am elected Associate Judge I will do my utmost to administer the law in a fair and impartial manner.

I respectfully solicit your support at this coming election.

Sincerely yours,

W. Dwight Stover

No. 5176 Equity In The Circuit Court For Garrett County, Maryland.

The Bill states:

That on the 7th day of June, 1931, she was married to Woodrow Wilson Harvey at Keyser, Mineral County, West Virginia, with whom she resided until the month of December, 1942, at which time the said defendant deserted the said plaintiff, that although the conduct of her oratrix towards her said husband has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Woodrow Wilson Harvey, without just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than eighteen months, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that four children were born of said marriage; that your oratrix is a resident of Garrett County, Maryland, and has resided therein for more than one year prior to the institution of this suit, and that the defendant has not been seen or heard of since September, 1944.

It is thereupon ordered this 14th day of September, 1962, by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiff by having a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 12th day of October, 1962, giving notice to the said absent defendant, Woodrow Wilson Harvey, of the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint and warning him to be and appear in this Court either in person or by solicitor on or before the 27th day of October, 1962, to show cause, if any he may have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Employ Handicapped Week Being Observed

This week is designated as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. Local Committees in each County in Maryland submit, for consideration of the Governor's Committee, nominees for the Award of Merit, names of the employee who has done the most to overcome his or her handicap and also that of an employer who hires the handicapped.

The Garrett County Committee, headed by Dr. Arthur Jones, selected as the nominee for the Award of Merit as an employee, Miss Florence Nell Browning. Due to a birth defect, Miss Browning had cerebral palsy that involved both arms and hands with some weakness of the left foot in addition to a speech defect. This did not stop Nell, as she is known, from working. For the past 15 years she has been employed faithfully at J. W. Jackson Company in Oakland and has shown herself to be competent in her work. At present she is employed in the capacity of stock room Manager. She is charged with receiving all merchandise, pricing same for floor and the controlling of her inventories. Her employer states that "what Miss Browning lacked in motor coordination, she more than compensated for by her determination, by her native intelligence, by her patience, and mostly by her complete dependability."

The Garrett County Committee believes she is entitled to be considered for the Award of Merit.

Reaches 91st Birthday

Jonas Broadwater, a resident of Savage river valley for most of his life, observed his 91st birthday anniversary on Wednesday, October 10.

He has been a life-long resident of the county and moved to the Savage river valley at the age of six.

Mr. Broadwater is alert, enjoys fairly good health and is interested in all current events. He is a retired farmer.

He is also a member of the State Committee which makes its decision known sometime in November. The local committee has also sent to the Governor's Committee, for consideration as the employee who deserves the Award for hiring the handicapped, the name of the J. W. Jackson Company in Oakland. The Garrett County Committee is comprised of Dr. Arthur Jones, C. O. Bender, Lowell Loomis, W. Robert Nethken, Robert Strimple, William Mann and C. L. Briner. This Committee is asking all employers to consider hiring the handicapped.

The sire of this prospective herd sire was one that for many years headed a facta herd in Marshallville, Pa.

In 1957 Hamilton, as a high school sophomore, purchased six open heifers and at the present time has developed a registered and purchased herd of 24 Angus. Hamilton has been active in FFA work and has served as Maryland State president of this organization.

We Gave Too Much . . .

A billion dollar program of Aid to Korea was not only unsuccessful—it actually injured the Korean economy, the General Accounting office reported to Congress prior to adjournment.

Reason given for the trouble: U. S. aid was so lavish it was "beyond the capacity of the Korean economy to absorb productively, or of its Government to administer efficiently." Economic and technical aid amounted to $1.2 billion dollars over a five year period ending in 1961.

According to the GAO, this level of aid—more than 200 millions a year—simply acted to stultify "the growth of the country's economy" and undermine its "moral fabric." It led to such irregularities as "collusion between supplier and importer, shipment of defective merchandise, kickbacks and overpricing."

In 1962 the report stated the Korean aid program "appears to have improved—because it was substantially cut." All these facts came out in the U. S. News and World Report about two weeks ago.

Why cannot this government and its people learn from experience? We gave too much. And the present administration wants to hand out even more in all kinds of aid and phony programs. They are slowly but surely killing private initiative, a symbol of this country's former greatness. Hand-outs are the ultimate ruin of individuals as well as governments.

ASC Elections Set For Nov. 9

The annual election of ASC Community Committees will be held on Monday, November 19. It was announced by Arthur G. Fitzwater, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

For the purposes of the election, the county has been divided into eight communities. Community boundaries follow election district lines. Designation of community boundaries are as follows: Community A, Election District 2, B, 3 and 6; Election District C, 3 and 12; Election District D, 9, 11, and 15; Election District E, 1 and 4; Election District F, 10, 13, and 16; Election District G, 7 and 14; Election District H, 8.

Three committeemen and two alternates will be elected in each community. Ten or more candidates have been nominated for each community. In addition to candidates already nominated, petitions signed by ten or more eligible voters nominating persons for membership on the Community Committee will be received at the County ASCS Office, Oakland, at any time not later than October 30. The names of persons so nominated will be included in the slate of nominees, if found willing to serve and are eligible. Mr. Fitzwater said.

Ballots will be mailed to all eligible voters early in November.

GOLDEN APPLE FOR SUPERINTENDENT—Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, was one of two individuals to be presented golden apples bearing the P-T. A. emblem this week. Presentations were made by Clinton Englander, president of the County Council of Parents and Teachers. Accompanying story gives the why and wherefore.

Apples For Teachers Presented By P-TA

In separate presentations one at the Board of Education meeting Tuesday morning and the other at the Southern High School PTA meeting Monday night, golden apples bearing the PTA Emblem were given to Willard Hawkins, County School Superintendent, and to Darrell Malone, County Teacher Association President. County PTA Council president Clinton Englander made the presentations in the name of the Parents of the PTA in sincere gratitude to the Teachers of the PTA for their contribution to our children. This week is State PTA week and in addition to the gilded wooden apples being presented to the Teacher representatives, every PTA organization in the county has awarded badges made in the form of apples to their respective teachers, the badges to be worn by the teachers when they attend the State Teachers Convention this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in Baltimore. Apples for the Teachers is part of the state wide recognition this week of teachers by the PTA organization. "The PTA Sows the Seeds for Better Communities of Tomorrow" is the theme of the PTA for this year, and apples for the teacher is an outgrowth of this theme. In the future more golden apples bearing the PTA emblem, and the name of the recipient will be awarded after approval from the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers, the awards to be made for outstanding service to the children of Maryland. The parents, in recognition of all they owe to the Teachers for their service to the children of the state are indulging in the nostalgic reminiscence of school days by presenting paper badge apples in colors of green, yellow, white, red and gold, depending upon the grade in school the teacher is teaching. All teachers, throughout the state will wear these apple badges at the State Convention.

Mathias Hits JFK Attack on Record

Rep. Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. took the floor of the House of Representatives last Thursday to defend his record from an attack by President Kennedy.

Mr. Mathias said he supported six of seven bills the President praised as "positive and progressive accomplishments" of the 87th Congress, and yet Mr. Kennedy called Rep. Mathias' voting record "negative."

The President said "No Congress in our time—and the records prove it has had a more exceptional two years of positive and progressive accomplishment."

Mr. Mathias said "As proof of this statement he (the President) cited seven acts of this Congress—the Trade Bill, Area Redevelopment, Manpower Retraining, Defense Appropriations, the Space Program, Drug Laws and Minimum Wage—each of which received bipartisan support."

"He then called for my defeat based on a 'negative record'." "The record shows that I supported six of the seven bills mentioned by the President. How can they be called positive and negative in the same breath?"

"I excuse the President of trying to mislead the people of Maryland. I suspect he was provided a political text drafted by a hoboish instead of a ghost."

"At the same time, since the question has been raised, I want to stand here, Mr. Speaker, in the presence of my colleagues who were witnesses to my votes, and remove any doubts on the score of my position, and in the presence of our Clerk of the House of Representatives, whose official records of the House show how I voted."

"From time to time, during this Congress the President called for bipartisan support. He received help from the Republican side in many cases, and without it there would be little in the record of this Congress to be praised as 'positive and progressive accomplishments.'"

"Having given such support when I thought it an injustice to be called 'negative.'"

"Such a response from Mr. Kennedy is untrue, ungenerous, and lacking in the spirit of equity, that the American people expect of their Presidents."

The Congressman is seeking increased utilization of Maryland's thousands of acres of public lands, state, federal and municipal, through development of additional facilities to make areas more accessible and convenient to the nation's outdoorsmen.

Bloomington Dam Project Approved

The $24 billion controversial omnibus water bill has been sent to President Kennedy by a weary Congress and with it is a $50.1 million item for a dam and reservoir in the Bloomington area.

The Potomac River flood control project for which Maryland and its subdivisions ultimately will repay some $15 million, was the only one approved by the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River basin. It was designed by the U. S. Corps of Engineers as part of an over-all flood and pollution control project, which, if realized, would provide several dams along the Potomac.

The Bloomington dam would be located about two miles above the confluence of the Savage River in Mineral County, W. Va., and Bloomington. It would provide flood control, water supply, water quality control and recreation.

Yuhaniak was arrested on a charge of fatally shooting his wife, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Yuhaniak, 39, August 19, during the early morning hours in the New Germany area. She died minutes after being admitted to Miners hospital in Frostburg. Her husband, a sugar refinery worker in Baltimore, was apprehended shortly afterward.

The couple had been visiting his uncle, Clarence Yaist, at New Germany. They were returning to the Yaist home when the argument started. Yuhaniak pulled a revolver from under the front seat of their parked car and after a struggle the gun went off. The bullet entered her left cheek and lodged in her brain. He drove his wife to her uncle's home and the two men rushed her to the hospital where she died.

FALL WEDDING?

215 Alder Street
OAKLAND, MARYLAND

To The Voters of Garrett County:

It was my sincere desire to visit and talk with each of you personally during this election campaign. However, due to my responsibilities, that has been impossible. Perhaps I can acquaint myself to you in this manner.

I have been a life-long resident of Garrett County, a dairy farmer and taxpayer for many years.

I am a staunch supporter of the Republican Party, and served four years as Treasurer of the Republican State Central Committee. I am a member of the Paradise E. U. B. Church and a past Sunday School Superintendent. I am a charter member and former officer in the Mountain Lake Park Circuit Brotherhood.

I am a member of the K. of P. Lodge, the W. O. W. Lodge of Crellin, and an active Farm Bureau member for many years.

I helped organize the Garrett County Fair Association six years ago and have been treasurer and a director since that time.

I have always been interested in the economic development of our county, the public schools, and am in favor of road improvement—anything that is for the benefit of our people.

I am grateful for what each of you has done for me in the past, and earnestly ask your continued support and your VOTE in November.

If elected, I will strive to faithfully and efficiently execute the duties of the office of County Commissioner, and will serve you to the best of my ability.

Thanking you sincerely,

ALLEN S. "Dick" PAUGH

Shameful Affair...

At no place in the Constitution of the United States is the President given the authority to order federal troops or federalized units of the National Guard to invade any State of the Union and by force of arms to carry out any act of the Supreme Court.

...the 14th Amendment specifically states that "the Congress (not the President) shall have the power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article."

Nowhere in the 14th Amendment is there any reference to or provision for enforcement of the amendment insofar as educational institutions are concerned. Not until 1954 was the amendment invoked for the purpose of requiring the public schools of the various states to submit to federal dictation with reference to enrollment of students. A Supreme Court opinion was substituted for an act of Congress which had never been introduced and therefore not adopted.

Two legal questions were involved in this matter: (1) The right of the President to invade Mississippi with federal troops without specific authorization from Congress; (2) The right of the national government to compel an educational institution of a sovereign state to do its bidding without having previously exhausted all legal processes by obtaining a decision from the entire Supreme Court on this specific issue. The administration resolved both questions in favor of itself and went ahead.

It is not our purpose to argue the issue of segregation vs. integration. A much greater principle is involved than the mere admission of one student to the University of Mississippi. Millions feel that he should have been admitted; other millions feel that he should not have been admitted. The question of whether or not this Negro should have been admitted or denied admission is a minor consideration in the light of what has happened.

The federal government has now invaded a state and established a policy that when a state disagrees with a questionable action of the executive department, or the judicial department, action shall not be based on a specific authorization by Congress or a final decision by the United States Supreme Court but the federal government shall have the power to subvert a state in its defense of its sovereign rights as a state by the use of the military. This is the way of a dictatorship.

If it can be done in educational matters it can be done in any dispute involving a difference of opinion between a state and the federal government. The 10th Amendment to the Constitution states: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution

DIED

REV. A. J. TORREY

Word was received in Oakland of the death of Rev. Arthur Josiah Torrey, which occurred September 28, at Waldwick, New Jersey.

Rev. Torrey was a former Episcopal rector of St. Matthew's parish in Oakland and was organizer of Oakland Boy Scout troop 1, which later became troop 31, which is still in existence.

He is survived by his wife, whom he married while residing in Oakland. She was the former Miss Marion Henton.

Fellowship Holds Session

The Women's Fellowship of the Cherry Grove Church of the Brethren met at the home of Mrs. Earl Harper. "King of Kings" was the topic of the program with Mrs. Genevieve Swauger presiding.

At a business meeting it was decided to hold the meetings on the first Tuesday of each month. Mrs. Genevieve Swauger was elected delegate to District Meeting and Mrs. Harper as alternate.

Eleven members answered roll call. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Bowman.

Form Junior Choir

A junior choir is now being formed at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Oakland. Composed of boys and girls in the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades. The choir will be directed by Mrs. Dean McFarland. Sally Buchanan will accompany on the piano for practice sessions.

The junior choir will hold its first meeting on Tuesday, October 23, immediately after school in Fellowship hall. Plans call for weekly practice sessions.

nor prohibited to it by the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people." One may argue, perhaps fruitlessly in the light of Mississippi's experience, that since power has never been delegated to the United States government the states can insist that action in this sphere is reserved to them exclusively. It is certain, however, that never has the power been granted to the executive branch of the federal government to intrude itself with troops into the management and operation of the educational systems of the various states—Scotland Neck, N. C., Commonwealth.

CAPITOL COMMENT

by Charles "Mac" Mathias
Congressman, 8th District, Maryland

Report On The 87th Congress

The 87th Congress has been slow in reaching adjournment. Each day as adjournment is predicted, it becomes necessary to postpone it to another day. I hope that by October 13 the Congress will have adjourned and the chapter will be closed on another constructive session of the United States Congress.

As I look back over the events, not only of the session which is just expiring but the session which preceded it, I feel that there is much to report to the American people. Some of the things that have been done are positive and progressive accomplishments. Other things that we have done are important because we have prevented what a majority of members of Congress felt would be steps along the wrong road for America. You can be fully as positive in objecting to bad legislation as you can be in agreeing to legislative programs that are good for America.

In an attempt to make the record of the 87th Congress available to all of the people of the Sixth Congressional District, I have compiled a report which summarizes the newsletters that have gone to you and the Capitol Comments that have appeared week by week in your newspapers and come to you through the courtesy of your radio station. The summary is in the form of an address which was offered to the House of Representatives and has been printed in the Congressional Record. The remarks cover both sessions of the 87th Congress and include items of legislation which are of national importance as well as some which are of particular significance to the Sixth Congressional District of Maryland. I am arranging to have reprints made of this report of the 87th Congress. If you do not receive one and would like to obtain a copy, send a postcard with your name and address to your Congressman, Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., and I will be very glad to send you a reprint.

One of the happy parts of the report deals with the economic situation in our own Sixth Congressional District.

For example, I report that the unemployment rate in Western Maryland has fallen sharply in the last few months. In Cumberland the rate is down to 6.3% from a

To The Voters Of Garrett County

MARTHA I. GLOTFELTY

Republican Candidate For

HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Solicits Your Support In The General Election, November 6, 1962

I present once again for the voters my qualifications for the office I seek.

I graduated from Redstone Township High School, Republic, Pa., with high honors. While in high school, I had training in both public speaking and debating.

I attended Waynesburg Collene and California State Teachers' College, California, Pa., and was a teacher in the public schools of Pa. for three years.

Thirty years ago, my husband and I moved on an old run-down farm near Bittinger. Over the years, by our own initiative and hard work we have built a modern, well-equipped farm and home, and I believe during those years, I have done about every conceivable chore of a farm woman, and have faced about every problem, economic or otherwise, known to farmers. Therefore, I believe I understand well the farmer's problems.

I am now fifty-four years of age, and have excellent health. I have three sons and one grandson.

I have been a life-long Republican, and have always worked for the party. Some years ago, I helped re-write a new constitution for the Republican Women's Club and served as its first president.

I have taken part in many and varied community activities in past years. I have served as President of the Garrett County Council of Parents and Teachers, President of the Council of Homemakers' Clubs, President of the Associated Women of Farm Bureau, and was President of the W. Va. Synod of United Lutheran Church Women.

I am presently serving on the Council of Farming for Better Living. I have served on that Council since the program was started several years ago. I am a member of a county-wide Education Committee, dealing with our school problems. For the past two years, I have served as President of the Garrett County Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. I am a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Bittinger, serve as organist, Church School teacher, and President of Lutheran Church Women of my own congregation.

For two years, I was Red Cross fund raising chairman for the county. I have served as Rural Service Chairman for the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers, and am a life member of that organization.

I received a special citation for my work in that field. Our Republican Women's Club recommended that legislation be passed which would allow women to serve on the jury in Garrett County. That was done, and I have served on a jury in this county, and on October 1st served on a jury in U. S. District Court in Baltimore.

In my campaign to this point, I have not discredited any of my opponents, either Republican or Democrat. I wish the voters to decide on my own merits and ability as a person. I have not aligned myself in any way with any person or groups, and have no intentions of doing so. That leaves me free to make my own individual decisions.

I am interested in all of Garrett County, its farmers, its workers, its recreational development. I am greatly interested in all of our institutions, our public schools, our hospital, our nursing homes, and all that render public service to our people in this county.

I am making a vigorous campaign, and I am asking all-out Republican support, and also from my many friends in the Democratic party.

Church To Sponsor Illustrated Lecture

St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Oakland, will sponsor an illustrated lecture by the Rev. W. Shelby Walthall, rector, on his recent 11,000 mile automobile trip to Mexico and Central America. It will be held at the Center Street School auditorium, Oakland, Monday, October 22nd, at 8 p. m. Mr. Walthall spent two months during the past summer talking to many people in the six different countries he visited. He was able to photograph in color much of the life in those Latin American republics.

The subject of the lecture will be "Look South of the Border" and will deal with the social, economic and political situation in Latin America as it affects us. Mr. Walthall said he saw what communism was doing there and would report on what he saw. He will also talk about the hazardous journey he made down the Pan American Highway. He and his party, his 10-year old son, Edwin, and a student from the University of Baltimore, Ralph Schmidt, encountered difficulties crossing international borders; they became stuck in the mud in the middle of the road—the Pan American Highway—; they

Church Women Meet

The United Lutheran Church Women of Zion Church, Jennings met October 14, to discuss the topic "Our Ecumenical Responsibilities." Mrs. Susie Yonner, leader, led the study which helped the members appreciate church of non-Lutheran tradition and increased understanding of the roles of the ecumenical bodies such as the National and World Councils of Churches.

Mrs. Donald Hetrick conducted the business. The secretaries and treasurers reports were given by Mrs. Ernest Handwerk and Mrs. Herman C. Meyers, respectively. Announcement was made of a district meeting of Lutheran Church Women to be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Morgantown, W. Va., October 17.

A brief report was given concerning the recent constituting convention at Greenville, Pennsylvania. The home mission study will be taken from the book "Who Cares?" The purpose of this study is to investigate the ministry of mercy to persons of physical and social handicaps.

The November meeting will be held in the church, November 11, when Mrs. Donald Hetrick will present the theme "Help Wanted." The final gathering of the quarterly thank offering will be received. All offerings for the quarterly project, life memberships, are to be submitted at this meeting.

had to ford rivers and streams in the dense jungles and in the mountains; they were robbed on several occasions; they slept in a palm-thatched hut in the jungle of Guatemala with tigers scratching at the back, and with wild monkeys chattering overhead; they were in constant danger of handbills; they had to maintain a sharp lookout for wild life—boa constrictors, bush masters, puma, ocelots, jaguars, etc. And finally in order to get out of Central America it was necessary to put their car on a flat car for the journey out of Guatemala into Mexico for the trip home. The Walthalls car was one of the last to get into Central America this summer. The Pan American Highway was closed on their return trip because of landslides and swollen rivers and streams. They were deep in the rainy season.

Mr. Walthall will illustrate most of these adventures in his lecture. There will be no admission charge. However, a voluntary contribution will be received for the building fund of St. Matthew's Church.

Six deaths, October 13, raised state's 1962 traffic total to 44.

Scabies Eradication Program Begin Oct. 22

Plans for the eradication of sheep scabies require that all flocks in Maryland be inspected for "scabies." This inspection will be conducted in Garrett County starting the week of October 22 by County Agents, livestock inspectors and veterinarians. There will be no charge for the flock inspection and flocks that are infected will be dipped free. All owners owning sheep will be notified by mail as to the date and time of their inspection. County Agent, James McHenry, asks all owners to cooperate by having their flock in or near the barn to meet up the inspection work.

Scabies, sometimes referred to as sheep scab or itch, is a disease caused by an infestation of mites. There are several mites that are capable of causing some degree of itch in sheep it was explained. The psoroptic scab mite is the most important and causes the classical disease called scabies. The entire life cycle of this mite is spent on the sheep.

Scratching, biting the wool, rubbing, and restlessness are the usual signs of infestation. These reactions result in areas of loosened wool at the site of infestation, which includes the shoulders, sides, and the rump.

Affected sheep become restless and spend too much time and energy in biting and scratching. This detracts from feeding and resting, resulting in loss of body weight and, in extreme cases, even death. The inflamed areas become infected with bacteria, causing thickening of the skin.

Dipping is not compulsory in a negative inspected flock. If, however, any of the sheep are to be loaned, traded, exchanged, sold, or moved for any purpose other than immediate slaughter, and the flock is not a state-federal certified scabies-free flock, they must be dipped within ten days before shipment.

If inspection of a flock discloses scabies infestation, the entire flock will be quarantined and must be treated in a permitted dip under supervision of a state or federal authorized inspector in a dipping vat, or the flock may be sold for immediate slaughter within ten days to a slaughtering establishment within the state.

When sheep are dipped in a lard solution the inspector supervising the treatment shall issue a certificate with the statement that slaughter shall be delayed for a period of 60 days. If another permitted dip is used, the necessary delay before slaughter will be so indicated.

All dippings must be certified by a state or federal employee or an accredited veterinarian. The dipping material for sheep which must be dipped under this program will be furnished by the state.

Sheep breeders may dip their own flocks. The dipping must be supervised and certified by a state or federal employee or an accredited veterinarian. Sheep thus properly dipped and the dipping properly certified will have the same status as sheep dipped in other vats.

The Maryland Livestock Sanitary Service has a portable vat available in the state to be used in the scabies eradication program, and an attempt is being made to secure another one.

The flock owner or his hired personnel shall bring the sheep to the vat, handle them through the dipping process and return them to their quarters.

The Democratic Party of Garrett County is interested in the economic improvement and welfare of all of our citizens.

To move in this direction we, the candidates and party leaders, propose and suggest the following:

1. We urge the extension of Route 70 Federal Interstate Highway westward from Hancock, Md., through Allegany and Garrett Counties to the Pennsylvania state line.
2. The speed up in the development of the upper Potomac River Basin.
3. Construction of adequate schools, hospitals, housing and other public utilities such as sewage disposal and the development of State parks and secondary roads.
4. To call upon our officials in Garrett and Allegany Counties and the officials of the municipalities within the counties as well as our State and Federal Government and agencies to exert their efforts toward creating conditions which would make it desirable for the industries we have at present to expand in the Western Maryland area and induce new industries to locate in the area.
5. To further urge these same officials and agencies that a coal research center be established by the appropriate Government agency to develop ways of utilizing one of our most extensive natural resources.

To the end that the above may be accomplished, your support of the Democratic candidates is solicited.

Mrs. Daniel Goldman, of Baltimore, recently completed a two-week "diary" of her family's telephone calls. For each call she also estimated the amount of time, travel and money that was saved by telephoning. At the end of two weeks, the Goldmans' telephone diary showed savings of 21 valuable hours, 293 miles of travel and $22.38.

Mrs. Goldman, who is the mother of four young children (all under ten years) and is active in charitable and community affairs, finds her telephone invaluable. She says, "I don't think our family could accomplish two-thirds of the things we do without the telephone."

What would a telephone diary show in your home? You'd probably find, too, that your phone does far more for you...than the little it costs.

Identify Last Week's Photo The old picture last week, showing two young girls seated on an "airplane," was identified by several readers. The first to supply information was Mrs. Wade Meese, of Oakland. She said the two girls were her sisters, Mrs. Milton Riley (Mary Friend) on the left and Mrs. John Moon (Hazel Friend) on the right, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Friend.

The date, according to Mrs. Meese, was about 1912 or 1913, and the photo was taken during the Chautauqua events at Mt. Lake Park. She believed the model airplane was a prop used by the photographer to attract customers. Mrs. Edward Platter, of Grantsville, sent in a picture of the same airplane, on which her father is posing "My father," she wrote, was ordained to the Methodist minister at the old Amphitheatre in Mt. Lake Park in May of 1911, and the photograph was taken at that time.

Mrs. Platter could not identify the photographer, but an examination of the picture shows a name which appears to be "Blair."

Elect...
W. Dwight Stover
Judge

To The Citizens Throughout Garrett County:

During my first years of public service as the State's Attorney for Garrett County, this county was without the benefit of a Juvenile Law. In the year 1952, I was appointed to serve on a committee to study the need for a Juvenile Law. As a result of the study by the committee upon which I served and the recommendations made by this committee, the General Assembly for Maryland at its Session in 1953 passed a law governing juveniles for Garrett County.

At that time Garrett County was without the benefit of a resident Judge and each of the four Trial Magistrates of Garrett County, as well as the Circuit Court, were given concurrent jurisdiction over juveniles. The discretion resting in the State's Attorney as to whether the case would be held before one of the Trial Magistrates sitting as a Juvenile Court or the Circuit Court for Garrett County sitting as a Juvenile Court.

After the passage of the Constitutional Amendment giving Garrett County a resident Judge that act was repealed and the State wide Juvenile Law was then made applicable to this county. All juvenile cases are now tried before the Associate Judge for Garrett County, Maryland, sitting as a Juvenile Court.

From the foregoing it is evident that I have been interested in the Juvenile Law of this county for over a decade. I have had experience in Juvenile Courts and the Juvenile Law since its very inception. I believe that the voters of Garrett County are interested in having an experienced lawyer as their Judge to sit as the Juvenile Court.

Therefore, I am soliciting the support of all the voters in the General Election to be held on Tuesday, November 6th.

Sincerely yours,

W. DWIGHT STOVER

now it's Pepsi
for those who think young

You can't miss it—today people get into the spirit of things. Find plenty to cheer about. They have more fun, get more out of life. This is thinking young. And this is the life for Pepsi—light, bracing, clean-tasting Pepsi. So go ahead. Think young. In stores, buy an extra carton. At fountains, say "Pepsi, please!"

AMERICA'S MOST CAREFULLY BUILT CAR

IMPERIAL CROWN FOUR-DOOR

To everyone who plans to buy an Imperial, Cadillac or Lincoln this year

If you'd like the best perspective on what your next luxury car can offer, begin with a drive in the new Imperial—first luxury car having its power-train warranted* for five years or 50,000 miles.

Your Imperial dealer is ready to furnish one of his new models for your companion. You'll find Imperial is designed for spaciousness and luxury on the grand scale. Imperial's town-car look is deliberately restrained—and timeless. But its famous roadability is evidence of very timely advances in high-performance power and the largest automatic-adjusting brake system in any American luxury car.

After you've tested and inspected and compared, we'd like your personal judgment of our major premise: that Imperial's differences afford important motoring qualities not found in either Cadillac or Lincoln.

So accept our friendly challenge, please. We're confident that driving an Imperial will influence your ideas about what a luxury car should be and should do.

*Your authorized Imperial Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine, block, head and internal parts, transmission case and internal parts, torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Chrysler Certified Care schedule. Factory approved replacement parts may be used for replacement.

I Believe . . .

A memorial to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., founder of New York's Rockefeller Center, was recently unveiled in the Center's Channel Gardens. Inscribed on a green marble slab is the creed by which he lived:

I believe in the human worth of the individual and in his right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.
I believe that every right implies a responsibility; every opportunity, an obligation; every possession, a duty.
I believe that the law was made for man and not man for the law; that government is the servant of the people and not their master.

I believe in the dignity of labor, whether with head or hand; that the world owes no man a living but that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living.

I believe that thrift is essential to well ordered living and that economy is a prime requisite of a sound financial structure, whether in government, business or personal affairs.

I believe that truth and justice are fundamental to an enduring social order.

I believe in the sacredness of a promise, that a man's word should be as good as his bond; that character—not wealth or power or position—is of supreme worth.

I believe that the rendering of useful service is the common duty of mankind and that only in the purifying fire of sacrifice is the dross of selfishness consumed and the greatness of the human soul set free.

I believe in an all-wise and all-loving God, named by whatever name, and that the individual's highest fulfillment, greatest happiness and widest usefulness are to be found in living in harmony with His will.

I believe that love is the greatest thing in the world; that it alone can overcome hate; that right can and will triumph over might.

Opinions On Slot Machines Voiced by Legislative Hopefuls

A simple bill outlawing slot machines by state-wide law probably could not pass the 1963 Maryland legislature. But one providing for gradual elimination to give four Southern Maryland counties with the gambling devices an opportunity to work out the revenue problem would appear to have a good chance.

This was indicated by a poll of candidates for the next legislature conducted by the Associated Press and newspapers. The question was whether they would vote for state repeal of slot machines which had been legalized by local action in Anne Arundel, Calvert, St. Mary's and Charles counties.

Among Democratic candidates for State Senate 13 replied flatly in the affirmative and five in the negative. The same number of Republicans said "yes" and six "no."

Among those who declined to go on record said they would not hesitate to favor state action if the plan presented included reasonable provision that the financial rug would not be pulled out from under the counties involved.

Responses by candidates for the House of Delegates corresponded with the Senate. There were 54 Democrats ready to go ahead with interposition by the state and 10 against. The Republican count was 57 "yes" and 27 "no."

Among Allegany and Garrett county House and Senate candidates of both parties there was general agreement that slot machines are at best an unstable base for a county's economy and at worst a menace to society.

The entire Allegany county Republican state for House took the Christmas Mailing Dotes Suggested For Overseas

The period November 1 to November 20, has been designated as the time for mailing Christmas parcels to members of the armed forces overseas, it was announced by Robert W. Lohr, acting postmaster. For airmail the period is December 1 to December 10. Greeting cards for the armed forces overseas should be mailed within the periods designated for parcels, if they are to have a reasonable expectation of delivery prior to Christmas, Lohr said.

The term "armed forces overseas" includes personnel of the armed forces, members of their families, authorized U. S. civilians, employed overseas, who receive their mail through an APO at New York, San Francisco or Seattle, Washington, or that mail office in the same three areas.

One Killed, Four Injured In One-Car Wreck On Rt. 135

Clarence Paugh, Akron, 15 Crash Victim Early Sunday

Clarence Elwood Paugh, 27, of Akron, Ohio, was killed, and four persons were injured, one critically, in a one-car accident early Sunday morning on Maryland route 135, in this county. Paugh was driver of the car and was pronounced dead on arrival at Potomac Valley hospital in Keyser. State police said he died of a fractured skull.

Critically injured was Marshall Tasker, 24, star route, Kitzmiller, who was admitted to Potomac Valley hospital with head and chest injuries, multiple contusions and abrasions. He was later transferred to Memorial hospital in Cumberland.

His wife, Mary Ellen Tasker, 23, was admitted to Potomac Valley hospital in serious condition with fractures of both hips, left arm, lower back and pelvis, and multiple abrasions and contusions. She was listed as satisfactory.

Mary June Tasker, 24, Vinex, admitted with multiple abrasions and contusions, was reported in satisfactory condition. Her husband, Leo Tasker, 27, who sustained a laceration of the left arm, and multiple contusions and abrasions, was released from the hospital Sunday.

State Police said the accident occurred at 12:30 a. m. about 200 feet west of the Garrett-Allegany line when the eastbound car failed to negotiate a sharp right curve, rolled over and struck an embankment. The vehicle then traveled an additional 34 feet before coming to rest on its left side. Trooper First Class R. C. Disming investigated.

It was the third fatal accident in the area in the past three weeks, the others being in Allegany county.

Mr. Paugh, native of Keyser, and a former resident of Vinex, was a son of Mrs. Beulah Harvey Paugh, Akron. His father, Clarence R. Paugh, died three weeks ago. He was employed as a foreman for the Superior Tool and Die company, Akron.

Besides his mother he is survived by his wife, Gilda Harvey Paugh, also formerly of Vinex; and two children, Ronald E. and Susan Mae Paugh, at home.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Kitzmiller Methodist church with Rev. Joseph Phillips officiating. Interment was in the Nethken Hill cemetery.

Mathias Supports Action on Cuba

Rep. Charles McC. Mathias issued a statement Tuesday supporting President Kennedy's action on the Cuban crisis.

Rep. Mathias said, "We all favor this action by voting in favor of the Cuban resolution on September 26 and it is now the job of members of Congress to call for national unity on support of the American action now being taken."

"I feel that it is highly desirable that action being requested by the OAS should include enforcement of the Cuban blockade by forces representing our sister Republics of Latin America."

The Latin American republics overwhelmingly approved Wednesday the U. S. arms blockade of Cuba, demanding removal of offensive military bases in that island and endorsed the use of force if needed to end the danger. The vote was 19 to 0. Uruguay's representative abstained.

Not Much Reaction For Civil Defense

Although word of the Cuban crisis caused a flurry of activity in the State civilian defense agency which kept telephones ringing constantly, there was not much of a stir in Garrett county, according to Daniel P. Smouse, county civil defense director.

Mr. Smouse said he had two or three telephone calls and one personal interview, seeking information about fall-out shelters and civil defense information.

However, he said the county organization had been alerted. Fire companies had been contacted, communications officers were called, the West Maryland Power company and the civil air patrol were also contacted and asked to be on the alert for any eventuality.

$2 Bills to Blanket Area in Wage Plan

Ralph R. Humberston, Oakland, announced that he intends to participate in the West Virginia state-wide $2 bill promotion program during October, designed to create public awareness of the importance of the wood products industry to the economy of the area.

Humberston said he would take part in the month-long program through using $2 bills for payrolls and purchases during the month. The estimated payment in $2 bills during the 31-day period will be $3,000.

The Frazee and Sider Lumber company, operated by Garrett County people but located at Rowlesburg, also has adopted the same procedure. Both companies will have a payroll of $14,000 during the month. Humberston operates from Mt. Storm, W. Va.

The special promotion program designed to stimulate public interest in observance of West Virginia Forest Products Week the last week in October and the second annual Governor's conference on wood utilization in Charleston Civic center November 1 and 2, will see the $2 bill put into circulation throughout the area to give impact to the importance of the wood products industry.

So don't be too surprised if you see a lot of $2 bills being circulated in this section.

Voters Urged To Study Proposed Changes In Laws

An appeal to voters to know the issues involved in the proposed constitutional amendments, has been issued by various groups and organizations.

A memorandum from the Associated Press gives a summary of these proposed amendments and other statewide referenda to be submitted to the voters of Maryland on November 4.

There are 8 questions to be submitted to the voters which are statewide, plus one which Garrett countians only will vote on, concerning whether or not the county should have a county manager.

The summary of the eleven questions are given here to help the voters in learning what the questions mean and to assist them in making up their own minds.

Constitutional amendment No. 1, condemnation in Baltimore city. The constitution has provided for nearly 50 years that if property in Baltimore city is desired either by the state or city it may be condemned under a "quick-taking" procedure whereby the estimated value is paid to the owner or into court and the property is taken at once with security to be given for the payment of any further sum that may be awarded later by a jury. The estimated value is determined by appraisers appointed by the court.

The proposed change eliminates appraisers and would permit the "quick taking" upon payment to owners or into court of such amount as state or city estimates as fair value. Payment would also be required of any further sum subsequently added by a jury.

Constitutional Amendment No. 2, to increase number of signers required on a petition to refer an Act of the General Assembly or statewide application to a referendum from present required number of 10,000 signatures to a number equal to 2 percent of the qualified voters of Maryland calculated upon number of votes cast for governor in last election. Article 16 has been in the constitution since 1915.

At that time some 240,000 voters cast ballots for governor. In 1960 more than 750,000 voters cast ballots for governor. Proposal makes no change in requirements for petitions concerning local government.

Frostburg Teacher To Present Program At Civic Club Meet

Miss Dorothy Stone White

Miss Dorothy Stone White, director of drama at State Teachers college, Frostburg, will present the program at the regular meeting of the Oakland Civic club on Tuesday, October 30, at the William-James hotel.

Entitled "Return Engagement," Miss White's presentation will consist of a series of scenes from the books, "The Devil's Advocate," "The Once and Future King," "A Man for All Seasons." Three Broadway plays were adapted from these works. This will be Miss White's second appearance before the club.

A fourth number will feature two students in the Drama department at the college, Anne Brinsmade, freshman, and John Goss, senior, both from Cumberland. In a sequence from Act I of "Caesar and Cleopatra," by George Bernard Shaw.

Miss White's interest in the theatre stems from high school days in Marietta, Ohio, where she had a leading part in the senior class play. In Marietta college and West Virginia university she belonged to campus dramatic organizations.

There are 81 properties in the watershed area and the $12,000 expense is to be apportioned among them. The figures run $1,863.60 for F. and M. Realty Corporation, $1,432 for Garrett National Bank in Oakland; Wallace D. Craig, $1,639.00, and from there on down to $120 for the Kansas H. Mitchell estate.

It will be up to the Watershed association to either accept or reject the recommendations of the viewers.

Assault and Battery Case Is In Reverse

An assault and battery case heard before Trial Magistrate Robert M. Maroney on Tuesday was considered somewhat in reverse. Mr. Maroney said it was the first such case to ever come before him.

The husband, James Bever, was charging his wife Joann Bever, with assault and battery. He appeared for the hearing apparently in a scratched up condition.

Mrs. Bever pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

Senate Cloakroom

By J. GLENN BEALL
United States Senator from Maryland

Senate Committee's Fight With Free Enterprise—Along with millions of other free Americans, I have been appalled at the apparent harassment of honorable businessmen by a subcommittee of the Senate. The Antitrust and Monopoly Subcommittee ordered the officials of several steel companies to reveal their private confidential cost data. The steel company officials demurred because disclosure of their confidential cost data would be detrimental to their companies, to their stockholders, their employees, and to the public. They objected particularly to making their valuable cost data available to foreign competitors, who have already made deep inroads in domestic markets. Unacceptable was the suggestion that the confidential information be furnished in code, for any such code could be broken readily by one in the same line of business. The steel company officials said, in letters to the subcommittee, that counsel had advised them that, in order not to prejudice their attempts to secure determination of the propriety and validity of the subpoenas, they should not recognize the subpoenas. They were threatened with immediate contempt citations.

Regardless of the legal technicalities involved, we do not want our committee hearings to degenerate into actions designed for the sole purpose of exposing American businessmen to fines and imprisonment. Is there anything here even remotely involving criminal intent? The use of subpoena power by committees of the Congress was never intended for such purpose.

Is not the forcing of private industries to divulge their confidential data an attack on the whole private enterprise system? The idea of demanding cost information to determine whether a price increase is needed is repugnant to our American philosophy. Do Senate committees have jurisdiction in the area of price control? Which do we want—price control or competition—price fixing or competitive bidding? The disclosure of cost data could result in virtual price fixing. This we do not want. Protection of confidential cost information makes competitive bidding impossible. Competition is the keystone of the structure of American political and economic philosophy.

This nation was built upon the freedom of the individual to find his own opportunities and make the best of them. Our whole economy rests on and is dependent upon the making of profits. This is the competitive system—and it should be permitted to operate in the free market within the limits of decency and fairness. The American economy can create a glorious future for itself in the later 1960's, the 1970's, and the decades beyond, though it cannot do it if we follow those who would destroy our system of individual initiative and free enterprise. Liberty and freedom must be constantly guarded.

Hitler's "Medicare"—Here's a significant quote from William L. Shirer's book, "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich": "If the Third Reich included compulsory insurance against old age, sickness, accident and incapacity, financed by employers and employees... it did have a profound effect on the working class in that it gradually made them value security over political freedom, and caused them to seek in the State a benefactor and protector. Hitler took full advantage of this state of mind."

Trade Bill Extra Powers For President—The Trade Expansion Act as passed by the Senate, 78 to 8, on Wednesday, gives the President all the powers he asked for. Extending the Reciprocal Trade plan for five years, it enables the President to cut any tariff on the books by 50%, and to scrap some tariffs entirely. It also gives the President the power to raise any tariff up to 50%. If he finds it in the national interest. Although it was the opinion of most Members of both Houses that the President should be authorized to meet the day-to-day challenge imposed by the European Common Market, making it possible for American industry to compete in the market, some of us held reservations about the bill. We would have preferred to have continued the "neither point" provision. We also felt that the provision for extra unemployment compensation for those losing their jobs because of trade concessions discriminates against those out of work because of normal economic dislocations. We felt that all labor should be treated on an equitable basis, without discrimination. The worker out of a job because of normal economic displacement certainly deserves the same consideration as any other unemployed worker. However, considering the new bill as a whole, I

THE COUNTRY-PILOT

WEEKLY SERMON

by Pastor P. F. Nieuwkoop

THE JUSTICE OF GOD

Many people who give ear to Christianity desire to hear about the love of God, but are offended when one mentions the justice of God. What would you think of a judge that is so soft that he allows the guilty to go free? Or a judge that would not uphold the accepted law of righteousness? That would turn his back while people sin with impunity? Surely if we would not think such a judge fit to serve on the bench, how would God be fit to sit in judgement if he did the same? The forgiveness of sin is not obtained by an indulgent Heavenly Father, too loving to enforce justice upon the sinner. The problem that faced God in saving man was simply this: The love of God desired man to be spared from the just penalty of his sin. The holiness of God demanded that the penalty of death be carried out. The only way that man could be spared is that both the love and the justice of God could be satisfied. This God accomplished in the Gospel of Salvation. Jesus Christ died for man's sin, as his substitute, thus satisfying the holiness of God. God was then free to extend His love, and pardon the guilty and give him life eternal.

I think it is an improvement over the old law, particularly in view of the present world market situation.

Khrushchev's Cuban Government—Khrushchev, not Castro, holds the whip hand in Cuba. Cuba now is a Soviet satellite, the only one in the Western Hemisphere. People in West Berlin, sending food packages to relatives in East Berlin, report getting back thank-you cards from Cuba. Khrushchev has threatened us with a rain of nuclear missiles if we intervene in Cuba. I doubt that Khrushchev would start a worldwide nuclear war to save Castro. Castro is that important to him. And Castro's erratic little regime is no great menace to us. However, if Cuba ever came to mean to Khrushchev or anyone else that the United States, for fear of nuclear consequences, would hesitate to act when its peace and safety were threatened, then this would be a real peril.

It would be naive to think the Communists intend to stop their aggressive march in the Western Hemisphere on the shores of Cuba. They have to be stopped, of course. The question is, "What is the best way?" Obviously, it is important that the Castro regime, which is a tool of the Soviets, be ended. This could come about in a number of ways, possibly the most plausible of which would be by counter-revolution. In line with this reasoning, and to the end that a sound, free-world government be established in Cuba, I am joining with Senator George A. Smathers of Florida in sponsoring a resolution for the recognition of a Cuban Government-in-Exile. There are over 200,000 Cubans in Florida, men and women who chose exile rather than live under Communism, and more are arriving every day. I understand that 75,000 of those already in Florida are capable of bearing arms and are anxious to do so in a movement to overthrow the Communist regime. It seems to me that it would be an excellent idea for Cubans to lead the fight, and U. S. official recognition of a Cuban Government-in-Exile would make it possible for the United States to aid them.

There is substantial precedent for our recognition of a government-in-exile. We now recognize the government-in-exile of China, Kai-shek as the Nationalist Chinese Government, though it is located on Formosa, and we do not recognize the government which occupies

The American Way

Another Glimpse at Policy by Robert Morris

(Editor's Note: Robert Morris, Past President of the University of Dallas, was formerly chief counsel of the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security.)

Recently the country was given another fleeting glimpse of the underlying policy that is leading, with each passing month, to the eclipse of our wonderful nation. The glimpse was once again a stolen one and the severe curtain of executive privilege was hurriedly drawn lest the American people wake up to what our planners have in store for them.

Washington correspondent Willard Edwards, an experienced and discerning reporter, wrote two articles on Walt W. Rostow's paper that represents the ultimate in current planning. Rostow is chairman of the State Department's Policy Planning Board and his report represents the collective thinking of himself and a large staff of his planners.

The Edwards articles were based on authentic sources and have not been denied by State Department spokesmen.

According to our planners, the Soviet Union is melting and becoming a "mature" nation; that there is a diffusion of power away from Moscow in the Communist bloc; that Soviet Russia is coming to realize that the severity of the class struggle concept is becoming outdated.

Therefore, they urge that we should try, not to overcome Communism, but to help it in this cupies mainland China. During World War II, the U. S. Government recognized no less than seven governments-in-exile.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and Armed Services, the latter of which I am a member, meeting in joint session, unanimously approved a resolution calling for a firm position on the Cuban situation and in support of "the aspirations of the Cuban people for self-determination."

Russia's Space Secret Exposed—Our Space Administrator, James E. Webb, revealed to a Congressional committee last week that the Russians have attempted planet shots six times and failed every time. He gave dates and particulars. The Russians tried to send a rocket to Mars on October 10, 1960, and again on October 14, 1960. They attempted to reach Venus were made on February 4, 1961, February 12, 1961, August 25, 1962 and September 1, 1962. The second try for Venus achieved a "Venus trajectory" but then all contact was lost.

With these disclosures, Administrator Webb quickly pulled the wraps off the best-kept secret in the Kremlin closet. The Kremlin has never admitted a space failure. But while the Soviets have been able to hide their failures from their own people they have not been able to cover them up from the prying eyes of Western tracking systems.

evolutionary process. "Capitalism will not triumph over Socialism. Rather the victory will be one of men and nations' voluntarily cooperating under principles of the United Nations Charter," writes Mr. Edwards of this extraordinary but official assumption.

This same conciliatory treatment is recommended for Red China. The Chinese Communists can be encouraged to evolve "into a peaceful state by showing them we have no aggressive intentions." In the meantime "unnecessary provocations" are to be avoided.

The corollaries really fall into place. Each one should bring joy to Khrushchev. Edwards writes of these:

"Gentle treatment of the satellite nations is advocated. No official attacks should be made against their regimes, who ever the provocation, and even criticism should be softened. We on Europe, at the same time, must be encouraged to closer relationship with the satellites and urged to furnish all to them.

"East Germany, the policy draft says, cannot be forever insulated from dealings with the United States and business must be transacted with them.

"Above all, no encouragement or support must be given to armed uprisings in eastern Europe."

Government intelligence officials, dealing with the realities of our times, are naturally disturbed. Some have expressed themselves in opposition to Rostow's thinking. Edwards quotes these too:

"They note no lessening of Communist intransigence nor of grim determination to 'bury' the free world. They see in the Rostow recommendations a total misconception of the nature of Communism conspiracy; a naive laughing off its treachery as evidenced in a long history of broken treaties and agreements while steadily pursuing the goal of

Wintry Weather Strikes Mt. Top

Winter weather made its debut rather quickly this week, with temperatures below freezing and snow flurries on two days. There was hardly enough, however, to cover the ground, but it lay on the ground in spots.

The run-down of the week showed the following:

Friday was frosty in early morning but clearing and warmer by degrees. It reached 67 degrees by 3:00. Saturday was also frosty but clear and moderating with temperature 65 degrees at 11 o'clock. Skies clouded in late afternoon and there was rain falling on Sunday morning with fog most of the day and the temperature cooler.

Monday was another frosty one but clear with mercury soaring to 55 by four o'clock. Tuesday was mostly cloudy and cold with rain and some snow flurries by noon. The temperature dropped to 29 on Wednesday morning and it was snowing a good bit of the day. Skies remained overcast.

Records show there was snow on October 14, last year, so the pattern was not much changed from a year ago, except that the snow came about 10 days later. Continued cold is forecast for the week-end.

Three Are Injured In Two-Car Wreck

Trooper Don Elmore said the accident occurred at 7:15 p. m., about five miles east of Mt. Storm on route 50.

The trooper said one of the drivers apparently went across the center line and struck the other vehicle. The trooper continued his investigation.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear son, Grover C. Friend, who passed away twenty-six years ago, October 22.

Can it ever be so when you've lost a son.

Do you know the sorrow that's filling our lives?

It may have happened to you. Our son had only begun to live.

And now his life is through. Understand and always believe, It isn't myself for whom I grieve, I cry for the years he never knew. The dreams he had that never came true.

Please, dear God, grant his soul eternal rest.

Keyser Is Winner Over Southern 40-7

Bradfield, tri-state area's leading scorer, chalked up three touchdowns in leading Keyser High to a 40-7 triumph over the Highlanders of Southern High school last Friday night in a Potomac Valley Conference game at Oakland.

The victory was Keyser's sixth in seven outings, giving it a 4-4 record in the P.V.C. Southern is 3-4 overall and 1-3 in the conference. Cox scored two touchdowns, one coming on a 70-yard run in the final period. Ours recovered a fumble in the end zone for the other six-pointer. Rotruck kicked two extra points and linehart and Condon plunged for two other conversions.

Carl Corbin set up the Southern score in the final quarter by blocking a punt. Jim Stewart who had been playing in the line until this game, ran over from the two and also plunged the extra point. Jon Thayer was missing from the line-up because of disciplinary action.

The Southern score was the first to be made by any opponent in the P.V.C. The Highlanders score came in the final period. It was Southern's final home game.

Congressman Visits Potomac Dam Site

Congressman Charles McC. Mathias, Jr. (R-Md.) last Friday visited the newly authorized Bloomington Dam site on the South Branch of the Potomac River.

Mr. Mathias was accompanied by economic development officials and labor and business leaders of Allegany and Garrett counties.

Congressman Mathias and the other officials were briefed at the site by Colonel Roy S. Kelly, of the Corps of Engineers, and other experts from the Corps. Colonel Kelley is District Engineer in charge of the Baltimore District of the Corps, which is responsible for planning and construction of the project.

As authorized, the project provides for construction on the North Branch of the Potomac, in the vicinity of Bloomington, of a dam and reservoir for flood control, water supply, water quality control and recreation. The estimated cost is $50,965,000. The project was approved by Congress just a week ago, on the final day of the session.

Congressman Mathias noted that the project will provide substantial benefits in improved water quality, increased water supply and prevention of flood damages. Recreation benefits also will be realized, Mathias said.

To Permit Grazing On Diverted Acreage

Effective November 1, farmers will be permitted to graze land diverted from corn and wheat production under the 1962 Feed Grain and Wheat Stabilization Programs, according to Arthur G. Fitzwater, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Agreements signed by farmers in connection with these programs provided that diverted land must remain out of production until the end of 1962. However, the Department of Agriculture recently announced that it was releasing such land for grazing as of November 1. The release does not apply in any case where the diverted land was seeded to wildlife food plots or to any land on which grain matured in 1962. Also, Mr. Fitzwater emphasized that the release does not apply to Soil Bank land.

Democrats in Maryland carry a 2 1/2 to 1 edge over Republicans.

Berlin Romps Over Northern Huskies

Mike McKinley turned out to be a one-man wrecking crew for Berlin-Brothersvalley High school last Friday night as the Pennsylvanians shellacked Northern High Huskies of Accident 48 to 13, at Berlin.

McKinley racked up four touchdowns and added four extra points. Two of his touchdown jaunts were for more than 60 yards.

For the Northern Huskies, who dropped their fifth game in seven starts, Danny Nicklow scored on a 25-yard run and Kiellen McGraw tallied from four yards out. Yeonkin got one extra point on a plunge.

Northern had seven first downs to 9 for Berlin, with the difference being in the long run. There was a 58-yard kickoff return by B. Smith for the winners.

Northern will conclude its season next Saturday, October 27, on the Northern gridiron at 1:30 p. m.

Letters to the Editor

Editor—The Republican:
The purpose of this letter is to call attention of all the Voters to the County Manager Bill which will be on the ballot at the coming General Election.

This Bill was rushed through the Legislature by our Garrett County Delegation without any provision for a vote upon the proposal by our interested citizens. It was passed through both the Senate and the House within a few hours, under a suspension of the rules.

The Bill was to have gone into effect on June 1. However, a petition for a vote upon the Bill was prepared and circulated. Over twelve hundred signatures were secured. The petition and the signatures were found to be in order and the Bill was ordered placed upon the Ballot for approval or rejection by our Garrett County voters.

The Bill would require our County Commissioners to appoint a County Manager. It then transfers to the County Manager all the powers now exercised by our Board of County Commissioners. The amount of his salary is not named in the Bill. The Commissioners would have power to move and hear the County Manager make his reports from time to time, but it is not clear what, if anything, they could do about it if they do not approve of the manner in which the so called Manager is running the County's business. The Commissioners could vote to dismiss the County Manager, but then he could ask for a public hearing. Then if they could find sufficient grounds they might dismiss him by paying him three months' salary in advance. The Bill also states that the County Manager shall supervise and administer the County Roads Department.

If this Bill should ever become a law then we will no longer be able to hold our elected county commissioners responsible for any extravagance, waste, or mismanagement. Neither will we be able to vote a County Manager out of office.

A few of the larger counties in our State have County Managers who are mostly administrative secretaries. They merely carry out the decisions and orders of the Board of County Commissioners. Anne Arundel county is the only county in the State that has the kind of a law that is proposed here. The bill for Garrett county is drawn word for word from the Anne Arundel County law, where it has passed without any controversy. There, the Commissioners have been trying for nearly two years to dismiss the County Manager. He asked for and was given a public hearing. Then they voted again to dismiss him, but through various Court actions he has somehow managed to hold on, and to the best knowledge of this writer he is still drawing his salary.

The above is submitted for the consideration of our voters, and as a public service.

Sincerely,
A. Donald Frazee
Friendsville, Md.

Dear Sir:
I wish to allay any fears your readers may have regarding my visit to the Bloomington, Maryland Parent Teachers Association meeting recently.

Several of my opponents in Allegany County advise me that the visit gave the impression that I would like to amend the county boundary between our two beautiful counties so the town of Bloomington would be in Allegany County.

I wish to emphatically deny that such was my intention.
On Thursday, October 11, my brother Jim and I were returning from a dinner meeting at Deep Creek Lake of the folks who have traveled to Europe and Hawaii with the Times News Tours.

Very truly yours,
Thomas F. Conlon, Jr.

Dear Sirs:
I am writing you concerning the article called "OLD GERMAN BIBLE STIRS INTEREST HERE" in regard to Robert C. Resch.

It was very interesting, since I have one also.
This Bible is entirely in German. Published in 1874. And was brought to this country by a family named "Wilhelm". Although the cover is very worn, it is the Original one. Inside cover reads as follows:
DIE BIBEL OBER DIE GANZE FEILIGE SCHRIFT RES. ALTEN UND NEUEN TESTAMENTS. BREVEIER GERMAN. 12 mo.

Any interested parties may obtain this Bible by contacting Rev. Carl Kiser, Levittown, Pa. Windsor 5-6856. Must be seen to approve the value, and the beauty of this Holy Bible. Other information may be obtained by contacting the owner.

Respectfully,
Rev. Carl Kiser

How Would Uncle Sam Handle Cuba?

Amidst all of the current arguments about Cuba, we can't help wondering what ever happened to Uncle Sam—that image of a highly principled, freedom-loving, non-sense America. When Uncle Sam was in the driver's seat, situations like the present Cuban dilemma were short-lived, because Uncle Sam put his foot down right away.

So we can't help wondering: how would Uncle Sam handle our Cuban problem if he were around today?

Without claiming any clairvoyant powers, we suggest he'd probably do the following:

He'd first declare that the United States can not tolerate a Communist government spreading subversion throughout Latin America from a base only 90 miles from Florida—and would institute "non-violent" means for ending it.

Realizing that Cuba imports a great many of the necessities of life he would set about to deprive the island of the products it needs.

He would declare an absolute embargo on all trade with Cuba.

He would demand that all Latin American nations—and allies everywhere in the world—break off all diplomatic relations, aid, and trade with the Castro regime. Any country that refused to do so would be boycotted by us in the same fashion that we are boycotting Cuba.

Any nation complaining that this was dictatorial would be asked if it would prefer to exist without our aid or trade.

Our Navy should then blockade all entrances to the island, to prevent Soviet aid from reaching Cuba.

Uncle Sam's program would be legal, non-violent, morally right—and would probably put Castro at the mercy of Cuban Patriots within 90 days.

Uncle Sam's treatment of Castro would be no harsher than the way our government has treated pro-American governments in Peru and Must the various states leave action against the Communist menace up to Washington? Is there nothing back home to do? Louisiana believes there is, and what she has done to combat Communism, all the 49 other states could do. The legislature of the State of Louisiana, recognizing the existence of "a clear, present and distinct danger" to its security and to the well-being of its citizens, has this year set up its own legislation to regulate and control Communist propaganda. It has also revised and strengthened existing State laws relating to control of Communists and their conspiracy.

These laws were passed following hearings conducted last March by "The Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities, State of Louisiana," with Representative James H. Pfister, New Orleans, as chairman and Jack N. Rogers, Baton Rouge, as counsel. The Committee concluded that the danger arose from the infiltration of a significant amount of Communist propaganda as well as the fact that the State was a shipping point for sending dangerous material to other states and foreign countries.

Attacks by propaganda, they reasoned, can be just as dangerous and therefore as subject to legislative remedy as narcotics, alcohol, pornographic literature, or kidnapping. Moreover, federal legislation on the subject either was inadequate or not effectively enforced, in view of the large quantities of unlabeled and unidentified material entering Louisiana, particularly from Mexico and other foreign countries. They also found that the U. S. mails were being used extensively, especially the favorable bulk mailing rates, to send this material to Louisiana's citizens.

The new law makes generous exceptions for students of foreign political systems and bona fide research projects. But any such material entering legally will have to be labeled in red ink: "Communist Propaganda." With these exceptions, Communist propaganda materials (defined in terms similar to those of federal laws) are considered illicit and contraband. It becomes a felony "to knowingly, willfully and intentionally deliver, distribute, disseminate, or store" such material in Louisiana. Violators of the act may be fined $10,000 or imprisoned six years, or both.

The other legislation recognizes additional infiltrative tactics of the Communists. It is meant to provide full surveillance and control of any Communists in the State, as well as their organizations.

The legislation enacted calls for the annual registration under oath and fingerprinting of Communists and members of Communist front organizations, with the Department of Public Safety. It also prevents the Communist Party from appearing on election ballots, disqualifies Communists and knowing members of front organizations from any public office or public employment, outlaws subversive organizations, and makes it a felony with stiff penalties for anyone to carry on activities in subversive organizations.

In short, Louisiana is having no sympathy toward any Communist person, organization, or activity. The wonder of it is not so much that now one state at last has said NO to Communism, but that any sovereign state in the Union could delay even this long in giving its firm answer to the sinister challenge of Communism. But Louisiana's action is a fine example that ought to stir our 49 other states to declare themselves.

the Dominican Republic.
Uncle Sam would not plead and beg the Latin American nations to pass weak resolutions against Cuba, he would not grovel before those who expropriate our property and accept our handouts. Uncle Sam would stand firmly for what is right.
It's ironic that we're currently

Who's Affluent?

Ten thousand dollars a year is an above-average income, and the Government lays heavy taxes upon it. Such earners are considered the "affluent" in our supposedly "affluent society", and it is presumed that they live in the lap of luxury. Who could ask for anything more? A Washington newspaper suddenly had an idea. Why not ask them? So out went a reporter to find out what such a family wanted. A man, wife and three children were located, who lived on a $10,000 salary.

It turned out that this family, living in Washington's steamy climate, hankered for one, or even two room air conditioners. They would like to have a new kitchen range. Their home could use about $5,000 worth of repairs and renovations, and if they could afford it, they'd buy a stereo phonograph. A second car would be nice, too, with Washington's unhandy public transportation.

Allred Krewatch, extension agricultural engineer, University of Maryland will be the speaker. He will present a pictorial travelogue of his tour across the United States two years ago when he was traveling in the interests of the West-Inhouse 4-H Foundation. His pictures will be presented in a unique manner by the use of two projectors and screens operating simultaneously.

All 70 of the competing farm families have submitted their year's reports. James A. McHenry, county extension service agent and secretary of the FFBL Council, said this week. Selection of a county winner will be made next Tuesday when the FFBL board grading committee meets to examine the farm reports. The winning family will be presented at the end of the dinner on the 9th. L. Bush Swisher, Farming For Better Living project director, Morgantown, W. Va., has announced.

Beyond this they would like a sailboat, membership in a flying club and ski equipment.

So it appears they lack some necessities, and would like these and some luxuries. With an income like that, why don't they buy them?

It was also revealed in Washington a few days before, that relief clients (who didn't belong on the rolls legally anyway) were buying just such luxuries on time payments. The $10,000 a year family is sacrificing its tax money to pay for them.

One reliever owned up to purchasing a $410 stereo phonograph just like our $10,000 a year family would like to own and can't afford to buy. Others were buying TV sets, refrigerators and other flossy items they didn't work for, even though they were able to work.

Taxes take about 30 per cent of the income of such a "high income family", which accounts for their lot, sleepless nights, the obsolete stove and the unrepaid home. The things this family can't buy adversely affect employment.

This is something to remember when it's argued that Government spending is needed to "stimulate" the economy. What the Government spends, it spends instead of letting those who earned it spend it. That's all.

Elect... W. Dwight Stover Judge

To The Citizens Throughout Garrett County:

The Constitution of Maryland, Article IV, Section 2, provides that the Judges of the Circuit Courts of this State shall be selected from those who have been admitted to practice law in this State, and "who are most distinguished for integrity, wisdom and sound legal knowledge." Therefore, the Constitution of Maryland does emphasize honesty, uprightness and learning as qualifications needed by a Judge.

We agree that one should be impartial, unbiased and unobligated. These virtues should be possessed by any nominee for the position of Associate Judge for the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland. Without them, a Judge could not be fair to himself or to the participants that appear before him in Court.

I have been in public service for over a decade in this county as the State's Attorney. You have had the opportunity to observe. You know whether I have been impartial, unbiased and unobligated. Observation over an extended period of time will truly give the viewer the answer to the presence or absence of these traits.

I believe that I have been fair, impartial and unbiased during the period of more than ten years I have served in public life. I know that I am unobligated. I am not controlled by any person, persons or groups of persons. I have not made any promise or promises to any person, persons or group of persons. If I am elected, I will do my utmost to administer the law in a fair and impartial manner.

I respectfully solicit the support of all the voters in the General Election to be held on Tue-day, November 6th.

Sincerely yours,
W. DWIGHT STOVER

UNICEF Plan For Trick Or Treats

Halloween will soon be here and that's the time for UNICEF Trick or Treaters. Again this year it is hoped that Garrett County will do its part in this program.

A UNICEF Halloween can mean that 1 cent can provide 5 glasses of milk; 5 cents—vaccine to protect 5 children from T. B.; 10 cents—penicillin to cure 2 children of yaws, and 25 cents means 125 vitamin tablets. For the world's sick and hungry children these things can be made possible with just a little help from all.

Material has gone out to some communities in the county, but there is still some where no volunteer has been acquired. This is a project for any 4-H, M.Y.F., or Scout group. All it takes is the concern of one adult who will supervise the collection. If interested call Westernport FL 9-9154 or write Mrs. Robert Farnbacher, Bloomington. There is still time to plan a UNICEF Halloween.

Faculty To Present Program At P-TA

The faculty will present the program in individual classrooms at the regular meeting of the Center Street Elementary school Parent-Teacher association, to be held Monday, November 5. A business meeting will begin at 8.

Parents will have an opportunity to learn about the school curriculum. Fred Benson, president, said it would help parents to see their child's school setting and understand the activities planned for the year. Mrs. Erval Ream will read a poem. Refreshments will be served by home room mothers of Mrs. Travis, Mrs. Johnson's and Mrs. Buchanan's home rooms.

Mr. Benson said that November 11 to 17 was being designated as American Education week and that visitation at the school would be Thursday, November 15, from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m. He said due to the increasing number of lunches being served, some 270 per day the cafeteria would be unable to accommodate parents on that day.

Linda Cogley, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray "Simon" Cogley, underwent surgery in Children's hospital, Baltimore, yesterday.

Recommendations on State Questions Given

Recommendations on the proposed constitutional amendments and referred laws were listed Wednesday in the Morning Sun. Usually these recommendations are sound and in the hope that readers will avail themselves of the information in an effort to vote wisely on the matters, the following comment is copied from that newspaper.

State Questions

In the November balloting, voters will be asked to pass on nine State Questions. These will appear on the ballots and voting machines of all State subdivisions and will be numbered uniformly from 1 through 9. Five of the questions concern State constitutional amendments. The other four are referenda on acts of the State Legislature.

Following is a summary statement of The Sun's position on these nine questions, all of which have had previous attention in the news and editorial columns:

Questions No. 1 and No. 3. Constitutional amendments altering procedure for "quick take" of condemned property for public purposes in Baltimore city and Montgomery county. They are essentially technical in nature, proposed in the interest of efficient procedure, and the rights of property owners are fully protected. VOTE FOR.

Question No. 2. Constitutional amendment increasing the number of signatures required for a referendum petition and is inspired by recent abuses of the referendum procedure. The number required would be raised from the present 10,000 to 3 percent of the vote cast for governor in the last previous election—roughly 23,000 at the present time. To some extent this will discourage abuse of the referendum procedure. VOTE FOR.

Question No. 4. This amendment would raise the salaries of State legislators from $1,800 a year to $2,000. The present expense allowance of $20 per day plus mileage would remain unchanged. This would be the third raise for legislators since 1912 for attendance at an average of 60 days per year. The case for an increase is not convincing. VOTE AGAINST.

Question No. 5. This amendment is the first move in an effort to cure more effectively with the problem of the support of illegitimate children. Through a constitutional amendment, a man can be imprisoned for failure to support his legitimate child but the parent of an illegitimate child cannot be, except in a roundabout way. The purpose is to correct this anomaly, a necessary precondition to new laws under which the State can compel irresponsible parents to meet their responsibility for the support of illegitimate offspring. VOTE FOR.

Question No. 6. The General Assembly of 1961 passed a redistricting law, which, though it raises the number of congressional districts from seven to eight, does not in fact meet the need for an equitable redistricting of the State. The General Assembly must be required to do better than this. VOTE AGAINST.

Question No. 7. Over the years a number of loopholes inconsistent with the spirit of the original unemployment act have developed in its administration. This act closes a number of those loopholes. It also increases the maximum basic unemployment benefit from $35 to $38 per week. The reforms embodied in it were exhaustively debated and are desirable. VOTE FOR.

Question No. 8. Everyone remembers the legislative battle in the spring of 1961 that was required to get through a law to regulate the savings and loan industry. A petition sponsored by James H. Pollack suspended the operation of that regulatory law, equipping a special session and passage of emergency legislation to take its place. For technical reasons the emergency law, which is now in effect, is inferior to the original law. Approval of the original law is desirable. VOTE FOR.

Question No. 9. This is the original law establishing a Municipal Court for Baltimore city, likewise forced into suspension by a referendum petition sponsored by James H. Pollack, and likewise replaced in a special session by emergency enabling legislation. This made it possible to proceed with the organization of the Municipal Court but approval of the original law is needed to assure the court's establishment on an impeccable basis. VOTE FOR.

The opening of a bridge across Pacific entrance to Panama canal was opened October 12. Five American Nazi storm troops were charged with inciting to riot in Philadelphia.

BERNARD M. GUY

BLOOMINGTON Candidate For

COMMISSIONER DISTRICT I

I have carried on a vigorous campaign trying to reach as many people as possible in every section of the county. Sorry I could not talk with every one of you, but of course that would be humanly impossible. It has been a real pleasure to attend so many nice dinners sponsored by the various church groups and other organizations. In this way the women of the county so aptly play their part in getting the people out to meet all the candidates.

To those of you whom I did not have the pleasure of meeting, I submit a summary of my life and qualifications for the office of County Commissioner.

I have been a resident of Garrett County for more than thirty (30) years and prior to that I lived in Baltimore.

I have been engaged in public business and a property owner since 1937. I married the former Lola Pattison of Bloomington and have one daughter. I am well known to many people of the county. I have been a member of many civic groups such as Farm Bureau, P. T. A., Volunteer Firemen, American Legion, Western Maryland Builders' Association and National Builders' Association. I am a veteran of World War II.

I am presently associated with Charles Pattison in the Pattison and Guy Construction Company of Bloomington.

Having had experience in farming, timbering, deep mining, strip mining, building, real estate and land developing I feel I would be qualified to handle many of the county's problems most economically.

I am in favor of continued improvement in the Departments of Education, Roads, Agriculture and Health. I feel there is an urge to need to encourage new industry to locate in Garrett County to provide more job opportunities, to discourage outer migration, especially of our young people, the citizens of tomorrow.

If elected to the office of County Commissioner, I will give my wholehearted support to a better and more prosperous county. I sincerely solicit the support of all the voters in the election, November 6.

Three Are Injured In Auto Accident

Three persons were admitted to Potomac Valley hospital in Keyser Monday evening following an auto-trailer accident near McConale.

Admitted were Victor H. Harvey, 62, of Bloomington; his wife, Mrs. Margaret L. Harvey; and Mrs. Belle Batie, Cumberland, who were reported in satisfactory condition. They sustained abrasions and contusions.

Uninjured in the accident was John A. McDonald, 25, route 2, Jane Lew, W. Va., driver of the tractor trailer. Trooper R. W. Brown said the accident occurred at 6:30 p. m. McDonald who was traveling south on the highway came upon an unidentified log truck which was traveling slowly.

When McDonald applied the brakes of the rig the trailer swung across the center line into the path of the Harvey vehicle traveling north. The tractor trailer driver was charged with failure to keep to the right side of the highway. Damage to the Harvey car was estimated at $1,800 and damage to the trailer about $200, police said.

Police said the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, both in the front of the car, had their seat belts fastened undoubtedly saved their lives.

Sanitarian Plans To Attend Workshop In Baltimore

Charles B. Miller, sanitarian for the county health department, along with sanitarians from Allegany county will be among those attending a workshop for health department sanitarians on October 31 and November 1 in Baltimore.

Technical aspects of food service equipment will be discussed. Mr. Miller said there were many new and complex pieces of equipment being put into use and this session will be an inservice training period for them.

He said the health department carries on a continuing program of sanitation involving restaurants and food handling and processing plants in order to protect the public from food-borne disease. Sanitarians perform inspections and conduct workshops and demonstrations for food handlers and operators.

Mr. Miller said the local health department takes the attitude that this county, being a prominent recreational area, must maintain the highest standards in its eating and drinking establishments, making them attractive and as safe as possible to people who come here as well as regular residents.

Pictures Out Of The Past

Methodist Leaders Met At Deer Park During June Of 1896

This week's old photograph is another furnished by Charles A. Jones, formerly of Deer Park, who for many years has resided in Columbus, Ohio.

Concerning the picture, Mr. Jones writes:

"The guest capacity of Deer Park Methodists was taxed to its utmost in June, 1896, when the Oakland District Conference of the Methodist church met in the village. This picture shows part of the conference assembled in front of the Methodist church, which burned one Sunday morning a couple of years later.

"Many of those shown in the group cannot now be identified, but those who can include:

To the rear right of the lamp post and wearing a hat is Rev. Stephen K. Arbutnot, pastor at Oakland. To the left of the post was Rev. J. N. Sharps and to the far left is Henry A. Hardesty, layman. Prominent in the upper center is Rev. E. P. Idleman, and over by the porch post is J. N. Rodenheaver, layman of Deer Park.

The boy by the lamp post, holding his hat, is Charles A. Jones, now of Columbus, Ohio, and the smaller boy to his left is E. Ray Jones, Oakland attorney, whose chief memory of the conference is the trial of some ministers accused of violating their pledge not to use tobacco.

"It is stated that this photograph of Dr. J. W. Laughlin is the only one known of a man for many years prominent in the county."

Named On Commission

In line with the appointment of members of a Commission for the Aging, by other counties of the state the County Commissioners have named a county-wide committee which includes Mrs. Virginia Fizer, Oakland, temporary chairman; Donald Newman, Grantsville; Mrs. Bernard Gonder, Sr., Oakland; Mrs. Britten Martin, Mt. Lake Park; Donald E. Friend, Loch Lynn Heights; Mrs. Leslie Guard, Friendsville; Mrs. Marie Smith, Kitzmiller. Yet to be named are representatives from Accident and Deer Park and one more member from Oakland.

A regional meeting is scheduled for November 13, in Cumberland.

Names Commission To Study Criminal Sentencing

Governor J. Millard Tawes last week appointed a 16-member commission comprised of judges, lawyers and sociologists to study the question of sentencing in criminal cases in Maryland.

The Governor followed a recommendation made to him by the Maryland State Bar association, while in convention in Atlantic City last June. Judge Morgan C. Harris, Allegany county, is a member of the commission.

The determination of sentences in criminal cases in Maryland is within the discretion of one judge who acts on an irrevocable basis so long as he does not commit an error of law. This has given rise to criticism by judges, lawyers and criminologists, who have cited the existence of what they term unjustifiable disparities in sentencing. It was believed the study would determine whether sentencing disparities are or are not justifiable.

Thirty nations in a resolution in U. N. urged an end to nuclear tests.

RE-ELECT

H. M. (BUDDIE) WEEKS

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE

FOR

Judge of the Orphans' Court

I earnestly and respectfully solicit your vote and influence at the November Election, irrespective of your party affiliation.

Thank you.

THAT'S A WONDERFUL STORY!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Yes, that's a wonderful story. Maybe he'll be president some day, or like the man in the storybook. Maybe his picture will one day be shown in an historic sketch—a flashback of the life of someone famous.

It could be you. It could be your own child, or someone you know. The young have dreams. The old have visions. But, from young dreams come realities.

The greatest reality is God. He is waiting . . . for you. He waits in your church. Relive the dreams of long ago this Sunday . . . in church we call those dreams, prayers! For prayer is often but a wish, and frequently a silent "thank you" signed to God. You can face stern realities with stronger faith, if you have that faith renewed—often.

To The Voters of Garrett County:
It was my sincere desire to visit and talk with each of you personally during this election campaign. However, due to my responsibilities, that has been impossible. Perhaps I can acquaint myself to you in this manner.

I have been a life-long resident of Garrett County, a dairy farmer and taxpayer for many years.

I am a staunch supporter of the Republican Party, and served four years as Treasurer of the Republican State Central Committee. I am a member of the Paradise E U B Church and a past Sunday School Superintendent. I am a charter member and former officer in the Mountain Lake Park Circuit Brotherhood.

I am a member of the K. of P. Lodge, the W O W. Lodge of Crellin, and an active Farm Bureau member for many years. I helped organize the Garrett County Fair Association six years ago and have been treasurer and a director since that time.

I have always been interested in the economic development of our county, the public schools, and am in favor of road improvement—anything that is for the benefit of our people.

I am grateful for what each of you has done for me in the past, and earnestly ask your continued support and your VOTE in November.

If elected, I will strive to faithfully and efficiently execute the duties of the office of County Commissioner, and will serve you to the best of my ability.

Thanking you sincerely,
ALLEN S. "Dick" PAUGH

God Within

Lesson for October 28, 1962

SOMETIMES it looks as if the Church made it harder instead of easier to believe in God. The church talks about the Trinity, but we don't understand that.

It talks about the Holy Spirit, but that seems very hard to understand. On the contrary, the Church's teaching about the Holy Spirit (all the good of which we owe to the Bible in the first place) makes God much nearer than we would otherwise dare to think about Him.

In fact, a definition of the Holy Spirit which many Christian teachers have expressed is just this: The Holy Spirit is God at work in the hearts of men. The Holy Spirit is God-within. You will never be any closer to God nor He to you, than you are to the Holy Spirit.

He will send . . . I will send . . . Of course no reader will suppose that he can find out all there is to know about God, in one single column in a newspaper. God cannot be shut up in a million books, and of course not in a few lines of print. The Bible material for this week's study gives much more than we can deal with in so short a space. All we can do is to point out three truths, all of them from the teaching of Jesus.

First of all is that apparent contradiction: Jesus tells His disciples first that the Father will send them the Holy Spirit, and then that He (Christ) will do so. We are intended to put these two truths together. The Holy Spirit comes from the Father and comes from the Son of God, from Jesus Christ. Now if you insist on puzzles, there are puzzles in that simple statement. But let's bypass the puzzles, and look at what is plain. The least this can mean is that the Holy Spirit is like the Father and like the Son, — we might (using human terms of course) say that the Holy Spirit is in harmony with, and represents, both the Father and the Son, both the high God and our Lord Jesus. (One is no more and no less God than the other is.) Well, what is this? Another puzzle? No; this truth gives us a way to distinguish between alleged Spirits of God and the true Spirit. If the "Spirit" leads a man to do what is not Christ-like, then we may be sure that whatever he has in his heart, it is not the Spirit whom Christ has sent.

Truth and Conscience

Jesus furthermore calls the Holy Spirit the "Spirit of Truth." Some Christians understand this to mean that wherever men are moving in the direction of truth — any truth, scientific, economic, intellectual, religious — there the Holy Spirit is at work. Now of course, if God is a god of truth, his Spirit will never support a lie. And we may well believe that God is concerned with truth of every kind and in every aspect of life. But it is also true that the Holy Spirit is most especially concerned with truth about God and about his relation to the world and particularly to man. It is quite possible, it happens every day, that men who have no religion and do not believe in God at all, make scientific explorations and discoveries that are true and even valuable. But no one is likely to learn much about God who does not seek the help of the Holy Spirit. To put this another way, only God can introduce us to God.

What a normal human being wants, however, is not mere bare truth, he wants not only to know, he wants to do. This is particularly true in the Christian religion. Like its mother-religion of Judaism, Christianity has always been interested in action. Right living is quite as important as right thinking, the two cannot be separated. So the Holy Spirit is called the "Counselor." This is a better translation than "Comforter" or "Advocate." Though it may include those other meanings. The word suggests that God within is not a presence only, but a guiding presence. Put into simple language, this means that the more Godlike, the more Christ-like, a person is, the more he will do what is right in the sight of God. We can't live with people without learning their ways; and we cannot live with God without learning—humbly but truly—more and more of His will.

A FARMER'S SENSE OF VALUE makes State Farm his first choice

A working farmer gets a special 15% to 30% discount on car insurance with State Farm. And he gets fast claim service at home or away from our 8,000 agents and claims men coast to coast. That's why more working farmers insure their cars and trucks with State Farm than with any other company. So for car, life, or farm liability insurance, call your State Farm "Family Insurance Man."

Demonstrating new '63 Chevrolet truck features the hard way!

When we came to a river we got wet. This river bed was paved with rocks the size of melons. What a test for new light- and heavy-duty suspension systems this was!

Conventional light-duty units have coil-spring independent front suspension—easier on truck, load and driver.

Users of new conventional medium- and heavy-duty units who have to operate in close quarters are going to like the narrower front ends (up to 7 inches).

New engines, suspensions, frames and narrower front ends show their stuff on Mexico's tough Baja Run!

With months of proving-ground tests under their belts, why did new Chevrolet trucks take on the rugged Baja (bah'jah) Peninsula? This is the toughest line of trucks Chevrolet has ever built. Sending them over the most punishing terrain in North America (a road totally unlike the fine highways on the Mexican mainland) was double proof of this fact. Frames, engines, suspension systems were subjected to stresses far greater than trucks normally encounter. You can be sure that trucks that can handle this kind of beating can handle any kind of work.

Elementary Pupils Take Pittsburgh Trip

A bus trip to Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh last Thursday for students of the Center Street and Dennett Road schools, turned out to be full of interest for 159 students and ten parents.

The trip was arranged by the Center Street Parent-Teacher association in cooperation of Emile Germain and Mrs. Phyllis Williams.
Most of the students were from third and fourth grade.

The four buses left Center street school at 6:10 a. m. for Carnegie Institute. They arrived there at 9:05 for a guided tour covering points of interest pre-arranged by Mrs. Williams. The tour moved smoothly, making it possible for Mr. Germain to arrange for the children to spend approximately two hours at the museum and two hours at the zoo.

The return trip began at 2 p. m., and all arrived at Center street school in Oakland at 5:45. The reported a successful trip. The cost to each person was slightly over $2, plus a packed lunch.

A Message

To The Citizens of Garrett County:

In the eight centuries or more in which the Judicial Office has evolved in the Anglo-American system of law, three essentials stand out in any definition of a good Judge. These are IMPARTIALITY, INDEPENDENCE and IM-MUNITY. Of these, Impartiality is the most important; Independence and Immunity are a means of achieving Impartiality.

Judges should be free from every tie which may sway their judgment.
They should be answerable to no one, and without Impartiality, all other personal qualifications of a judge—his character, courage, honesty and learning —are of little import or value if he is prejudiced or without impartiality.

These are the reasons our State Legislature has in its wisdom seen fit to permit candidates for the Judgeship to run impartially for this high office, without party designation, and why I seek the support of all of the citizens of Garrett County, irrespective of party affiliation.

To the many citizens of Garrett County who have been so kind and courteous and helpful to me during the current campaign, I wish to express my heartfelt THANKS; and to the many whom I have missed or will not have an opportunity to see before the election, I wish to say that your support is appreciated nonetheless.

Grantsville Girl Weds

Miss Sara Ruth Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Stanton, Sr., Grantsville, became the bride of David Leroy Jarrett, son of Mrs. Herbert Jarrett, Glen Burnie, and the late Mr. Jarrett on Saturday, September 15th.

The double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Martin Davidson, O. G. S., took place in St. John's Episcopal Church, Frostburg. The altar was decorated with vases of white fall flowers. Nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches were played on the organ by Mrs. Ruth Ouden.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory white satin. It was fashioned with a full skirt and a short fitted jacket with the traditional long pointed sleeves decorated with the small satin covered buttons. Her tapered veil fell from a sequin and pearl covered crown and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. She carried a satin covered prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Miss Linda Benson, Towson, was maid of honor. She was attired in a street length royal blue taffeta dress with matching shoes and short veil. Robert Jarrett, Glen Burnie, brother of the groom, served as best man. Miss Rene Jarrett, niece of the groom, was flower girl and was attired in yellow organza. She carried a basket of assorted fall flowers. The ring bearer was John M. Goehring, Cumberland. Ushers were William T. Stanton, West Friendship, Guy S. Stanton, Jr., and Thomas Stanton, Grantsville, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Stanton was attired in a green print dress with beige accessories and wore a yellow rosebud corsage. Mrs. Jarrett chose a blue print dress with black accessories and she wore a pink rosebud corsage.

A reception was held in the social room of the church following the ceremony. The four tier cake was served by Mrs. William Brewer and Miss Gail Petre. Mrs. John Goehring, friend of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Jarrett, sister-in-law of the groom, presided at the punch bowls.

The bride, a graduate of the Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Cumberland, is presently employed by the Anne Arundel Co.

Missionary To Speak At Oakland Church

Paul P. Wiant, retired missionary of the Methodist church, will speak at the morning worship service at St. Paul's Methodist church, Oakland, on Sunday, October 28, at 10:45 a. m.

Mr. Wiant is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan university, and holds the degree of Civil Engineer from the University of Cincinnati. He has had later graduate work at M. I. T. in Boston and at Cornell university.

Mr. Wiant answered a call from the Board of Missions in late 1916 to look after the building program of the church in China. He lived and worked in China from then until he was let out by the Communists in 1950.

After leaving China he was reassigned to Singapore, from which center he did building work in southeast Asia. He has done some work in the Philippines, in Hong Kong, and was briefly in India. Soon after the armistice was signed in Korea in 1953 he and Mrs. Wiant were sent there for making preliminary studies for rehabilitation of the church's plant. He designed and built a number of buildings in Sarawak. On one notable trip he was "trouble-shooting" in Liberia and the Belgian Congo.

Mrs. Wiant, the former Blanche Apple of Boulder, Colo., was for 30 years prior to her marriage in Sunday Education work, first in China and later in Sarawak. In this latter place she was the first Women's Division missionary. She and Mr. Wiant were married in Singapore in 1953.

Mr. Wiant was for 14 years the Secretary-Treasurer of the Fochow Mission, and has been lay delegate to two General Conferences.

In addition to Mr. Wiant's speaking at the 10:45 service, Mr. and Mrs. Wiant will take part in the Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. In the evening they will show colored slides of the Far East to the Methodist Youth Fellowship groups at 6:30. Mrs. Wiant will speak at the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial Service to be held at 7:30 p. m.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Glen T. Bauch, of Somerset, Pa., formerly of Crellin, have announced the engagement of their niece, Wilma Johnson, to Ernest Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark E. Hoffman, of Somerset.

Both are 1962 graduates of Somerset Area Senior High school.

Miss Johnson is presently employed by the J. J. Newberry Co. in Somerset. Her fiancé is employed on his father's dairy farm. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Income Tax Distribution Made To Counties

State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein announced that a distribution of income tax revenue totaling $2,511,368 was going out to the State's subdivisions, which represents the balance due them in returns filed for the year 1961 and from delinquent collections ranging from the year 1945 to 1960 inclusive.

This is the first income tax distribution made by the State in its current fiscal year and it compares with the distribution of $2,369,664 made around this time last year.

During the State's fiscal year ended June 30, 1962, $22,221,135 was distributed to Baltimore City, the 23 counties and the State's 160 incorporated cities, towns and taxing areas, and indications are that this amount may be exceeded this year.

Under the law a share of the income tax paid by each resident goes back to the subdivision of residence. If the taxpayer lives within an incorporated area of one of the counties, the share must be divided between the incorporated city or town and the county.

Garrett county and its municipalities will receive the following: $2,429.66 for the county government; $838.49 to the municipalities for a total of $3,268.15.

Voters Urged To

Amendment No. 3, condemnation in Montgomery county. Similar to question 1. In this case the appraiser would be substituted by a licensed real estate broker appointed by county council and a condition that the section would not apply to Montgomery county if property taken includes a building or buildings.

Amendment 4, Compensation of Members of Legislature. An amendment adopted in 1948 increased annual salary from $1,000 to $1,800. Present proposal is to increase salary to $3,000 and increase compensation to two presiding officers from $250 to $500.

Amendment 5, Decrees for Support of Illegitimate Children. The section involved provided that no person shall be imprisoned for debt. By an amendment adopted in 1950 it was provided that a court decree for the support of a wife or dependent children, or for alimony, does not constitute a debt within meaning of this section. The effect was to allow imprisonment for non-payment of a court order for support of a wife or dependent children or for alimony.

Present proposal is to add a provision that a court decree for support of an illegitimate child or children does not constitute a debt within meaning of this section which in effect would be to permit imprisonment for non-payment of such an order. A commission recommended this amendment as necessary basis for revision it is suggesting in laws on illegitimacy and care of illegitimate children.

Amendment No. 6, creating eighth Congressional district. The census of 1960 gave Maryland an additional seat in Congress. A law was enacted to establish boundaries of new district. The League of Women voters of Maryland recommends that people vote "no" on this question because the redistricting is "unfair". It claims a negative vote will show the State Legislature that people want 8 Congressional Districts of roughly equal population.

Amendment No. 7, Unemployment Compensation laws. The general Assembly amended the unemployment compensation laws but the act was petitioned to a referendum. It relates to unemployment insurance, proposing certain changes concerning renewing benefits after they are once exhausted, changes regarding old age insurance, pensions or annuities, changes in dependent allowance and maximum benefits, providing that dismissal payments and vacation payments shall be computed as wages; and making certain changes regarding eligibility during pregnancy, or after voluntarily leaving work after dismissal for disciplinary reasons or after failing to accept work.

A group known as "Citizens For Protecting Unemployment Benefit Funds" declared the law would be improved by voting in favor of this bill, and would re-establish principles of right and wrong in government. It claims more help for deserving unemployed and no hand-outs for the "gravy-train riders," and would plug loopholes in law through which the fellow who doesn't want to work is paid for not working.

Question No. 8, Building, Savings and Loan Associations. This to regulate the building, savings and loan associations. Following petitions for a referendum the General Assembly met in special session and reenacted substantially the same provisions previously passed and the latter act is now in effect, subject to being terminated if and when the original chapter becomes effective.

Question 9, Municipal Court of Baltimore City. Chapter 616 of 1961 was enacted at regular session to provide generally for the organization and operation of the Municipal Court of Baltimore city. Later the petitions for a referendum were submitted to secretary of state.

Meanwhile at the special session the general assembly substantially reenacted the provisions of the earlier act in five chapters, and these five acts now are in effect, subject to the vote of the people.

If recommendations are made by the Sun Newspaper, The Republican will pass this information on to the voters, since it is difficult to vote intelligently in these issues.

Opinions On Slot

Continued from Page One position that slot machines should be eliminated. The Republican nominee for State Senate took a more moderate view. Walsh, Democrat, said he would support the governor's position that slot machines are a matter for state-wide legislation.

Garrett counties with one exception felt even more strongly that slot machines are a local matter. Mrs. Martha I. Glatfelter, Republican, said "I'm against all forms of gambling and always have been. I would favor state laws to get rid of slot machines because the person who plays them is the loser and because the economy of a county should be based on something more stable."

Del. Elza E. Bray, Republican said, "The slot machines went in on a referendum, I believe, and if they're going to come out they should come out the same way. He said he was opposed to slots machines but would let the people in the four counties decide. Elwood S. Groves, Republican, said "I don't think Garrett county should settle Anne Arundel's problems." Spencer Graham, Republican for Senate, said he wasn't well enough informed to draw any firm conclusions as to whether a state-wide law is needed.

Maurice S. Brookhart, Democrat, called the slot machines "a menace to society," but that he hadn't given much thought to legislation because they were in the southern part of the state, a good piece away from Garrett county.

Mrs. Helen T. Baumgartner, Democrat, said she would consider slot machines a matter for state-wide legislation only if the governor should ask for a specific bill to get rid of them. Leslie E. Savage, Democrat, called slot machines "an evil," and he would hesitate to interfere. Mrs. Helen R. Roberson, Democrat, said she hadn't given it much thought. "Right now it's a county problem."

The bill states, among other things, that title to said property

TO THE CITIZENS OF GARRETT COUNTY

Good government begins with good citizens going to the polls on election day and voting for the best candidates available. The greatest threat to our American Democracy today may well be the person who sits at home on election day and fails to exercise his constitutional right. The "good" people who fail to vote are the people who pass the "bad" laws and elect our "worst" officials.

Tuesday, November 6th, may well be one of the most important dates in the history of Garrett County. It is more than just another election day because the citizens of Garrett County will be selecting, on that day, the leaders who will shape the destiny of our county for a great many years. For that reason, let's go to the polls and vote for the type of county we want for ourselves and our children.

We are deeply grateful for your interest and confidence expressed heretofore, and earnestly solicit your continued support in this vitally important election.
